Crazy days — everyone needs a couple now and then to keep from bouncing off the walls. There are days when insanity fills the air and everyone from students to teachers to Mr. Shorkey get caught up in the game. What starts as a simple gag can spread like wildfire until an entire hall is filled with laughter.

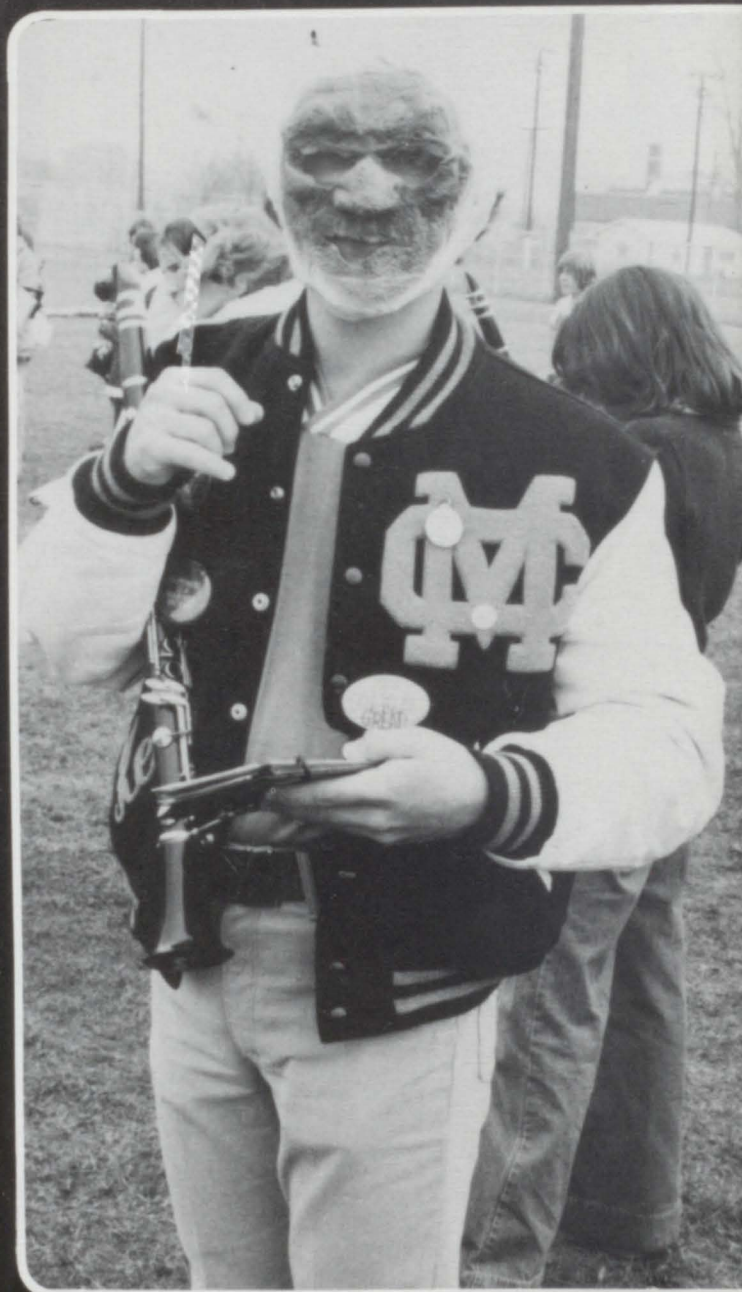

At M.C.H.S., there's a little "craziness" everyday — cream pies, Mariner hats, and playing dress-up aren't exactly commonplace ... yet. But not a day goes by without at least a couple minutes of Mariner madness.

Classic Moments in Mariner Madness

Happenings
Hit the Spot

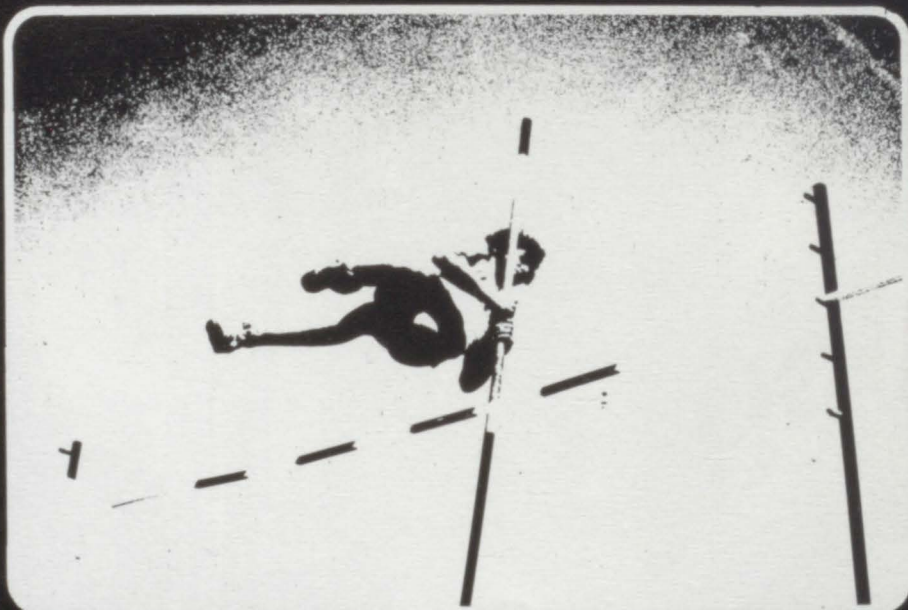

A "happening" could pop up anywhere, at anytime, and be almost anything as long as it's out of the ordinary and causes a buzz of excitement to run thru MCHS. One way to know if a "happening" is HAPPENING is by the people — when the students are out in full force and everyone comes away with a grin, there's no mistaking it. Happenings rarely just "happen". It's hard to pull off a "Star Wars" extravaganza, have a Santa suit appear out of thin air, or find a first-rate rock band knocking on the door without people working to pull it together and bring MCHS what it wants — happenings.

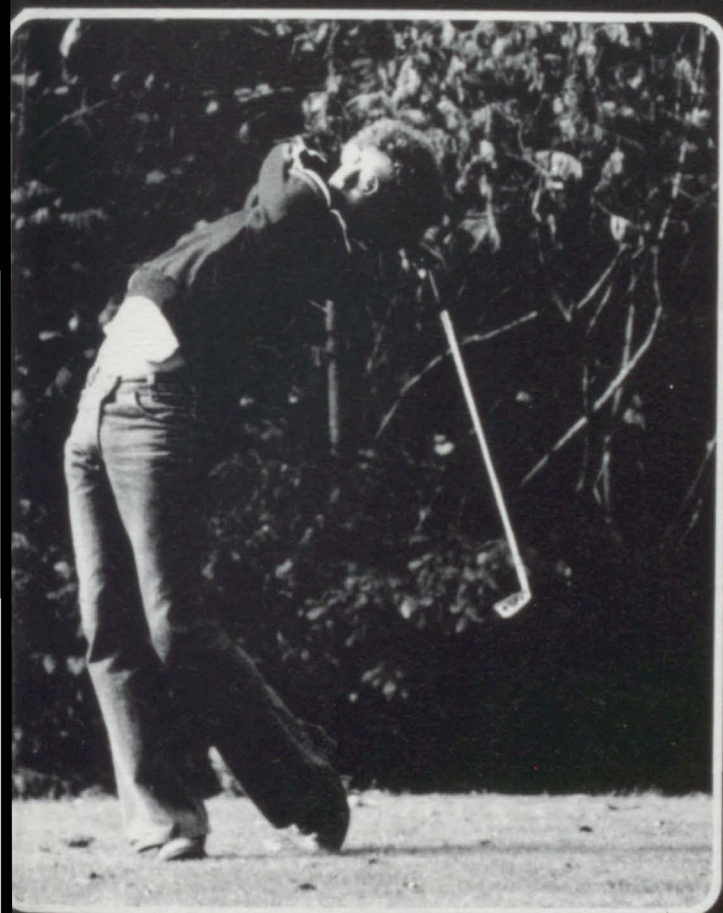

"Jocks" — the guys and girls for whom competition is a way of life — play a big part in making MCHS tick. When the team wins, school spirit hits fever pitch; when an athlete proves himself special, congratulations and honors flow; when our athletes are hot, MCHS is hot, and ready to take on the world.

Whether it's basketball, golf, football, wrestling, volleyball, tennis, track, or baseball, sports pull MCHS together. It gives the school something to fight for and a common goal—to be the best. It involves many more than just athletes. From cheerleaders to the community support MCHS is famous for, participation is the name of the game.

*Athletes - Action,
Aches, Applause*

A day in the life of a Mariner starts at 8 a.m. From first hour on, it's uphill all the way with a flood of lectures, notes, and problems that never really stop until 2:15. And whether it's playing air hockey in Physics, making subs in Speech, shooting baskets in Phys. Ed. or grilling steaks in Foods, it's still school.

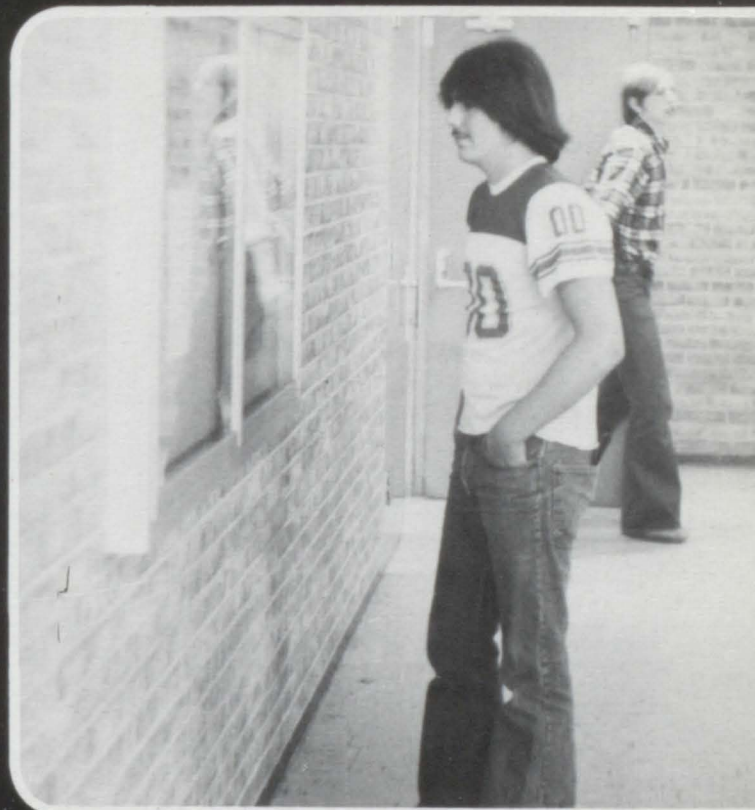

Roller skates would be one solution to all the running around MCHS students do — besides trips back and forth between classes and lockers, everyone's expected to take laps, hang out at their favorite radiator, and hit the johns several times a day, if only to keep up with MCHS social life.

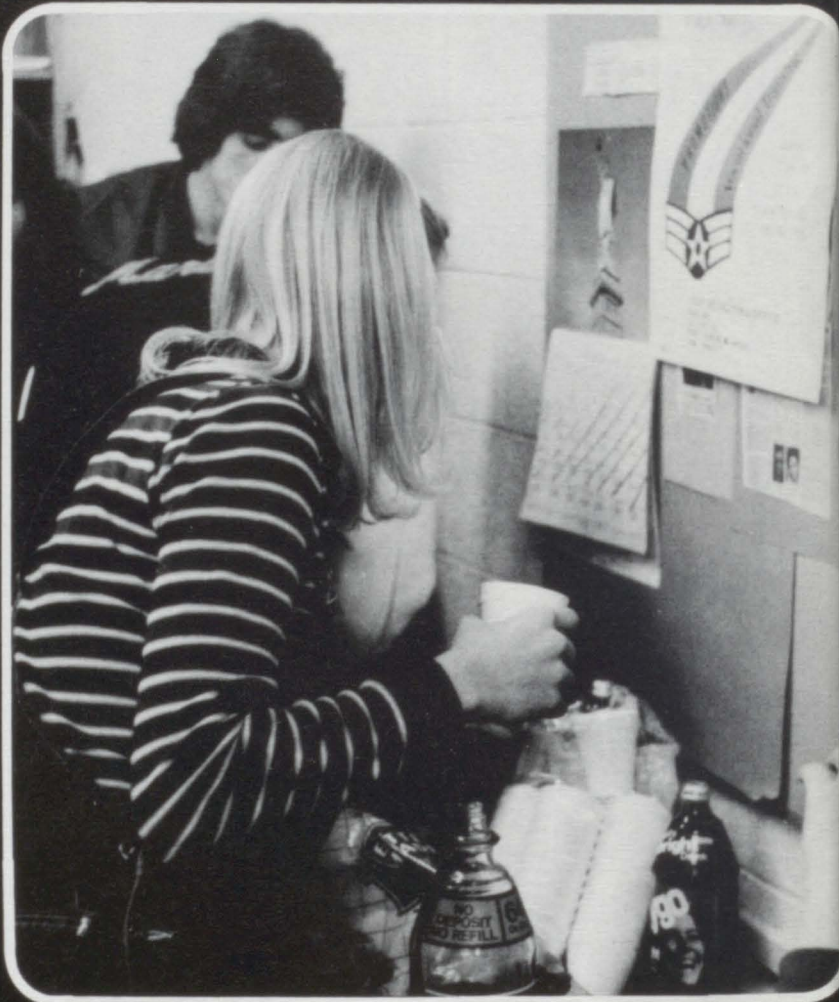

A six class load is interrupted only for lunch — a 45 minute deal that never seems to last more than five. It's the most popular part of a Mariner day, and whether ping-pong or pigging out is your game, fourth hour is the time for it.

For upperclassmen, co-op and skill center can lend some relief to the school day. The rest of MCHS just sweats it out, and at 2:15 the doors fly open and freedom is only a parking lot away. Until tomorrow.

Contemporary Classes Continue at M.C.H.S.

If it's not the lectures, it's notes, if it's not notes, it's problems — but sometimes it's mixing up evil brews like a mad scientist, forging hammers, cutting cake (geometrically of course) and throwing parties for little kids. MCHS classes use a mixture of methods to pound their lessons home.

One thing each MCHS course does have in common is it's students — there's always the sleepers, the gigglers, the class clowns, and the studiers. (although they're sometimes hard to find.) MCHS teachers come in all shapes and dispositions, too — the jokers and the snap-quizzers, the screamers, the sadists, and those whose easy-going grades are world renowned. Six classes a day gives good odds that MCHS students get to know them all a little better than they'd like to.

*Smiles,
Signs,
Super Spirit*

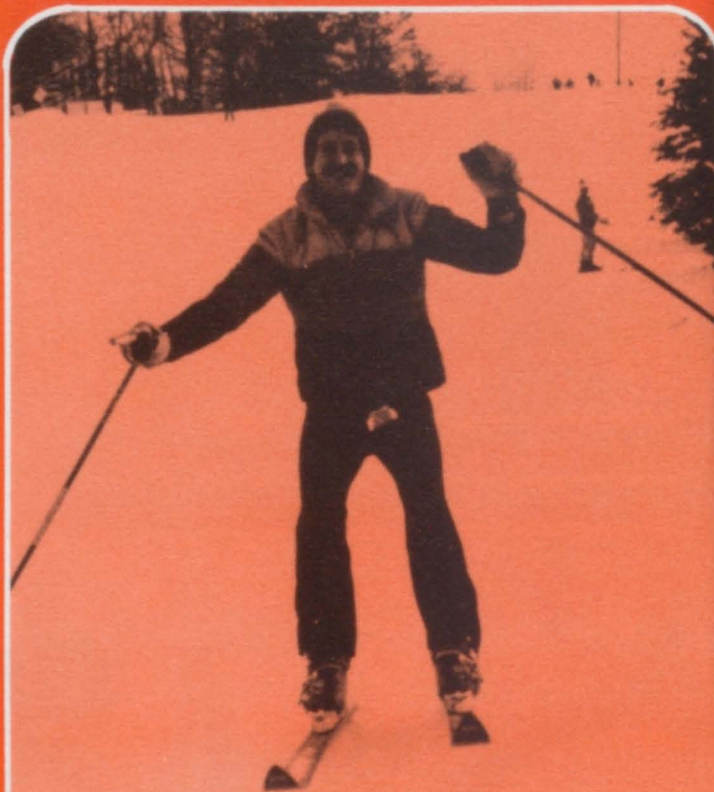

If there's one thing MCHS has, it's spirit! It shows itself in the cheers of fans, in student participation, in sign-filled halls, and in the faces of the people who cause the spirit to reach feverpitch. MCHS students believe in their athletes, their school, and in themselves.

Chances are, the next time an orange and black clad figure runs past carrying a brown jug, covered with buttons and screaming "FIGHT! KILL! WE WANNA WIN!" at the top of his lungs, it'll be a Mariner or an escaped lunatic.

The Educators

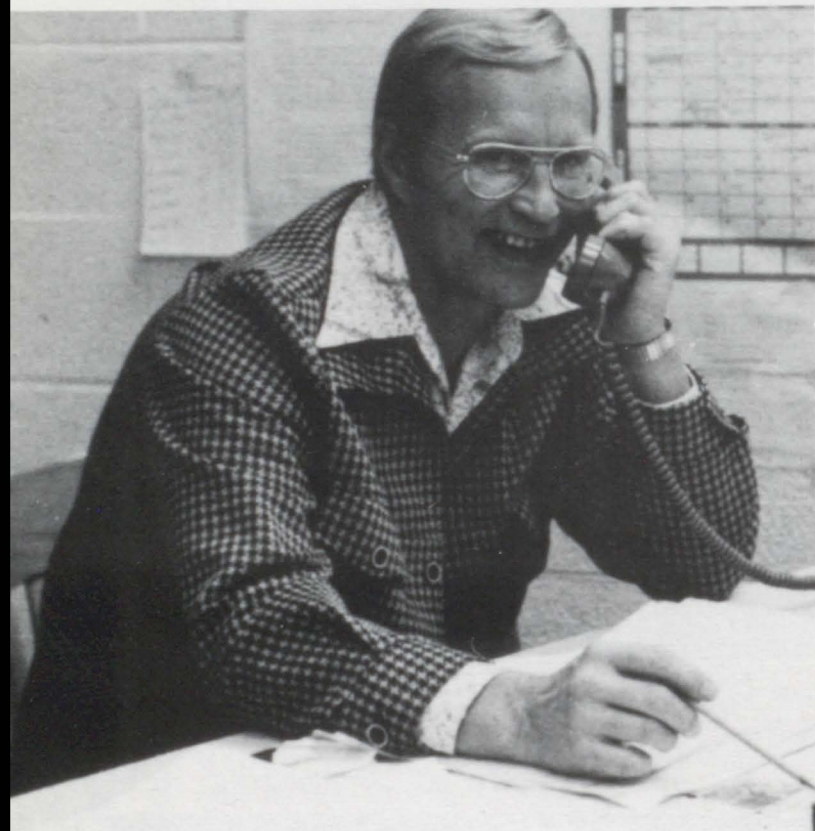

Educating is different from "teaching". And the M.C.H.S. staff are true educators — trying not only to put facts in front of their students, but getting the student to question it, work with it, and to use it in their own lives. The focus in education is to prepare a student for tomorrow — and M.C.H.S. educators put their all into it.

"How Dull - All Work, No Play"

Most of us can remember being asked the question, "Where were you third hour?" Coming up with a believable alibi, when confronted by Mr. Wiinikainen, wasn't the easiest thing to do. After your excuse fell through, a meeting with Mr. Shorkey was arranged. Having, again, to explain why you were absent third hour led to some more complications. Why? Because you explained that you were at two places at the same time. So, finally, Mr. Shorkey decided the best thing to do was to ask you to get out and please don't have this happen again. Because if it does ...!

1. Principal Tom Shorkey starts his long day out with a smile.
2. Mrs. Chartier wonders if filing is all there is to life.
3. Mrs. Eber types up another day's absence list.
4. Our "DEAN OF DISCIPLINE" Mr. Wiinikainen pursues perfect punctuality and astounding attendance.
5. Mr. Trudell busily prepares ideas for new classes to be introduced into the curriculum.
6. Mrs. Westrick takes time out from her schedule to say a friendly hello.

"Help, I Need Somebody"

1. Miss Cawrse talks to Mary Trudell about a co-op job.
2. Craig Berry smiles deviously knowing that Mrs. Green has forgotten about his overdue book.
3. Mr. Scheel smiles as he looks over a college booklet and thinks of his college days.
4. Miss Kimmert wonders if Diane Atkinson is really interested in her pamphlets.
5. Miss Vaughn checks Chuck Ernst's math assignment.
6. Miss Radtke thinks to herself, "will Mike Kliemann ever learn?"

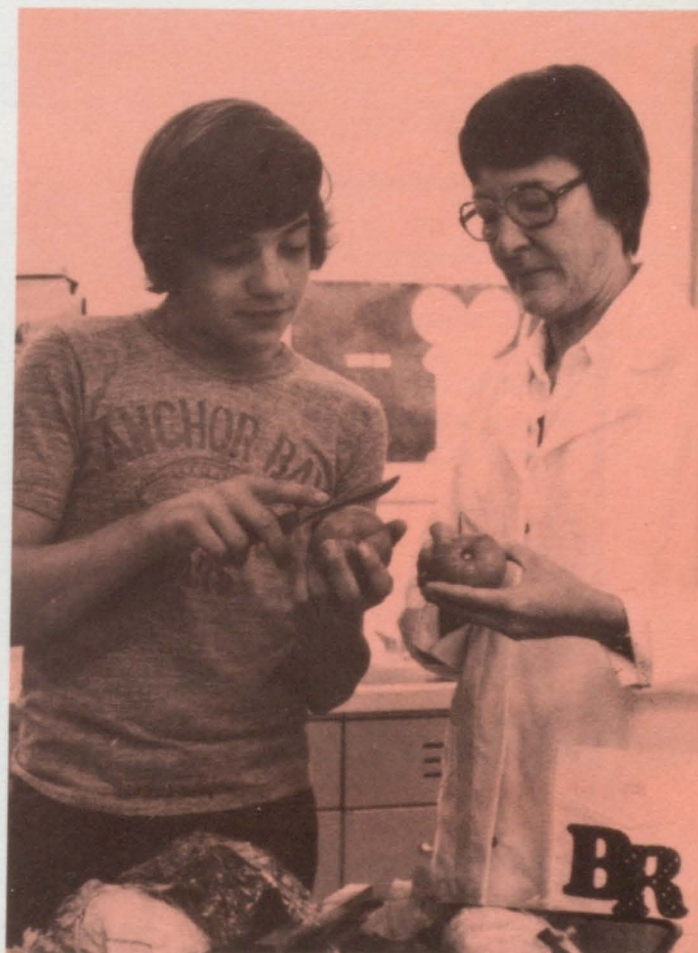

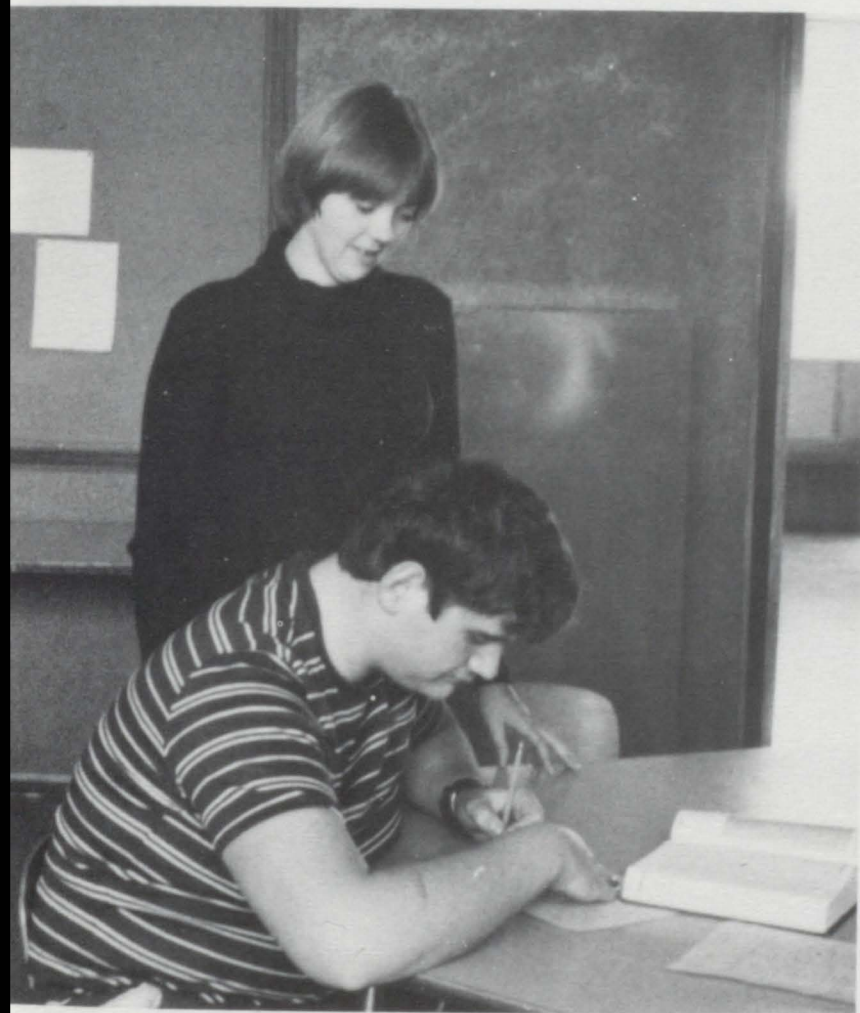

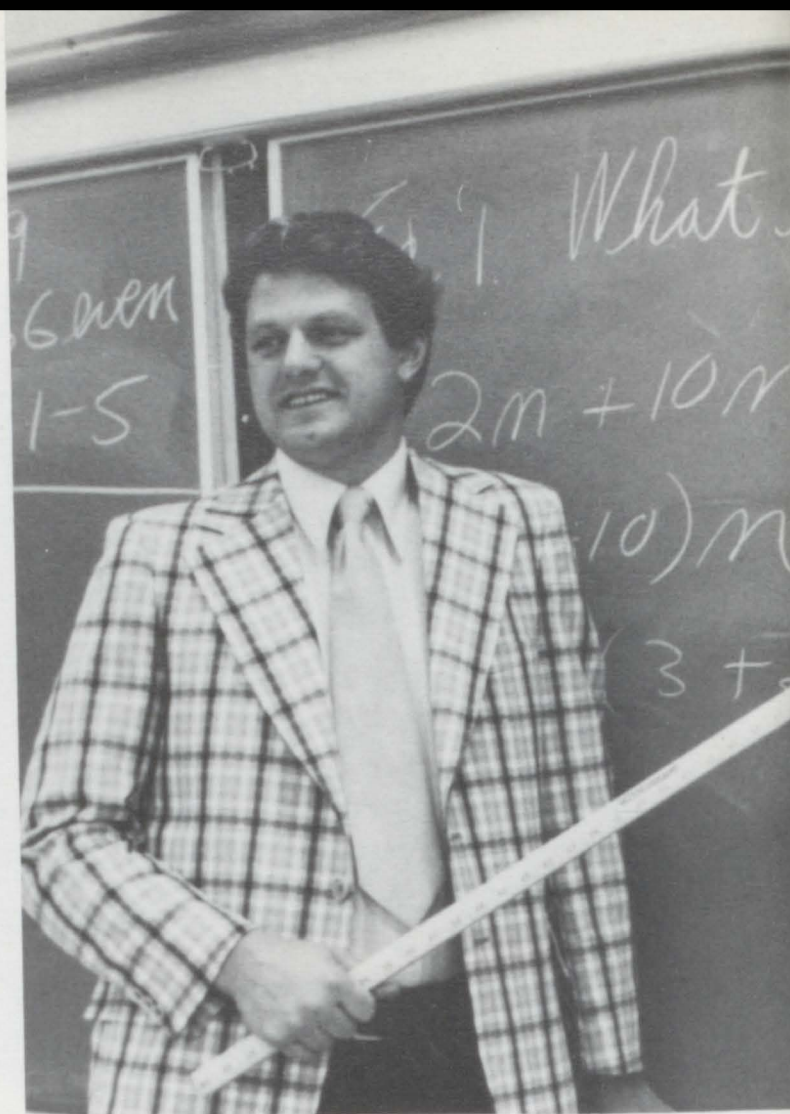

College is a subject that all of us are either looking forward to, or are just plain scared to death of.

With all the things on our minds, homework and all, it is hard to even begin to look for an appropriate college.

At M.C.H.S. we have two good counselors ready and waiting to help us with our choices. Miss Kimmet and Mr. Scheel are well trained in giving advice to us on making decisions concerning classes, and problems, as well as college choices.

Did you ever plan to take in a bull fight, or just take a siesta? If so then a trip to Spain with Ms. Tual and the Spanish Classes is a must! You can even go to Spain and never leave the school! Yes, never leave the school! Ms. Tual will not only teach you how to speak in Spanish, but you can also learn cultural facts of the Spanish ways of life.

Mrs. Clausen also teaches a type of culture. It's called Art! Painting, Sculpturing and drawing are some of the many interesting areas that can be pursued in the Art Program.

After all a little Culture never hurt anyone!

No Two Teachers Are Quite The Same

1. First let's turn the music right side up, replies Miss Bastian to her drummers.
2. Mr. Gunderson shows his students the finer points of Math.
3. Mrs. Clausen shows Pat D'Onofrio how to paint his family tree.
4. Connie Kaatz still doesn't understand Mrs. Burmann's theorys.
5. "This, Ms. Tual replies to Traci Boruff and Derek Jones "Is what happens to my students who don't study their Spanish!"

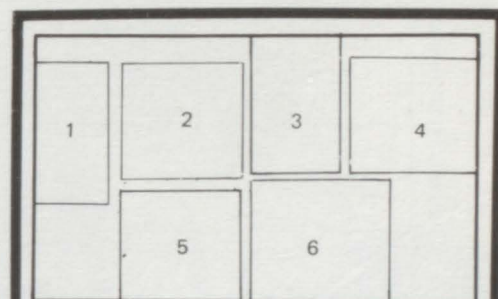

Do You Remember When?

Do you remember when the sound of thirty typewriters, all clicking away at once, drove you crazy? Funny but after about a week the noise became part of your daily routine. Learning how to type and address business letters was something you had to accomplish everyday.

Does the date of the Civil War or when Columbus first arrived here sound familiar? If not then one of Mr. Homberg's or Mr. Smith's history classes was something that you should've looked into. You would have learned about everything from Prehistoric Indians to the Soo Locks.

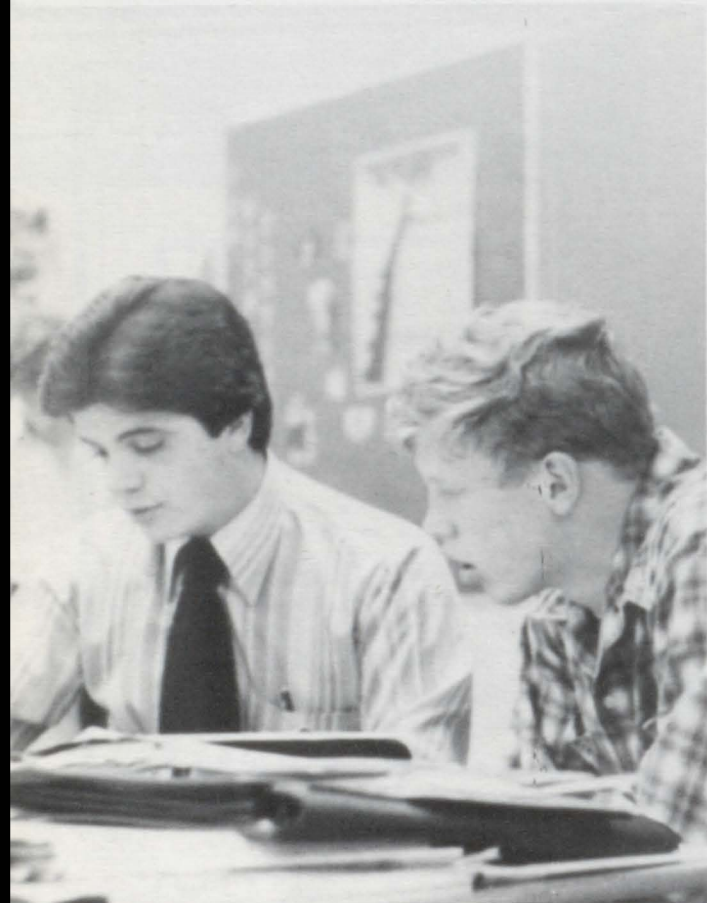

1. Mrs. Joachim starts another busy day with a cheerful smile.
2. Linda Brenner listens closely to Mrs. Warner's instructions of how to work the copy machine.
3. A slight chuckle is let out by Mr. Chamberlain as his class tells him a "funny" political joke.
4. Mr. Homberg questions John Richards and Terry Rabine as to whether General Custer really fought in the Revolution.
5. Another days lesson is written on the board by Mr. Horning.
6. Mr. Smith shows Tina Polander a nice place for vacationing.

Pronouns, Pushups — What a Pain!

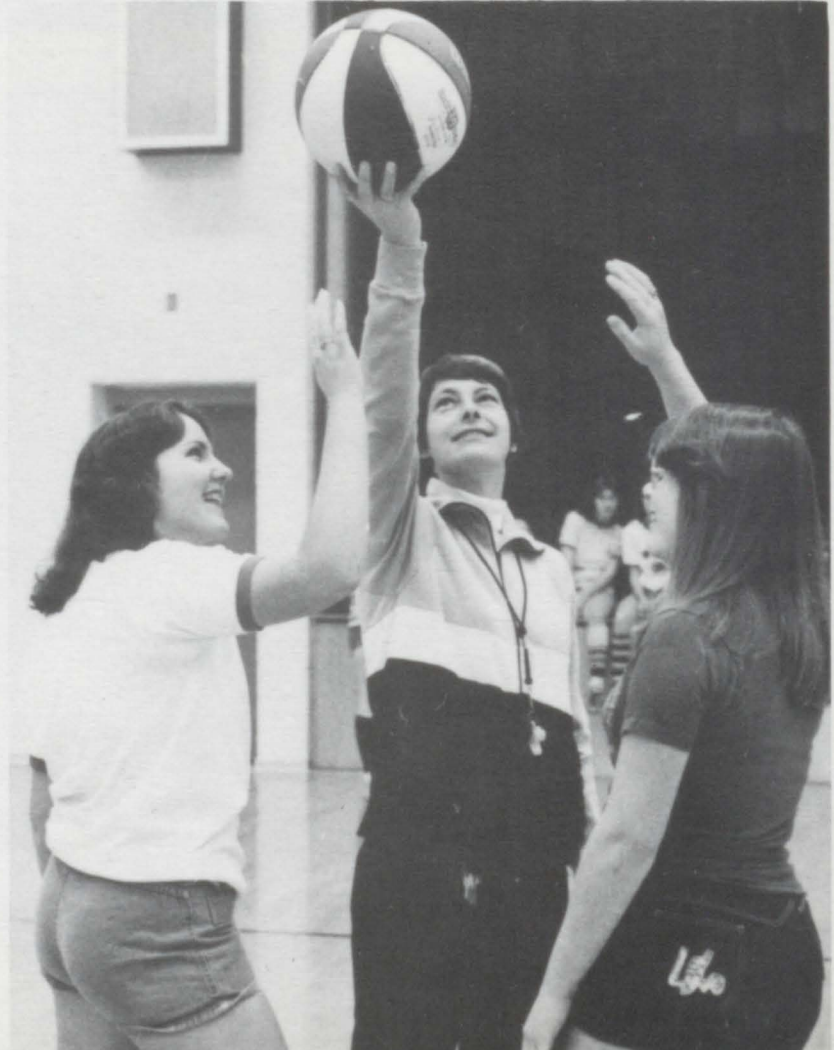

Puerile ... what the heck does that mean ... I guess I better look it up if I want to understand this corny story ... let's see, P ... P-U-E ... ah here it is, puerile ... oh, it means stupid. Why say puerile when you can just say stupid? THIS IS PUERILE!!

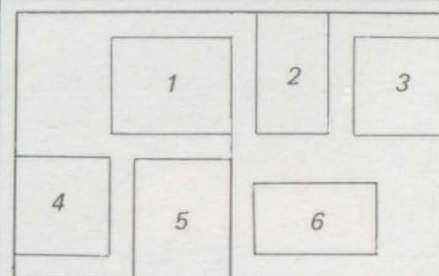

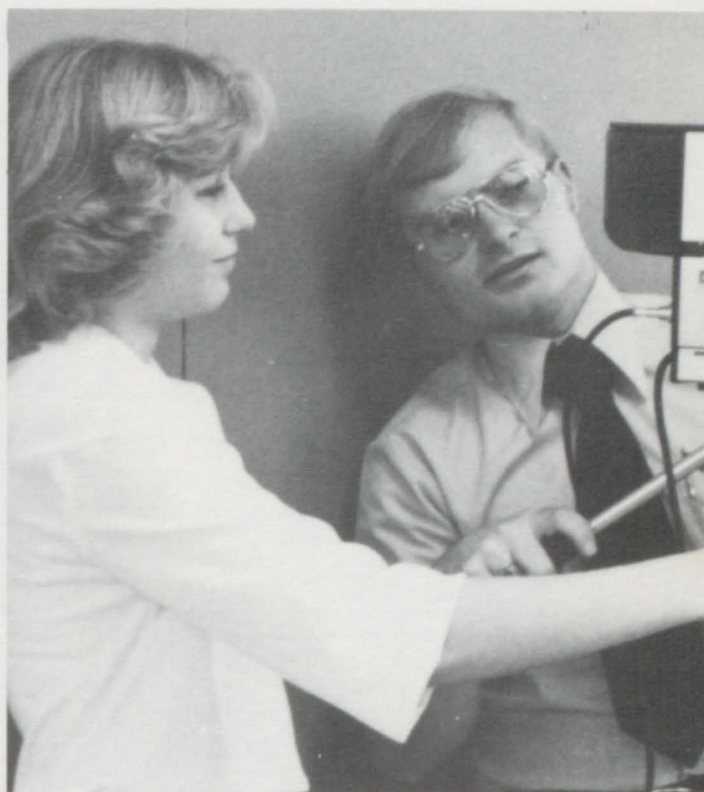

Some of us recall asking ourselves similar questions. We also remember never getting an answer. Well go ahead and ask your local English teacher, while there's still a little school left. You know what you'll hear? To W-I-D-E-N your vocabulary.

Physical Ed. has a whole new concept. Instead of the usual blah, dull gym classes, this year co-ed gym and weight lifting added some new variety. While weight lifting added a few new strong guys to the school halls, the co-ed class added a few new couples.

The Educators

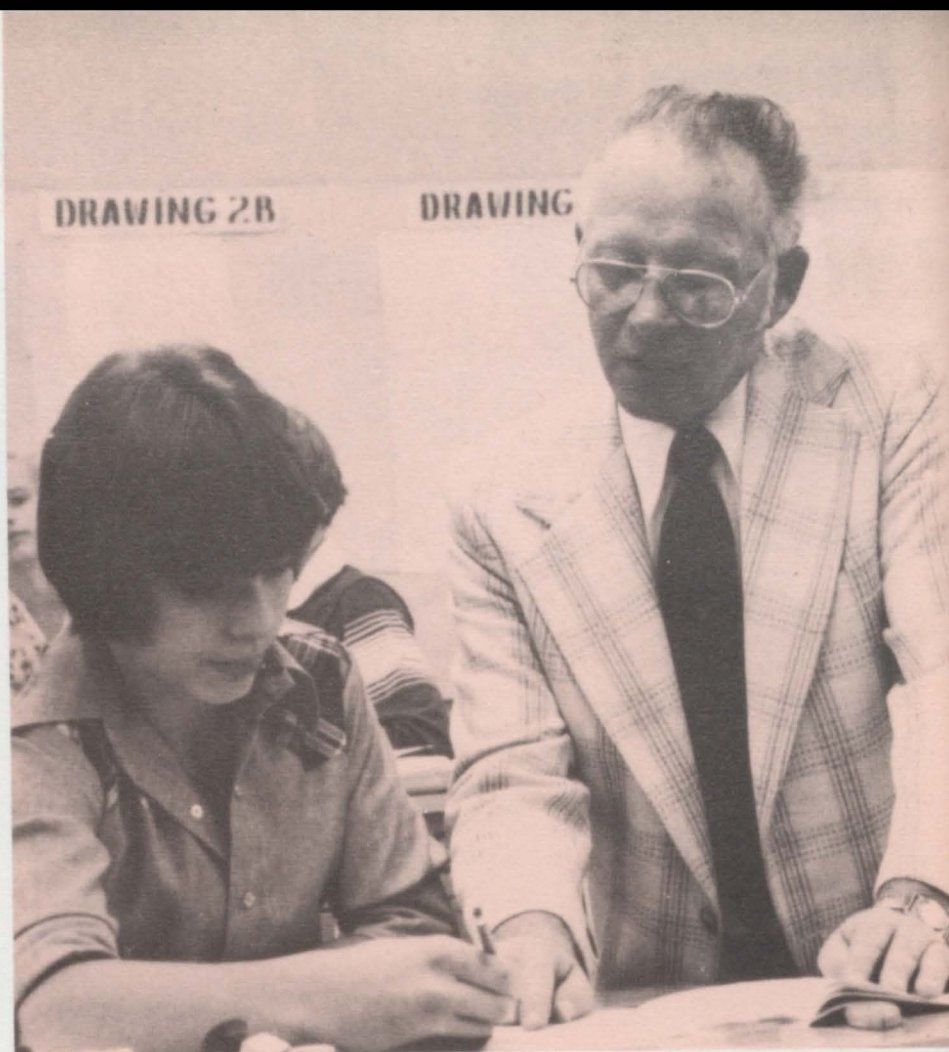

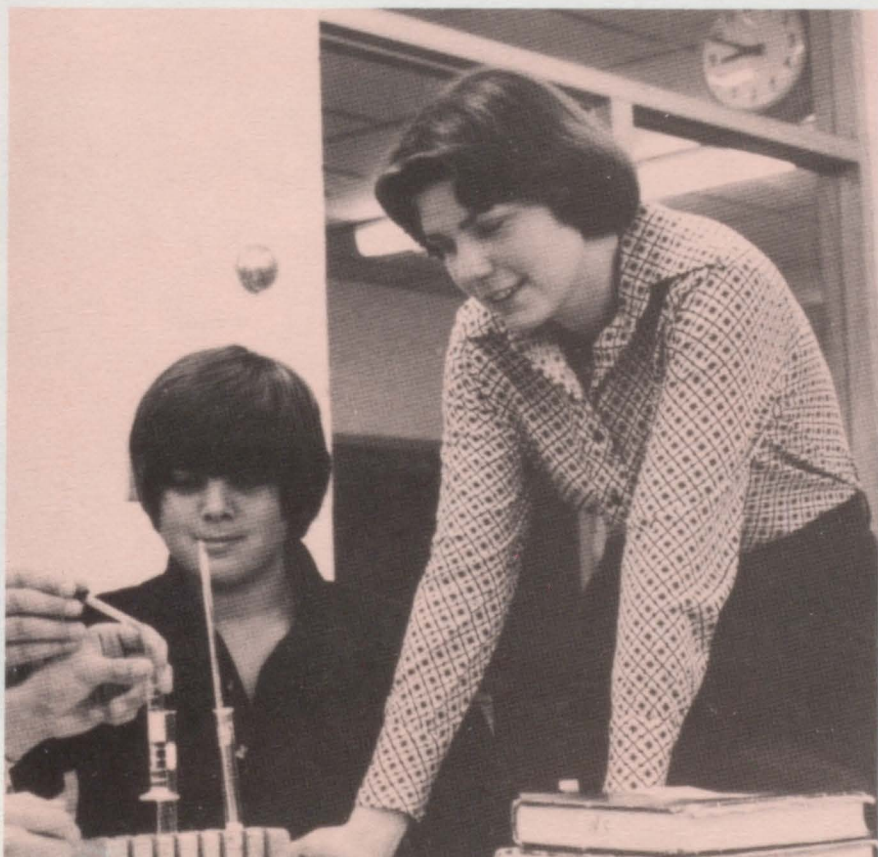

1. Mr. Archer explains to Ron Schade and Vickie Lautt the meanings behind his Marvel comics.
2. Bring late will cost you twenty-five push-ups, as Mr. Warkentien disciplines Mark Bachler.
3. Lori Reynolds wonders, 'Will Mr. Pavlov ever teach me to work this video machine?'
4. Mr. Cavis shows Gordon Kettle the proper way to draw a lay out.
5. Miss Lownsbury shows Anita Commet and Jacque Lenord the proper way of throwing up a jump ball.
6. David Egge laughs at one of Mr. Harvey's trivial facts.

	1	2	3
4	5	6

1. Jerry Auclair looks disgusted as Mr. Flemming tells him his drawing is all wrong.
2. Mr. Newcombe takes time out to help Lori Kammer with her Life Science assignment.
3. Mrs. Harris explains the periodic table to her second hour Chemistry class.
4. Mr. Rice helps Jim O'Hare place his board in the saw properly.
5. Mr. Milson shows his class another interesting Power Mechanics filmstrip.
6. Ms. Moynihan expects good results from Sam Baker's Biology experiment.

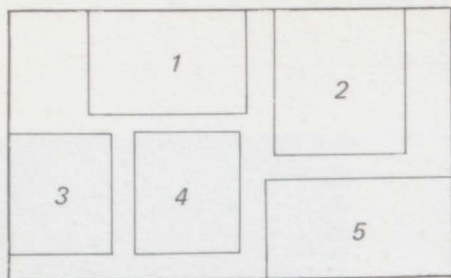

Experimenting Builds Our Minds

For students at M.C.H.S. this was a year for new experiences. The Industrial Arts classes encounters included learning how to draw floor plans, constructing tables and bookcases, making chisels, welding, and the usual amount of scrapes and cuts.

This year Mrs. Harris' physics classes took a trip to Toronto. After a four hour train ride the students enjoyed a day of sightseeing, shopping, and visits to many of Toronto's exciting attractions. The highlight of the day was a stop at the Ontario Science Center where they visited a computer that talked. The day ended with a deliciously satisfying meal at the spaghetti factory.

1. Mrs. Wiinikainen shows Kathy Krutz the right way to wrap a fractured wrist.
2. Keeping students addresses organized is one of the many jobs Mrs. Faucher takes care of.
3. Mr. Green and Mr. Shackett are prepared for another full days work at M.C.H.S.
4. Our night time janitors are Richard Zech, Art and Cliff Grawbowski, and Mary Balfour.
5. Ready for another hectic lunch hour are the M.C.H.S. cooks: Vi Baumgarten, Joyce Maas, Grace Nichols, Doris Blaine, and Aileen Lindow.

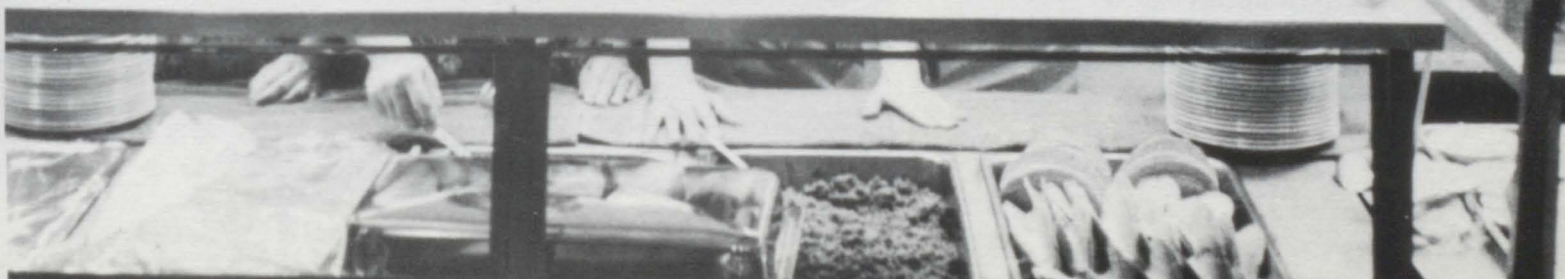

What Would We Ever Do Without 'Em

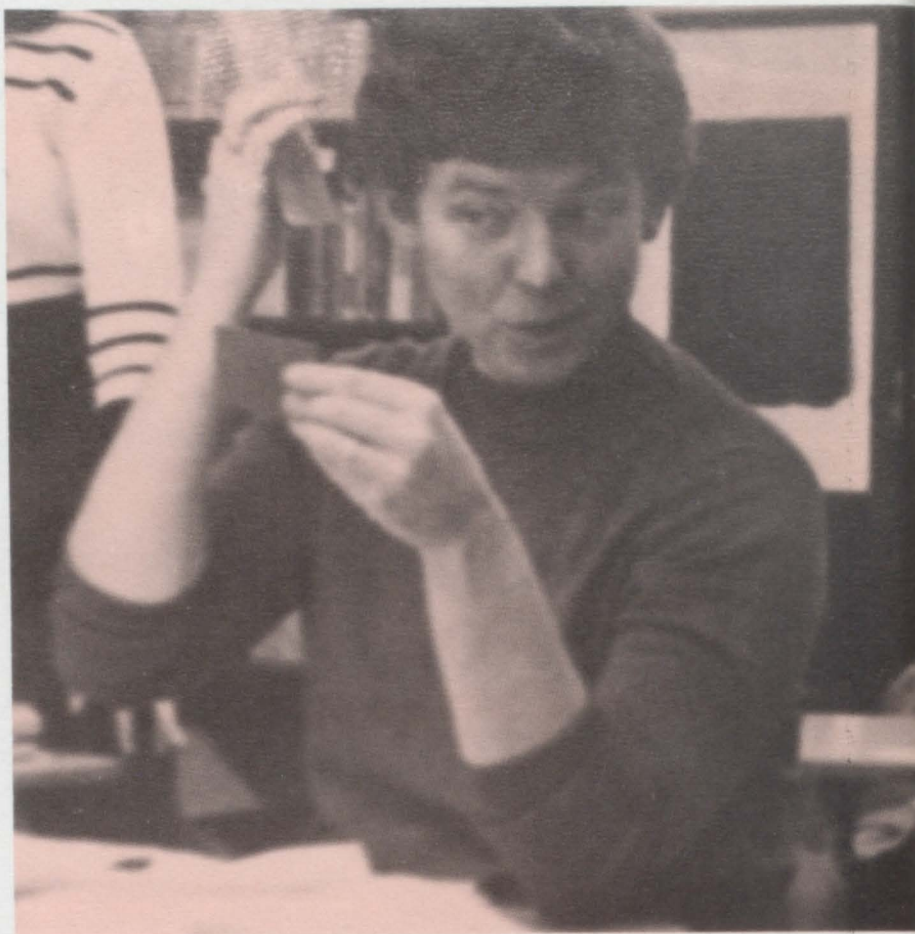

What makes a school? Obviously, we need students and teachers. Counselors and administrators are indispensable. By putting these together and mixing them with spirit we have a school, right? Wrong. We have forgotten an ingredient, the M.C.H.S. maintenance staff. Although these people are taken for granted by many students, they are working around the clock, washing windows, checking lights, dusting floors, and generally picking up after six hundred students.

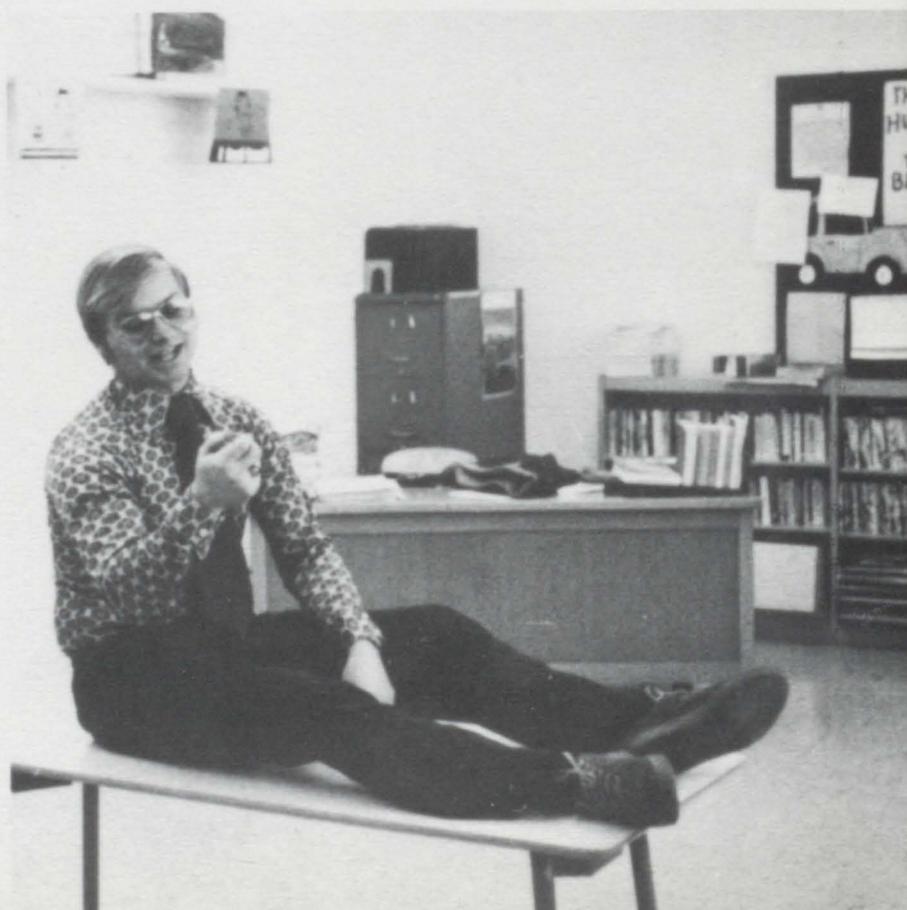

"Let's see with the extra milk and the cookie that will be 80 cents or is that 85 cents?" Checking the prices of the students lunches is one of the irritating problems, that the kitchen staff has to put up with during the daily lunch "rush hour". The cooks have to begin early in the day in order to prepare enough food to feed the unquenchable appetites of M.C.H.S. kids.

Teachers Are Human Too!

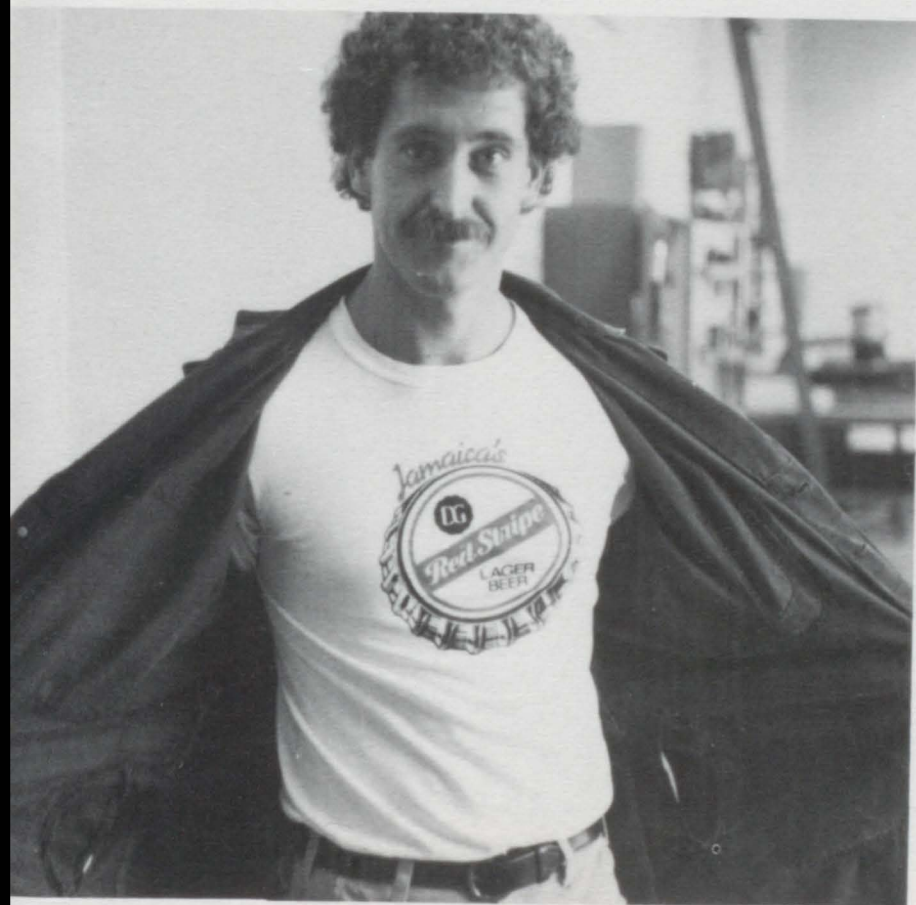

Did you ever go downtown and see a teacher, and were absolutely amazed. I'm pretty sure we've all had the same views about them. The idea of a faculty member actually skiing, singing, or combing his hair is just not heard of. If you stuck around after school, or whenever, you might have sneak peek at some of the educator's weirdness. They really do lead normal lives. Strange as it may be, Teachers are only human.

1	2	3
	4	5	6

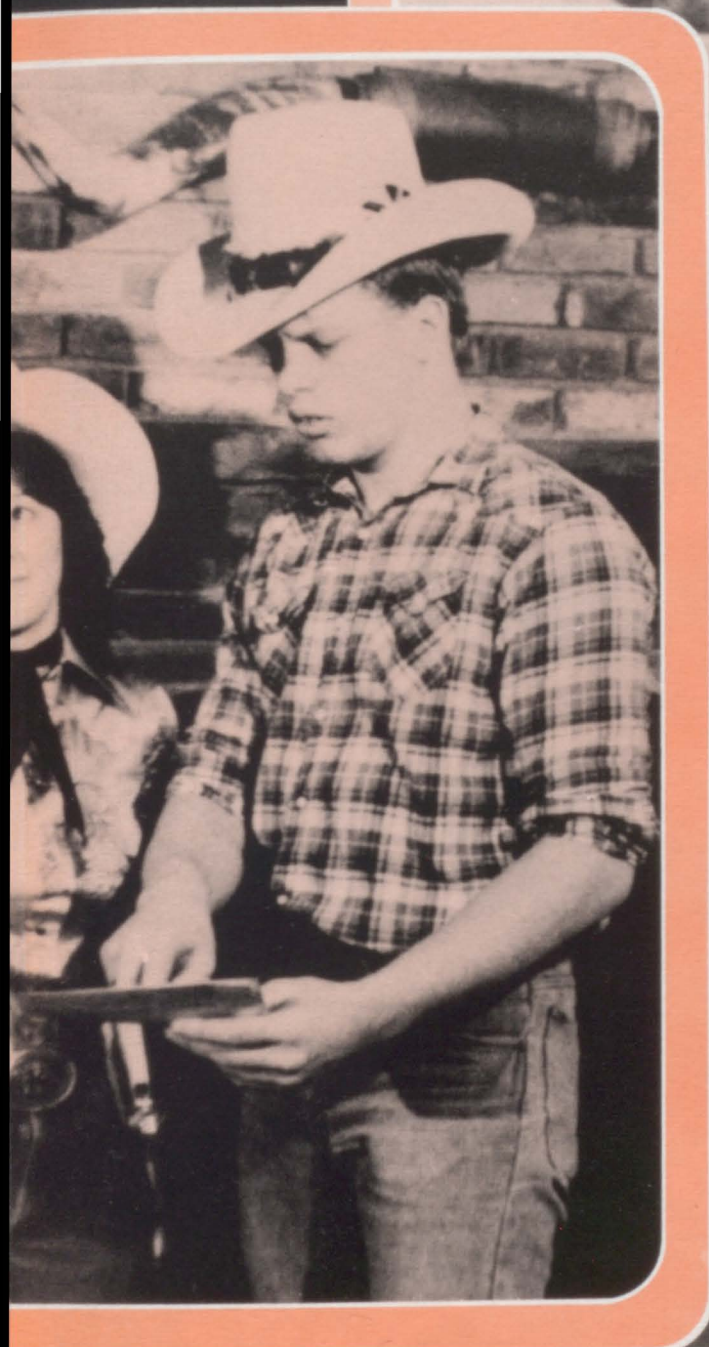

1. Mr. Warkentien leads the audience in singing the National Anthem.
2. "Aren't a natural beauty?" whispers Mr. Harvey
3. Mrs. Burmann congratulates Kathy Scheer for her performance on the last mount.
4. Mr. Pavlov "gets into the act" by pantomining "Rubber Ducky" to his Drama Class.
5. For T-shirt day, Mr. Rice displays his favorite Jamaican beer.
6. Ms. Tual supervises the stage decorating activities for the Homecoming.

The Activities

At MCHS it's pretty hard to get lost in the crowd. There aren't many who choose to stand by the sidelines when there's so much to do, so many people to be with, and so much to get involved in. Being active in a group gives MCHS students an identity. Plus, groups and activities benefit all of MCHS — they're the ones who get things done, make school a little more lively, and provide hours of entertainment. To these people, recognition and honors are just fringe benefits — participation and fun is what the real focus is on.

Fairy Tales Really Do Come True!

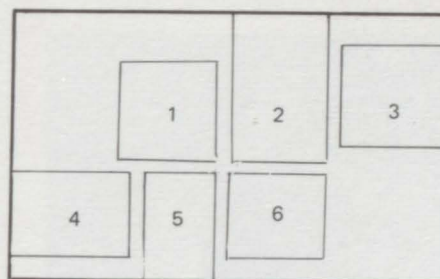

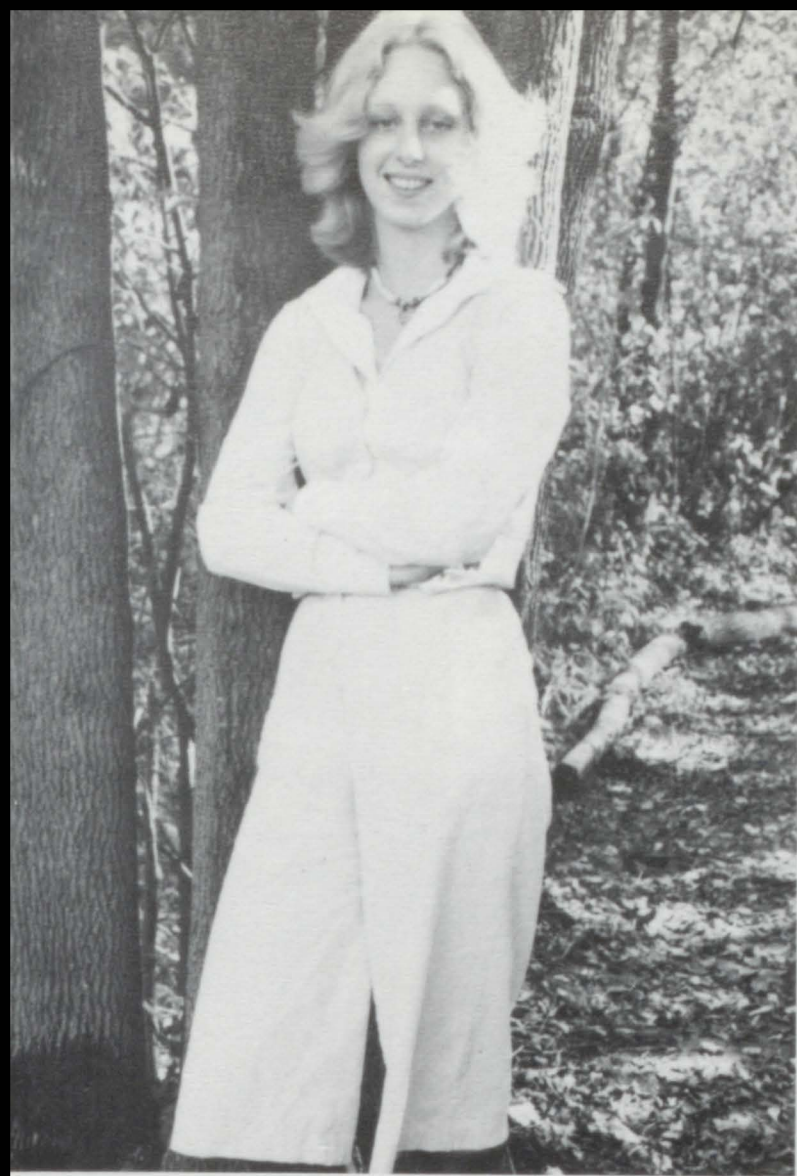

Fairy tales really did seem to come true when Mrs. Burmann announced the names of the six girls on the 1977 homecoming court. They were all proud and happy to be chosen.

Each of the girls was crowned and presented flowers at the pep assembly. They all enjoyed the races and the other entertainment that was presented to them in their honor. At the football game little something special was said about each of the girls while they were being introduced.

The dance had a good turn out, too. The gym was decorated with stars and Disney characters dancing around the stage.

All and all the homecoming was a real success, that left memories that will never be forgotten.

1. Cheerleading is Rhonda Maitland favorite past time throughout the year.
2. Senior Princess Connie Scott plans to attend college and become a social worker.
3. Snow skiing, swimming and cheerleading are just a few of Valerie Smith's Hobbies.
4. Sophomore Dawn Arnold enjoys not only cheering at games but also likes to read a lot.
5. After graduating Carol Burmann plans to pursue a career in nursing at SCCC.
6. Most outdoor sports are Tina Blakely's main interest.

*If You Knew Suzy,
Like We Knew Suzy*

"If you knew Suzy, like I know Suzy" you would agree "Oh, Oh, Oh what a gal."

Tears of joy, surprise and excitement were Sue's reaction after being announced 1977 Homecoming Queen.

At the crowning ceremony, she was escorted by Craig Boulter, long time friend. During her speech, Sue told the students how proud and honored she was to represent the school as Queen. Later Sue and her court reigned over the annual class events of tricycle, sack, and 3-legged races and Competition between classes. Sue threw suckers to all individual winners.

Later in the afternoon Queen Sue and her court were presented during half time at the game to the cheering crowds. Despite the rainy weather, the football team had a big victory over Cross Lex 38-2. Later that evening Sue presided over the traditional Homecoming Dance.

Beautiful memories of Homecoming left imprints of shock, thrill, surprise and happiness never to be forgotten by Queen Sue and her Court.

Sophomore Spirit Skyrockets

"Spirit, spirit, let's hear it." We sure did hear it during this year's Spirit Week.

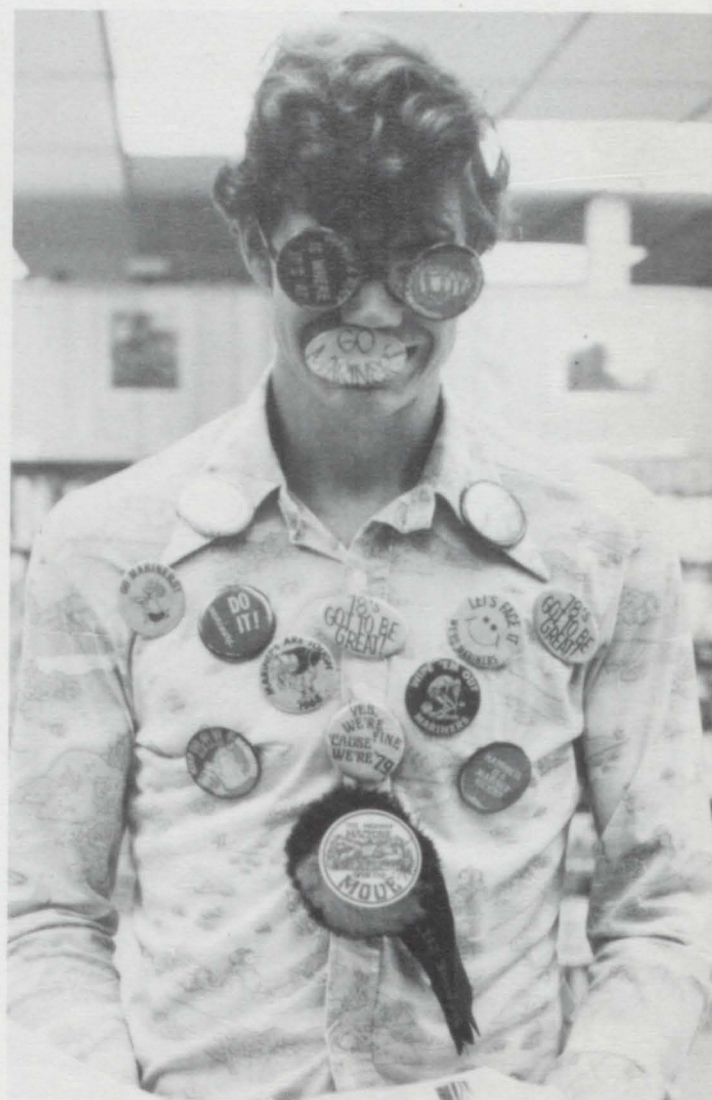

The week got off to a great start with T-shirt day. The Sophomores got all dressed up in their favorites to win a first place for their class.

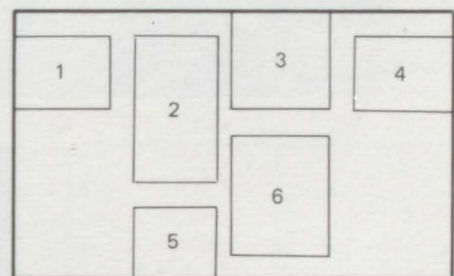

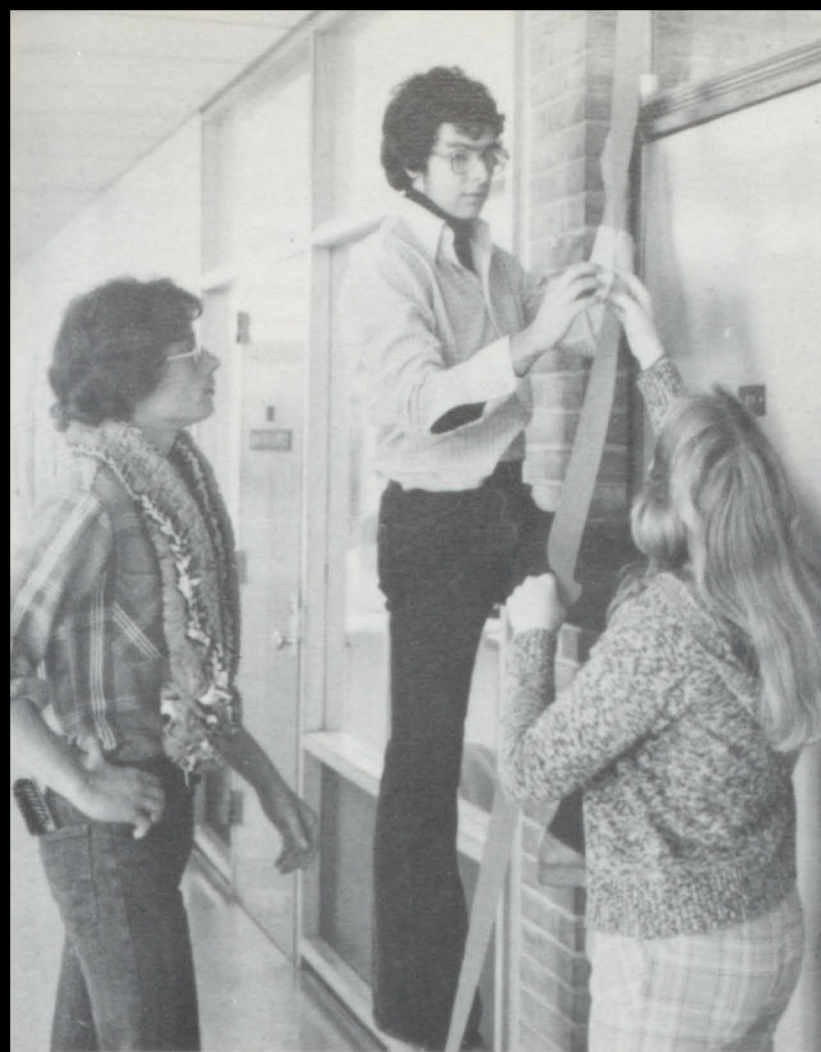

On Hat day, everywhere we looked we could see derbies, sombreros and all kinds of silly hats. The Sophomore spirit continued to run high as they won another first on Tuesday.

Spirit Week kept going on Wednesday with Button day. Pinned all over everybody was "Get Tough Mariners," "Orange and Black is where it's at" and "Mariner Country." The Sophomore class came through again to win Button day.

Penny day came next. It was a tight race all week, but the Juniors broke loose on the last day to win 'em all.

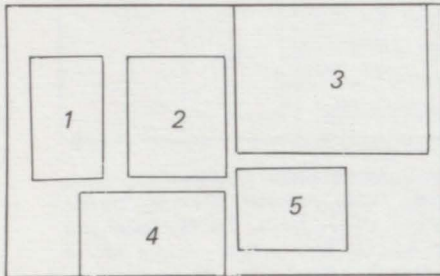

Spirit Week came to a super end on Friday with the decorating of halls. Everyone got together to make sure their hall was the best for judging bright and early Friday morning. The Sophomores had a terrific hall to win another first place. Spirit continued throughout the day as the Mariners cheered the team on to a Homecoming Victory.

1. Miss Radtke's Child Development class, Tammy Robb, Annette Heilman, Sherrie Kuecken, Chuck Merlo, Jill Stockwell and Miss Radtke, take a few minutes off to show off their T-shirts for spirit week.
2. Can you tell by the expression on John Endres' face that its Button day?
3. "Just a little to the right" instructs Mike Kammer as Debbie Bassett and Craig Boulter wish he'd find something else to do.
4. As Ron Kaiser tries to convince everybody that he's the King, Scott Gramer wishes that he was someplace else.
5. "My hat is not on backwards!" says Mickie Bowns.
6. "Do you think we have enough to win?" asks Al Wesley.

"Homecoming Assembly Explodes with Enthusiasm!"

1. Cecilia Battista takes a deep breath trying not to disturb Shawn O'Rourke and Gerry Currier's deep concentration during the tug-o-war contest.
2. The Sophomore, Senior and Junior teams, anxiously awaits their signal to start the three-legged race.
3. The 1978 Marine City High School Homecoming Queen and her court.
4. "It's all in the wrists", says Marvin Kaatz as he zooms around the curves during the tricycle race.
5. "Seniors, seniors!" scream "1978" fans.

The 1978 spirit week at Marine City High School was topped off with a sensational Homecoming assembly. As the queen and her court were presented to the student body, cheers of enthusiasm welcomed them. Senior class President Gordon Kettle, who presided over the ceremonies, had the honor of crowning each member of the court.

Queen Sue Wiinikainen's speech, which preceded the crowning ceremony, reflected her feelings about the honor of being chosen Homecoming queen. After her speech, she presented the game ball to the football captains Rob Parmentier, Larry Gill and Steve Markel.

The Varsity cheerleaders really showed their talent as they did a pom-pom routine to "Peace of Mind" in honor of the queen and her court.

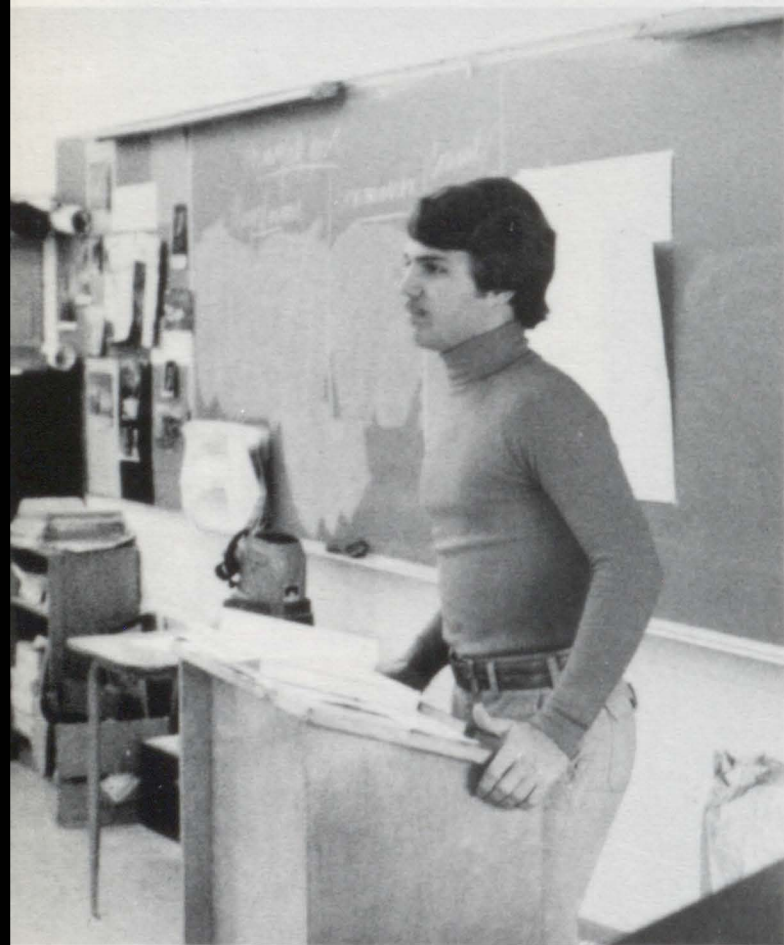

During the annual competition activities, the Seniors raced to their fourth consecutive tricycle victory. They also won the sack race, but didn't have a chance against the Sophomores in the three-legged race. The class of '79 hit the jackpot by taking the spirit jug home and winning the tug-o-war contest.

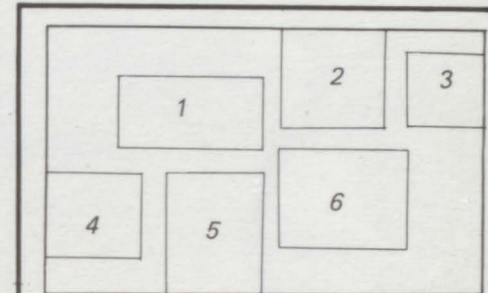

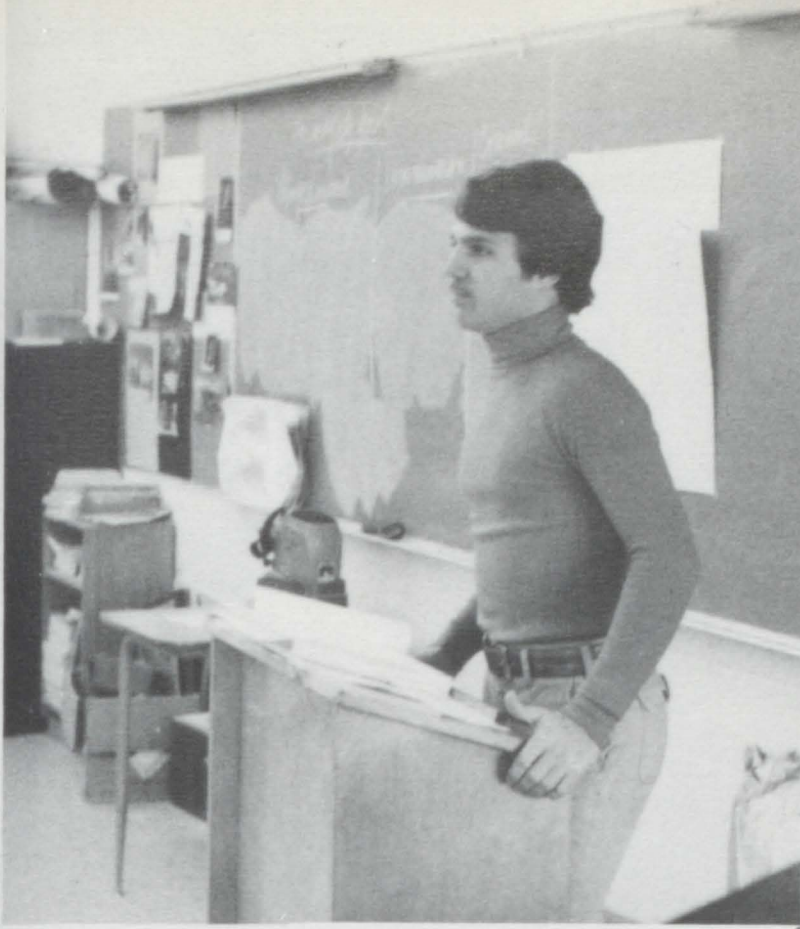

Students Govern Themselves Again!

For the past three years, the students at Marine City High School have lacked the leadership of the Student Government. With the guidance of Mr. David Scheel, this group has been re-organized and is now successfully underway.

One of it's purposes is to work together with the Administration to help solve problems within the school. "Clean up the john" was the first priority for them this year. The maintenance men co-operated immensely with the project.

In addition, the students have sponsored a very successful roller skating party at Skateland and more have been scheduled. The movie "The Apple Dumpling Gang" was available for anyone interested and a dance marathon for charity was planned. The group also collects "Coke" bottle caps and a Battle of the Bands was held against other high schools.

1. The 1977-1978 reorganized Student Government at M.C.H.S. proudly pose!
2. S.G. President Keith Defever plans the roller skating night for all students.
3. A few members make plans for possibly providing a smoking lounge in the school.
4. Jim Jones concentrates on ways to keep the johns clean.
5. Gerald Wesley practices his eye exercises during a S.G. meeting.
6. The Student Council officers are: Vice-Pres. Lynn Maitland, Pres. Keith Defever, Treasurer Mickie Bowns, and Secretary Carol VanSlambrouck.

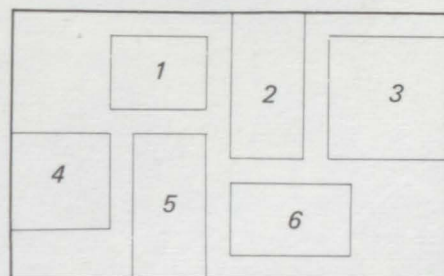

Christmas! It's Gone Before You Know It.

Christmas at Marine High this year brought us many surprises. There was no annual Christmas parade through town, but that didn't stop the holiday spirit at MCHS. We put up a Christmas tree in the hall for everyone to enjoy.

The day before Christmas vacation the fun started. Carols could be heard throughout the halls as the Chorus sang our favorites. Later in the day we had a surprise visit from Santa Claus, as he brought his cheery Ho, Ho, Ho's to the Child Development Room.

The Snow Queen, Beth Fielhauer, and her court presided over the Christmas festivities.

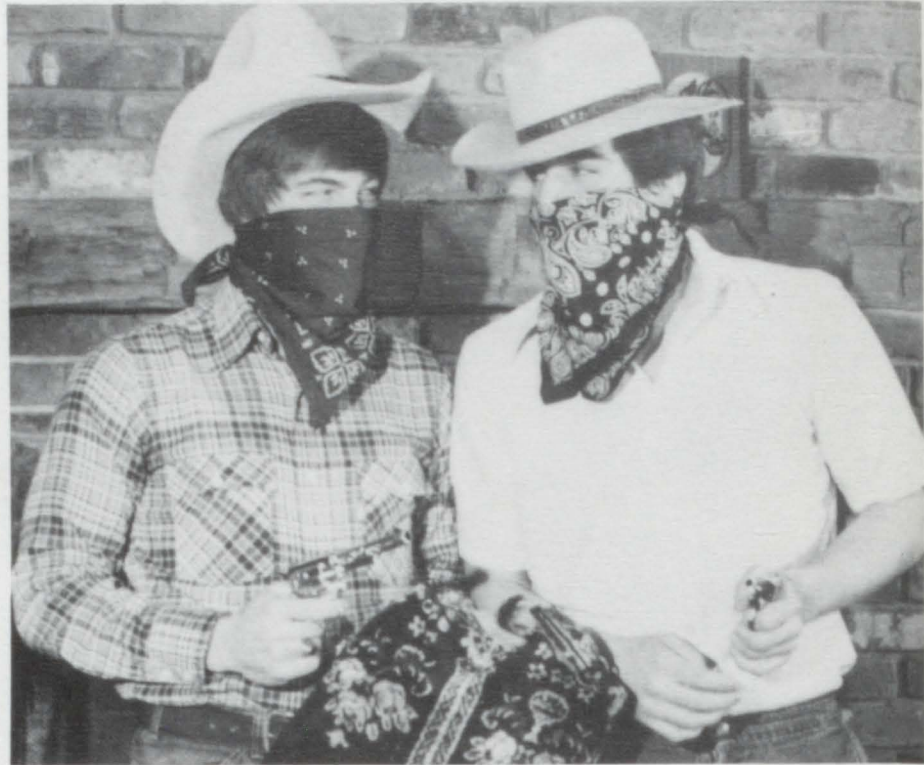

1. Advanced Art class members: Ron Thueme, Beth Fielhauer, Peter Berg, Chuck Merlo, Debbie Bassett and Amy Muir anxiously wait for Mrs. Clausen to open her Christmas presents.
2. Miss Bastian leads the chorus in a round of 'We Wish you a Merry Christmas' as Connie Kaatz and Connie Guyor try to stay on key.
3. "I want a truck and a choo choo train for Christmas" Ryan Biscorner asks Santa Claus alias Mr. T.
4. Annette Heilman asks her niece Mellisa what she wants for Christmas.
5. Beth Fielhauer glows with excitement after being chosen Marine High's Snow Queen.
6. Helping Marine City celebrate the snow this year were: Snow Queen, Beth Fielhauer and her court Senior, Lisa Cobb; Junior, Cathy Anderson; and Sophomore, Donna Burmann.

Um - hum! Just ducky!

This year's school play was entitled That's My Cousin. In this sarcastic western comedy, a young bubbling girl "Kitty Drake" inherits an old run down Dude Ranch. She purposely exaggerates that uranium has been discovered on the ranch's property to lure guests.

With the help of some far out guests, a loud mouth sheriff, some zany Indians, and two rough neck robbers, the whole ranch turns into one great fiasco.

Again, this year's production was under the direction of Mr. Joseph Pavlov, and with the help of assistant directors, Debbie Bassett and Holly Wenning, the play turned out to be a theatrical hit.

1. "Hey, Burt do you think they'll ever know it's us? "Not in a million years!" says Shawn O'Rourke to Craig Berry.
2. "I'm sorry Big Wind! (Jim Merlo) stutters Kitty Drakes (Beth Fielhauer) But!?!"
3. "I think it's rather charming ACK-CHU-LLY," comments Helen Kruger. (Reg. Van Peteghem to Mary Cooper. (Jynn Maitland).
4. Ha! Ha! Mr. Bramwell, (Keith Defever) you're stuck with Harriet! (Patti Britz) snicker Bob and Burt. (Shawn O'Rourke and Craig Berry)
5. "You look just ravishing, Adele." (Celeste Carver) gestures, Kent Tylor (Gary Schmitz).
6. Stick Em Up!!!!

We're On Top We Can't Be Stopped

Talent, Spirit, and Enthusiasm all joined together to make the 1977-78 Varsity Squad.

This year the cheerleaders got off to a great start. During the summer they went to Eastern Michigan University cheerleading camp. While there, the squad proved their talents in competition by bringing home a 1st place ribbon and 3 third places. The dynamite stick for continuous pride and determination was presented to them at the end of the week.

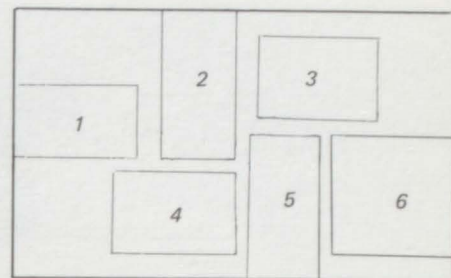

Doing so well at camp, it wasn't too hard to get Mariner fever running high! The cheerleaders pushed spirit buttons and orange and black derbys' while watching school enthusiasm grow.

Mrs. Burmann, their advisor, helped them throughout the season with encouragement as well as criticism.

To rap the season up the girls took their talents to the Flint cheerleading clinic and came home with 4th and 5th place ribbons to add to the Mariner show case.

... And Then There Was Music.

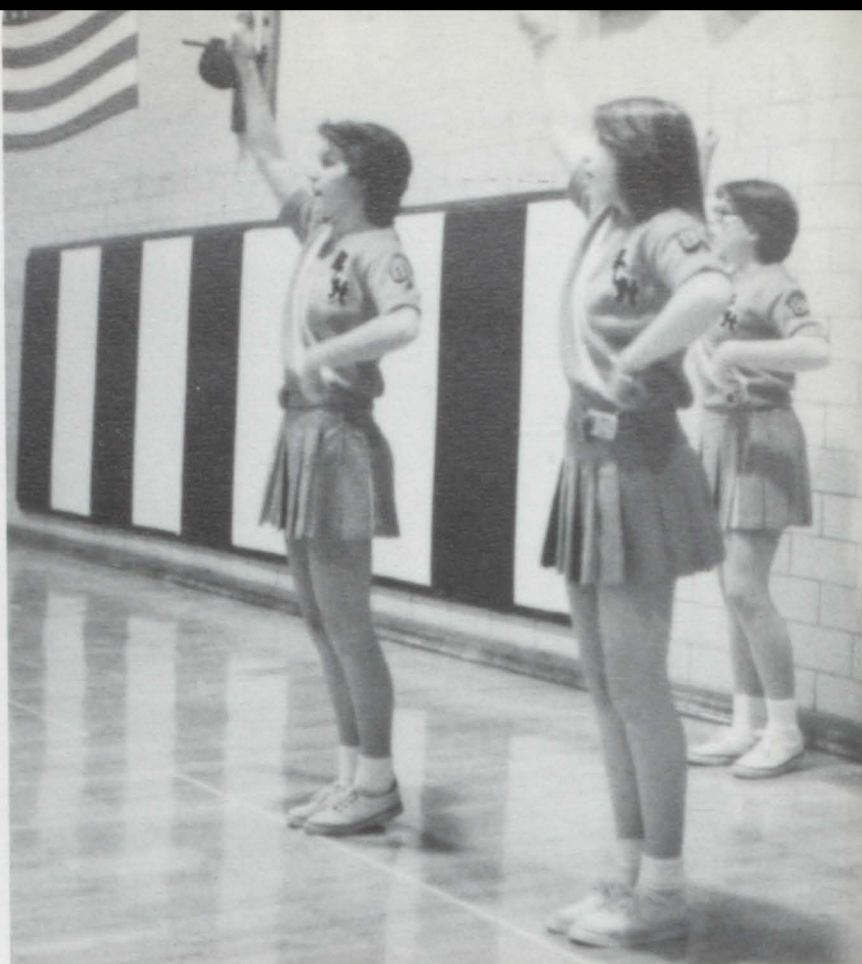

Rain, Snow, Sleet or Hail didn't stop the band, as the "77 MARCHING MARINERS", 81 strong, put on four great halftime shows. Hit songs of the 50's, 60's and 70's was the theme this year. The band also performed a special show honoring Queen Sue. The theme from STAR WARS climaxed the season. The band, while wearing masks, formed many formations.

Then it was inside to prepare for the concert season. Many concerts and competitions filled a busy year. Again the band went to the "Lambton Festival" and the "Blue Water Band Festival", which was held right here in Marine City. Music ranging from classical to modern was played at annual spring and winter concerts.

Not all performances were serious however.

There was the POPS concert, where the Alumni and other musicians from around the area are invited to come and play together. This made for an exciting evening and a whole lot of fun. The elementary school concerts are just as much fun for the members as it is for the kids.

Good performances and a lot of hard work made for a successful year for Miss Bastian and the band.

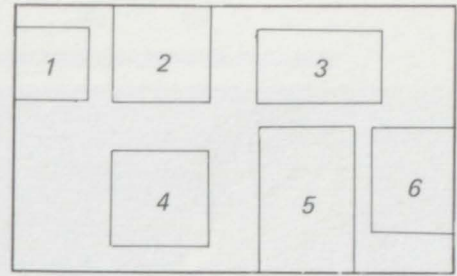

Don't Mess With The Best Cause The Best Don't Mess

The Best! That's our J.V. cheerleaders. The girls in orange and black that cheered our Junior Varsity teams on to victory. The girls that got the fans fired up for every football and basketball game and kept the spirit flowing at all the pep assemblies.

Mrs. Burmann, the squad's advisor, helped the girls with her advice and ideas. At many long practices the J.V. cheerleaders worked hard to perfect a lot of new cheers and mounts. Their work paid off and the cheers looked great at the games.

The J.V. squad got it together again to help the Varsity cheerleaders sell spirit buttons and Mariner sweaters. With the money they earn, the squad goes to a cheering clinic every year. They attended a camp at EMU this year and brought home a third place ribbon.

1. "When I say number you say one," scream Judy DuMars and Kathy Scheer.
2. "Make Two" yells Donna Burmann, Dawn Arnold and Julie Dernbach.
3. Donna Burmann, Johnna Lyzczyk and Val Smith help decorate the stage for Homecoming.
4. "Stretch out your arms" exclaims Julie Dernbach, Dawn Arnold, Johnna Lyzczyk, Judy DuMars and Kathy Scheer.
5. Firing up the J.V. this year are: (Top to Bottom) Johnna Lyzczyk, Dawn Arnold, Judy DuMars, Donna Burmann, Julie Dernbach, Valerie Smith and Chris Greib.
6. "Hey, Hey, Hey, what ya got to say," cheers Johnna Lyzczyk.

Sing, Sing A Song

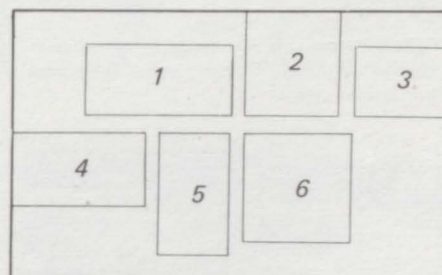

Although the chorus was rather small, they still put out an unbelievably beautiful sound. With Sharon Kaufman leading the accompaniment, as she has for the last four years, the chorus performed many times. They sang with the Interfaith choir for their spring concert. At Christmas time they performed for the Rotary Club and at St. Marks Church. For a change of pace the chorus put on a comic opera, THE DIZZY BATON, which was enjoyed by the area elementary students.

With all the assemblies and sporting events at our school, there was a lot of work to be done behind the scenes. Who does all this work? The 8-Ball Club, of course. They set up chairs, the stage, and ran the lights and sound. A big thanks to Captain John Richards and all the guys for a job well done.

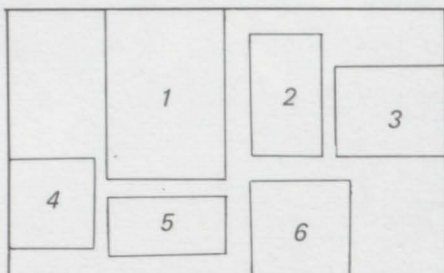

Testing 1 - 2 - 3 . . .

2. Tom Clemons lights up the stage for another assembly.
3. The behind the scenes men are, left to right: Noah Furtaw, Dixon Schutt, Tom Clemons, Sponsor Mrs. Green, John Richards, John Warwick, Pat McCuen, and Jim Merlo.
4. Diane Schwehofer and Kim Black sing in perfect harmony.
5. Sharon Kaufman, the regular accompanist, practices her daily finger exercises.
6. David Perry hangs on for his life as he adjusts the spotlight before an assembly.

1. The Ski Club gets ready for another night on the slopes.
2. "This is getting too easy" says Chris Stephens after another successful run.
3. "I think I'm finally getting the hang of this!" exclaims Jeff Kaiser.
4. Brian Dowell gets a worried look on his face as he is about to run up the back of another skier.
5. Flying through the air with the greatest of ease is "crazy" Tom Creed.
6. "Ow! You're on my fingers," yells Josh Carrier to Linda Tucker as he rebuckles her skies — again!

Slip-Sliding Away

Skiing started early this year with plenty of fresh powder. Everyone dug their skis out of the attic and it was off to the slopes for plenty of good Schussing. If you could call it that. People were trying all kinds of new techniques, such as Ken Draves getting caught under a hot wire, and Annette Blake choking herself on the tow rope. Then it finally happened. Everyone was getting the hand of it. They stopped falling and started hot dogging!

Like everything else, all good things must come to an end. The bus driver's getting sick, the rains coming, the snow disappearing, and then even too much snow caused the trips to be cancelled for several weeks straight. After the great blizzard of '78 passed, it was back to the slopes for exciting trips to Mt. Grampian and Pine Knob.

Great conditions and a lot of club participation was the key this year to a very successful and enjoyable season.

Mariner Log Rolls Out Second Edition

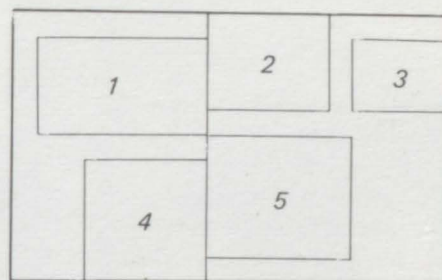

"Deadlines are due today!"
"Where's all our copy Mr. Harvey?"
These are questions you might have heard coming out of room 13 on the Log deadline days.

With no journalism class and no special meetings, the Log staff had to spend many extra hours to get it together to produce 13 issues for the 1977-78 year.

Mr. Harvey and Mickie Bowns did an exceptionally great job pulling loose strings together to get the staff on the ball. The Log had good copy, interesting features and new columns. Additions to the paper were: Critic At Large, Jim's Gym, and many editorials. Students also had their chance to express their ideas and view points with a Letter to the Editor.

1. Pulling this year's Log Staff to a rolling start is Mr. Garey Harvey. Sitting are: Debbie Bassett, Carol Barks, Peggy Vanden Boom, David Kirchinger, Richard Beauvais and Cheryl Guldenstein. Standing: Holly Wenning, Tom Clemons, Kay Chamberlain, Cecelia Battista, Dawn Ameel, Keith DeFever, Terri Hurst, Gary Schmitz, Sharon Kaufman, Burt Beauchamp, Tom Miller, Mindy Posey, Cheryl Goddard, Celeste Carver, Judi Payne, Jim Jones and editor Mickie Bowns.
2. By the looks on Holly Wenning's and Carol Bark's faces, it's another exciting newspaper meeting.
3. Relaxing at a Harvey Log Party are: Sharon Kaufman, Tom Miller and Judi Payne.
4. Editor Mickie Bowns takes time to read the local newspaper.
5. With the help of Mr. Harvey, Gary Schmitz's article will be ready to print.

New Concepts in Learning...

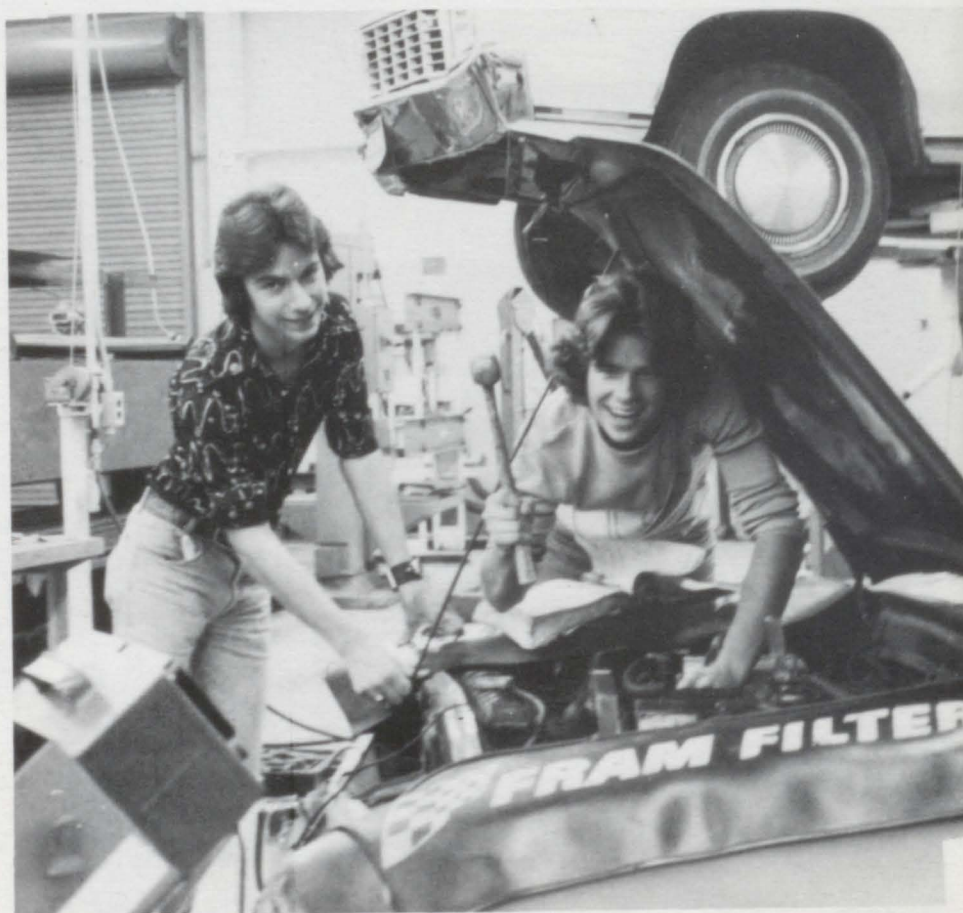

A completely new concept of learning has been successfully progressing for all St. Clair County High Schools. The Skill Center, located on Range Rd., Marysville, has provided students with vocational training for two years.

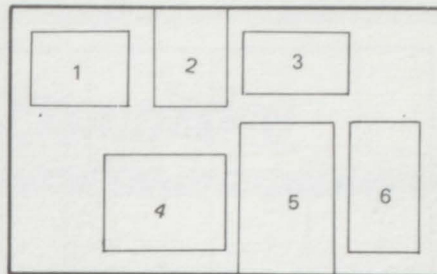

There is a choice of eighteen different programs, including eight shop classes. They range from welding and plastics, to food service and nursing. The Graphics Arts class even have it's own dark room!

There also is a restaurant called "The County Seat". The students work there as cooks or waitresses, and serve real customers. They all have a fifteen minute break when they can relax in the snack shop area with a cigarette or an order of fries.

The shop area is gigantic and to make it easier, it's sectioned off into the different shop classes. (When working by the machines, safety glasses must always be worn).

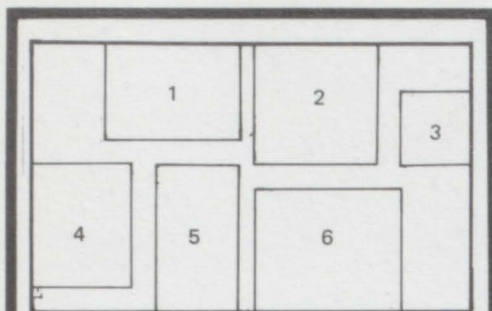

The auto body and auto mechanics programs repair engines and do body work on customer's cars. It's good experience for the students and cheaper for the customers.

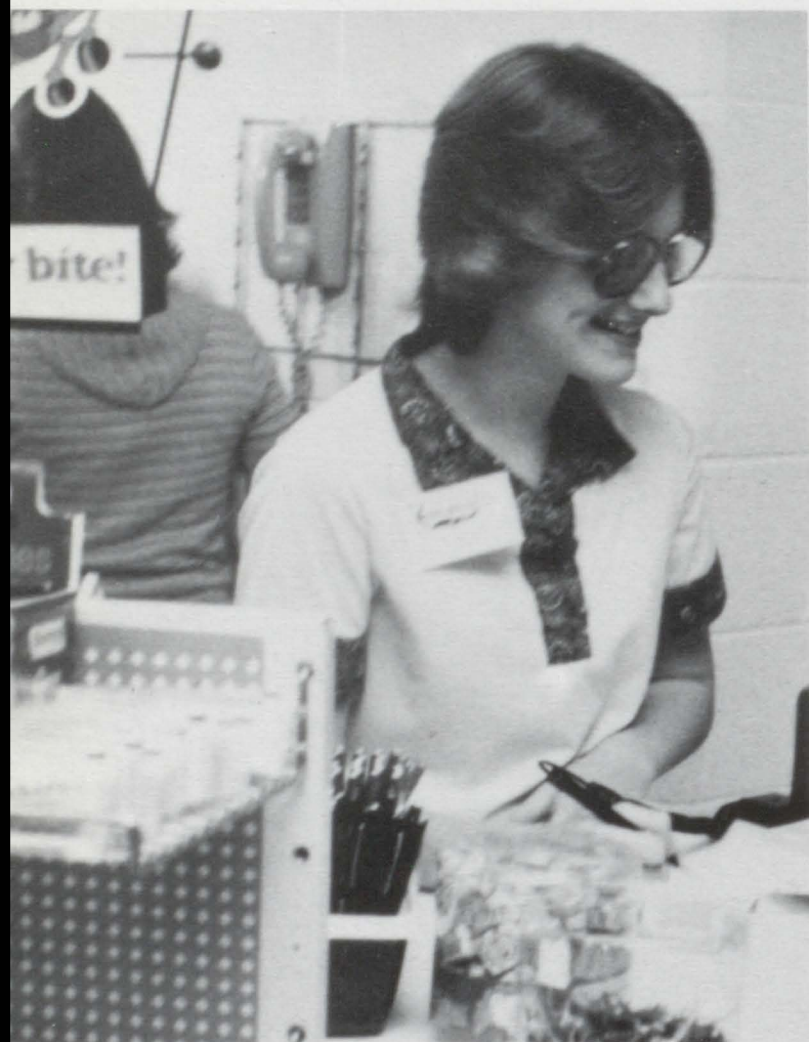

1. "Care to join me with a peanut butter sandwich," smiles Lori Denean on her break.
2. Don Turk backs off while oil squirts out of his machine.
3. Mike Johnson, alias Muttley, finishes off what used to be a good fender.
4. "Hey lady, ya want your oil changed?" laugh Mark Blair and Scott Blakley.
5. Jim Brenner files and smiles as the yearbook cameraman snaps his picture.
6. "Hey, hey, get out of my way," warns Chuck Ernest.

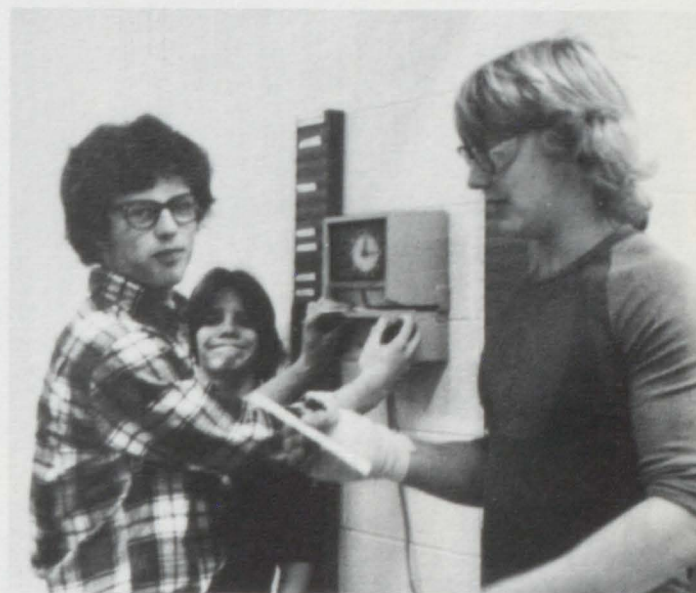

1. Pam Leach shows that accounting requires concentration.
2. "Smile pretty Suzy, here comes that good looking doctor," giggles Wanda Erdman.
3. Chuck Miller, Ed McConnell and Dennis Itrich appear to be on time for once.
4. "I'm sorry sir, but we don't give out green stamps," replies Cathy Highland.
5. Connie Scott finds time for a break after working behind the snack shop counter all morning.
6. Dennis Genaw took the test, and he prefers "Coke" to the next leading brand.

Skill Center Promotes Job Experience

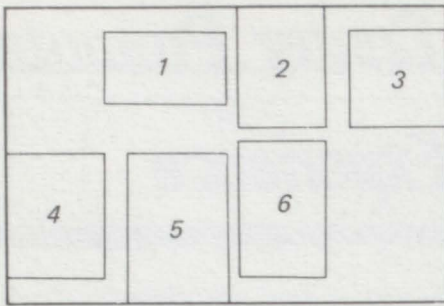

Most of the students really like it a lot, and think it's better to learn by doing. A few individuals said, "It's alright," and "It's kind of a pain riding the bus back and forth everyday". Other responses were, "It's just like a job. You have to "punch in" and "punch out", except there's no pay."

The building is kept clean by the Maintenance classes. Sweepers and window washers are always busy making sure everything's in perfect order.

The programs are normally all for two years for 11th and 12th graders. Very few 10th graders attend the center. Before a student can be accepted into the Skill Center, he and his parents must fill out applications (there's no special insurance for the center). Also, he has a choice of two shifts: Morning shift - 7:45-11:15; or Afternoon shift - 12:10-2:40.

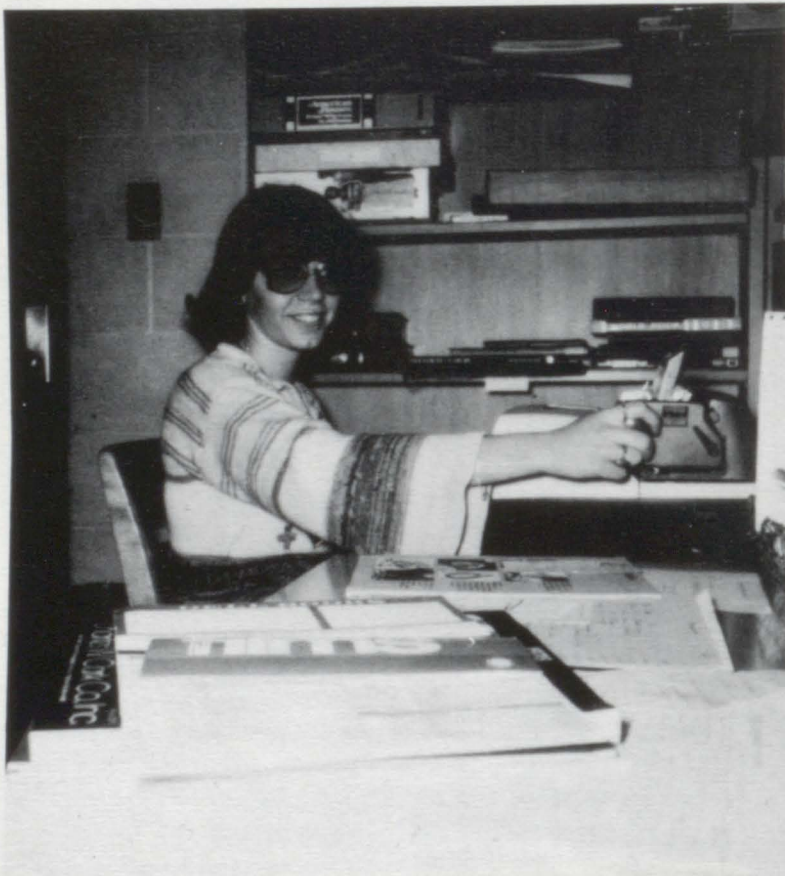

The Skill Center has proved to be an excellent learning situation. Over 1/3 of our school is bussed to the center and back everyday.

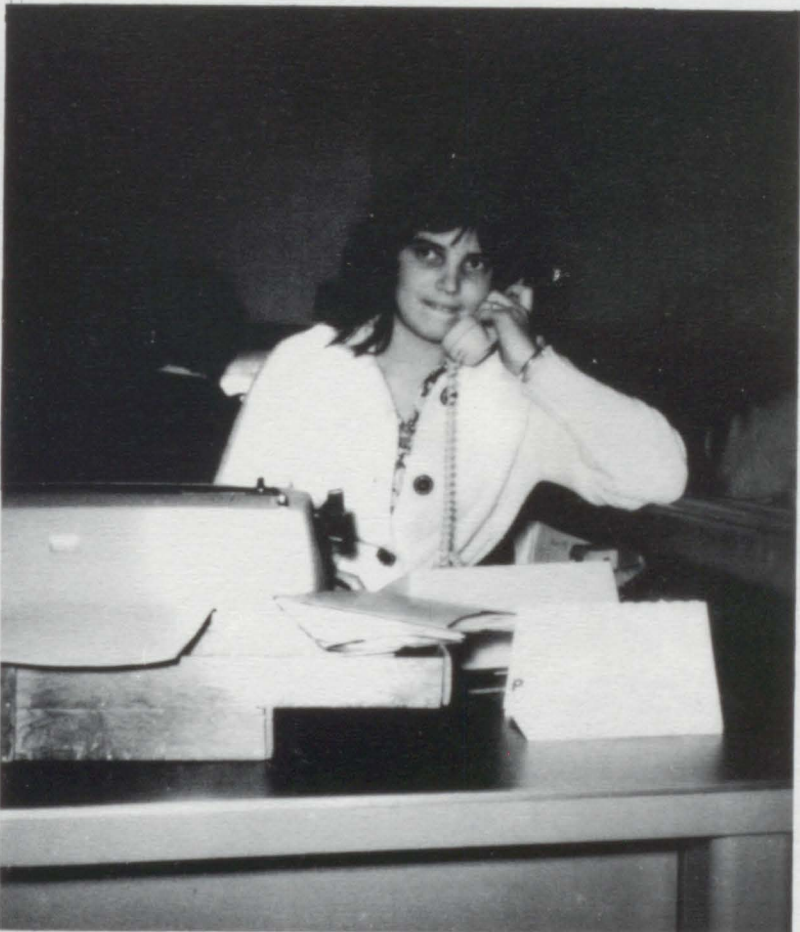

1. Angie Heintz spends her spare time typing, filing, and waiting on customers at the 72nd District Court.
2. You name it — lathes, grinders, and shapers are what Terry Blake works with at Riverside Spline & Gear.
3. Jim Holcomb gets caught mixing the nails and screw boxes at Beebe Hardware.
4. The bookkeeping and secretarial work at Bennage Chevrolet & Olds, Inc. are in the able hands of Margaret Lester.
5. Monica Maloney employed at the MCHS Library processing books and helping Mrs. Green with the typing and filing.
6. Lois Lightfoot tells a customer to "Put your trust with us at Marine Bank & Trust."

Work Experience Builds the Future

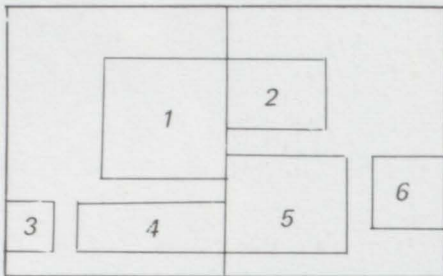

The Co-op and work experience programs at Marine High give the students there a chance to go out in the everyday working world and still go to school. They must take a Related Studies class in the morning along with 2 or 3 other classes. After attending $\frac{1}{2}$ day, they leave for work at the local shops in town, or anywhere they are employed. The Related Studies class is directed by Miss Sondra Cawrse who helps the kids find jobs and keep them.

Some co-op students learn to work with different machines like Terry Blake who works at Riverside Spline and Gear. Some machines he works with are the gear broach, shapers, grinders, lathes, tooth rounder, and hob gear. But some others like Monica Maloney works at the Marine City High School Library processing books, typing, and filing.

D.C. To N.Y.C. Caring Counts On The Move

1. Cindy Nugent and Linda Tucker prepare the cashbox for their bake sale.
2. 3. Diane Malcolm scans the price list for their up coming trip to New York.
4. This years Caring Counts members are from left: Annie Malayang, Julie Shakett, Kelly Kolhoff, Mary Basney, Cindy McDonald, Jill Stockwell, Cindy Nugent, Shari Reynolds, Lee Ann Merrick, Cheryl Beattie and Diane Malcolm. Their sponsors are Mr. Scheel's and Mrs. Green.
5. Being an aid for Mrs. Green means alot of typing for Monica Maloney.
6. Checking and putting away books is one of Cheryl Guildenstein's jobs.

Help! I Need An Aid!

One of the fringe benefits of being a teacher aid is that they can earn $\frac{1}{4}$ credit half semester. Aids can do most anything from running of tests, to collecting absent slips. Besides from working in the class rooms, aids may end up helping in the Jr. High or in Principal Shorkey's office.

Seniors must have a good grade point average and enough credits to be an aid.

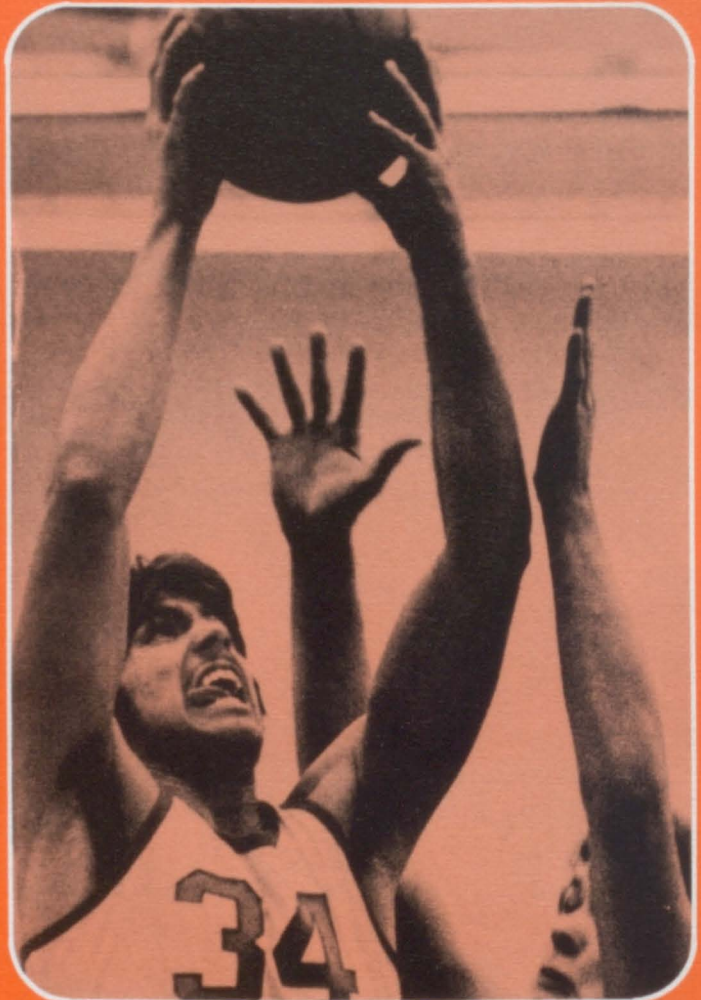

At M.C.H.S. there is a small group of people called Caring Counts.

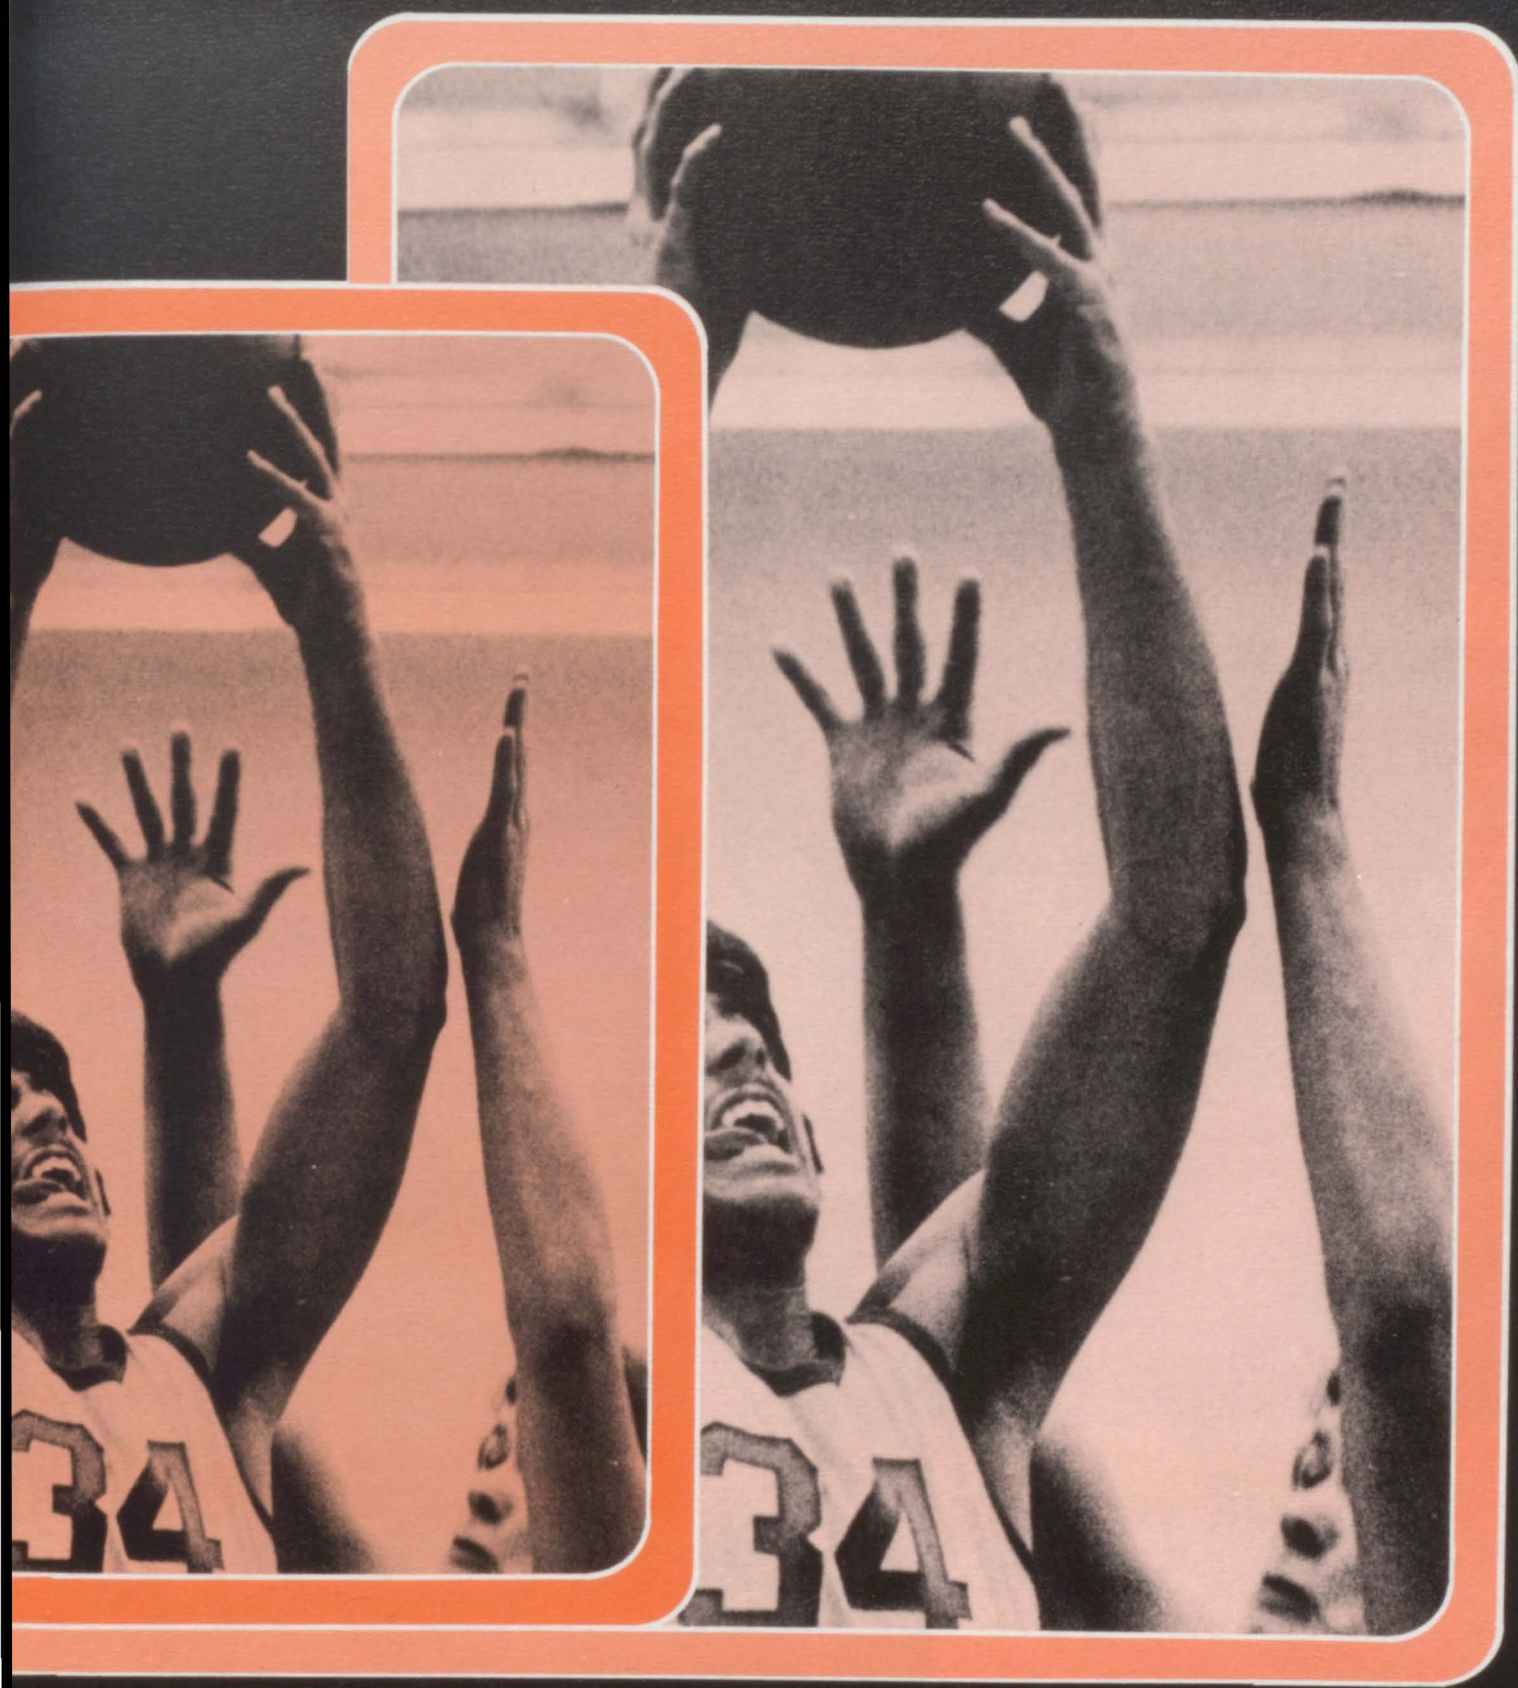

Their main goal is to raise funds for an adopted Indian child through Save The Children Society. A second goal for the group is to take a trip to Washington D.C. and New York City. They plan on seeing the sites and learning how the United Nations functions. All these things take money. Caring Counts have been holding bake sales and raffles to reduce the cost of the trip.

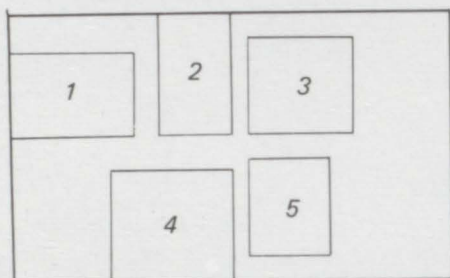

The Competitors

*To the uninvolved, athletics may seem little more than a game with people scurrying around in silly outfits as the playing pieces. But to those who take part in those "games", the aches, excitement, and thrilling victories are things Milton-Bradley could never package. Each sport is special, with its own equipment, rules, and unique brand of thrills. But they all fit into a game where the focus is on competition and competition is a way of Marine City High School life.

Shooting, Rebounding

J.V. Gals Grab 2nd

1. Annette Blake throws the ball in-bounds.
2. Fay Bowersox goes in for another two point lay-up.
3. The J.V. cagers are standing — manager Tammi Schultz, Michelle Leonard, Sandy Decker, Coach Vaughn, Karen Nugent, Becky Carpenter, Paula Wiinikainen, kneeling — Vicki Russell, Annette Blake, Fay Bowersox, April Blake, Mary Polio, Beth Babel, Linda White.
4. Paula Wiinikainen shows some Marysville players her leap-frog style.
5. Up for another 2 is Becky Carpenter.
6. April Blake reaches for another in-bounds steal.

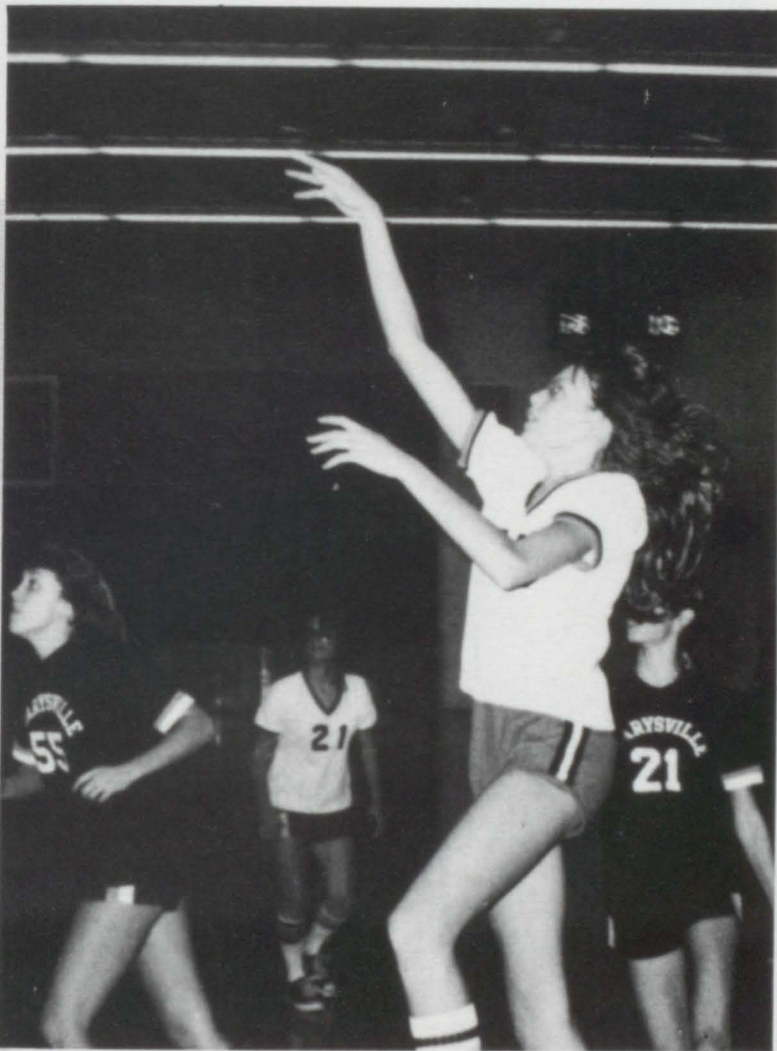

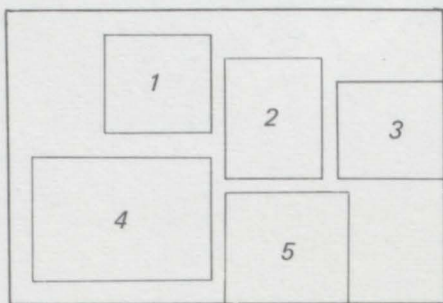

The girls J.V. basketball team was very impressive this year. The team started slowly losing to the first three teams they played. But after that, they became more organized both defensively and offensively, then the wins started coming in.

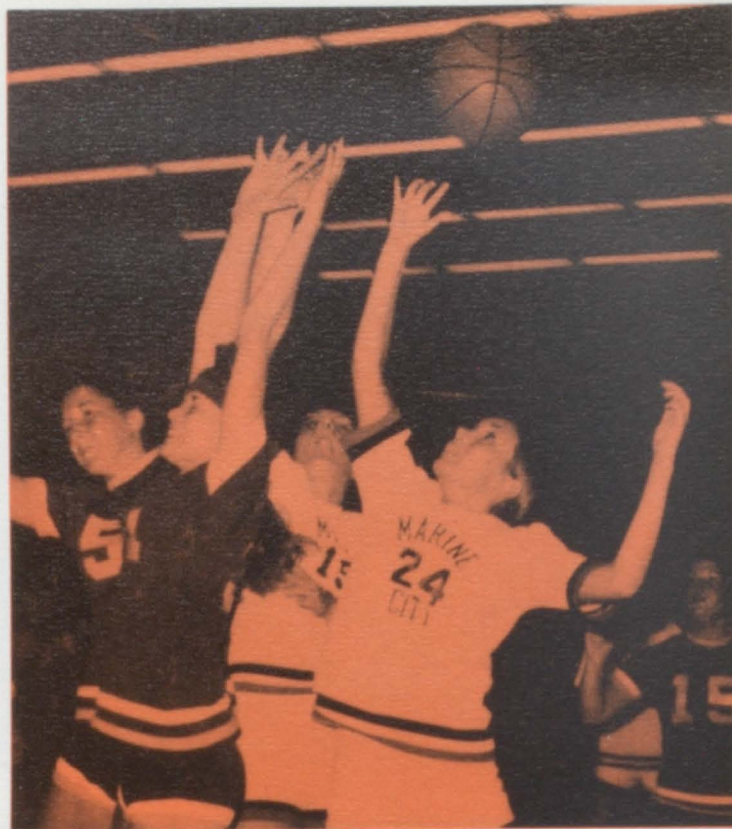

The girls had many hard fought games. During the game against Anchor Bay they hustled for every basket they got, and won 58-48.

The girls were short, afraid to shoot and needed more work on their basic skills. One thing the girls had was team spirit, good ball handlers and great passing games.

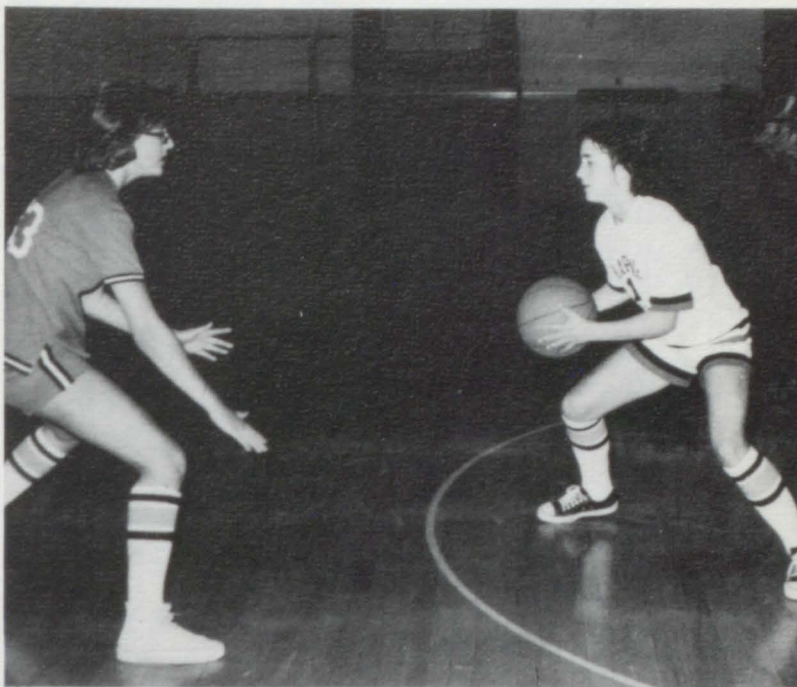

1. Sue Wiinikainen and Annette Heilman reach up to get another rebound.
2. Annette Heilman takes a jump shot for another 2 points.
3. Marcia Welser tries to fake out her opponent.
4. The mighty cagers are top to bottom Jean Polio, Sue Wiinikainen, Kay Chamberlain, Renee Blake, Marcia Welser, Coach Goulding, Annette Heilman, Celeste Carver, Lori Reynolds, Kim Westerhof, Jean Terbush, Pam Leitch, Brenda Kammer.
5. Jean Polio takes a free shot for another point.

Team Spirit Doesn't Fade Tough Season for Girls

The girls varsity basketball team lacked respect from the fans, but pride, determination and their great hustle lead them to two victories. Though height wasn't one of their advantages they didn't let that hold them down. Senior Sue Wiinikainen lead the girls to a season total of 116 rebounds, while freshman Marcia Welser led the cagers with 178 points.

Coach Goulding outlined the troubled spots by saying the girls lacked game time experience and inconsistency of shooting in the key area.

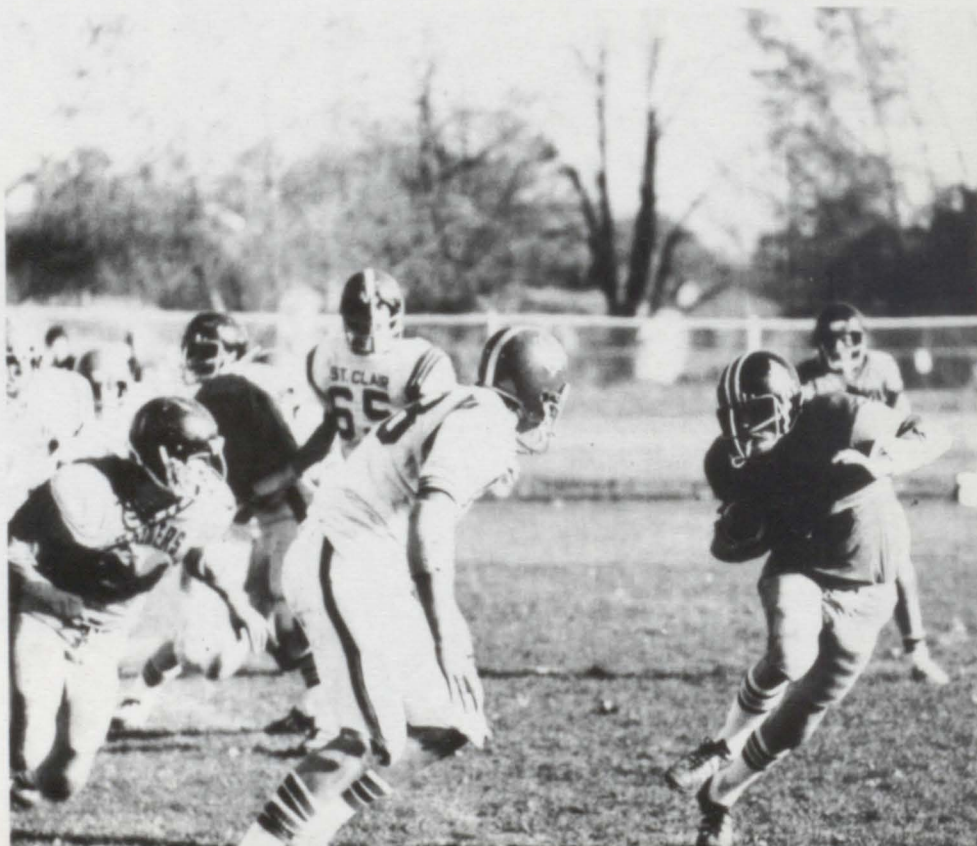

Strong in First Half Mariners Tackled in Second

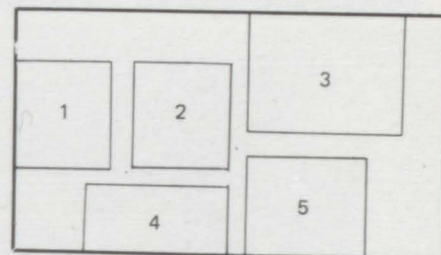

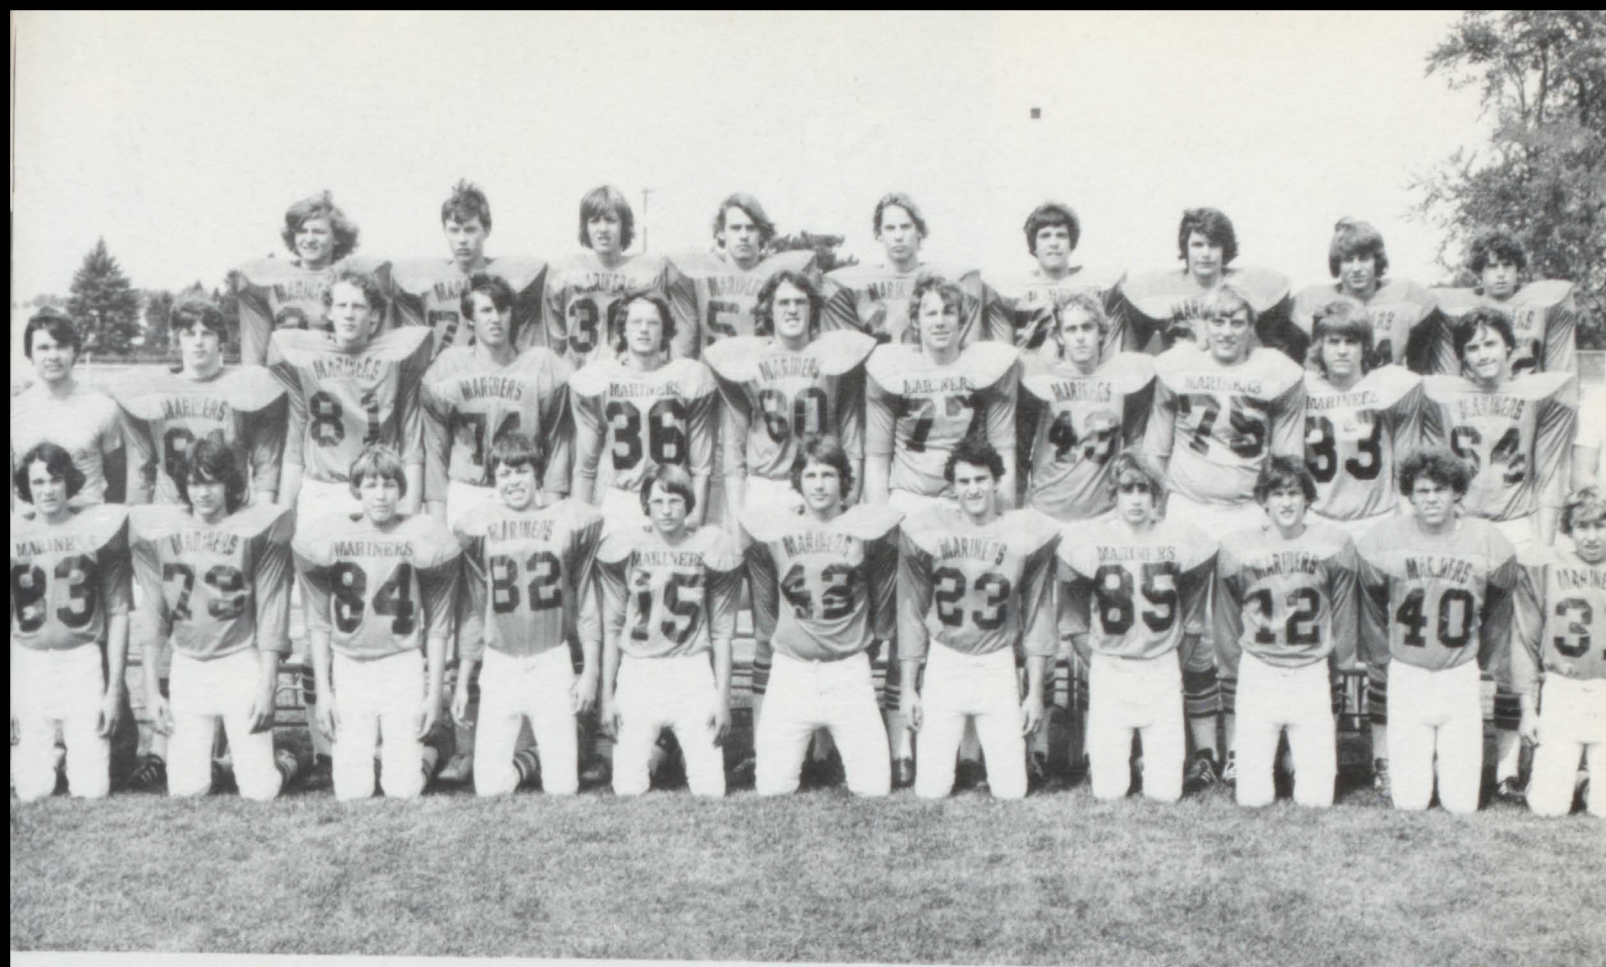

In order to be a great football team, you must have a solid defense and a strong offense. Unfortunately, this year's Mariner J.V. football team lacked a strong offense. Coach Rombach said this was a contributing factor to the team's 2-7 season.

Despite their struggling offense, the Mariners still managed to score a total of 84 points. Compared to last season's single touchdown, this showed a definite improvement in their teamwork. Their efforts were also seen in a very close game with Algonac. However, the Muskrats won the game, 7-6, due to an interception.

Coach Rombach's list of outstanding players included: Mike Polio, Quarterback; Al Wesley, Fullback; Brian Lowe, Tailback; Steve Frantz, Wingback; Tom Clements, Defensive tackle; Mark Boland, Offensive tackle; and Mike Bachelor, Offensive tackle.

1. "I think I'm in trouble again," says Steve Frantz as he makes a mad dash.
2. Al Wesley leaves the St. Clair players eating his dust as he goes on to gain more yards.
3. Players on the team. Top: Bill Schwartz, Rich Ingram, Chris Press, John Waarrack, Mike Ingals, Mark Genaw, Al Wesley, Steve Frantz and Lou Smith. Middle: Coach Markel, Ray Schroeder, Jerry Jones, Dave Boulter, John Guillespie, Mike Endres, Rich Parmentier, Tom Clements, Ron Schade, Mike Bachelor, Rich Budds and Coach Rombach. Bottom: Ron Kaiser, Troy Potvin, Brian Valla, Bob Smith, Kevin Kammer, Mark Boland, Brian Lowe, Bruce Kirkpatrick, Mike Polio, Derrick Jones and Bruce Spalding.
4. "Looks like we're not going to see eye to eye on this matter," decides Dennis Itrich.
5. "This is worse than driving through rush-hour traffic on the expressway," exclaims Mike Polio.

Rushing to Best Season Yet Mariners Tackle Opponents Hard

A new trend in football started at Marine City this year — winning.

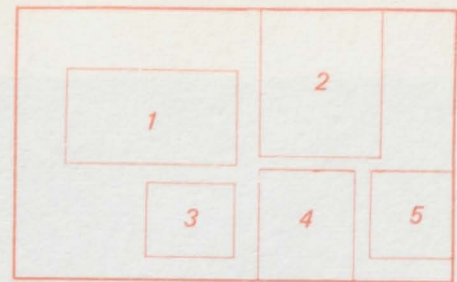

The winning started for the Mariners at Port Huron Central. After a loss to Lutheran East, they were ready to put things together and did so by putting the Cougars away 9-0.

The highlight of the season was the homecoming game. By defeating Cros-Lex 38-2, the Mariners were then in contention for the league title.

Although the loss to Marysville took first place from the Mariners, they came back two weeks later to defeat the Anchor Bay Tars 8-0.

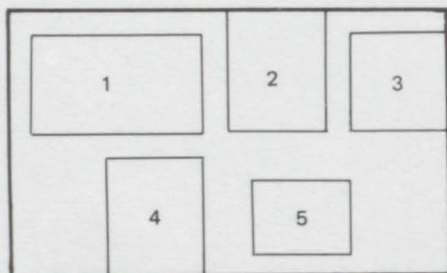

The season wound down to a dramatic ending. The Mariners dropped a triple overtime to Marlette 29-35. Coach Waarkentein said the key to the team's success this season was due to the team's execution of their plays.

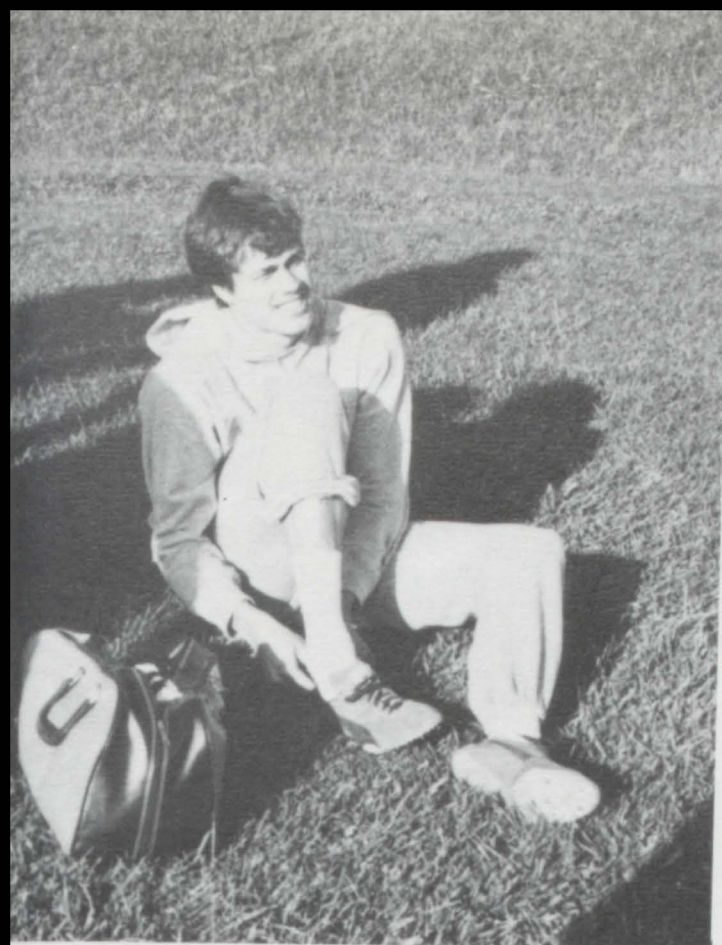

1. The members of the team. Bottom: Joe Maltese, Doug Potvin, Gordon Kettel, Jim Jones, Marvin Kaatz, Steve Markel, Rob Parmentier, Larry Gill, Bob Paul, Jeff Nugent, Shawn O'Rourke, Vince Fordt, and Scott Kirby. Second row: Coach Ameel, Bob Parcel, Ed Erb, Bob Tranchemantagne, Kevin Morris, Tom Reichle, George Gillespie, Dean Galvin, John Stangle, Eric Britz, Dave Smith, Brian Dowell, and Coach Waarkentein. Third row: Mr. Shorkey, Greg Gabbard, Kenney Osterland, Sam Polio, Craig Berry, Jerry Wesley, Mike Johnson, Jim St. James, Scott Zimmerman, Mark Bachelor, Todd Van Wormer, Rick Wagner, and Coach Wiinikainen.
2. Quarterback Scott Zimmerman makes some quick steps for a few extra yards.
3. Shawn O'Rourke uses a stiff arm to stay out of reach.
4. Bob Paul goes out for another one of his great Mariner punts.
5. Here we see Mark Bachelor trying desperately to outrun the other team's players.

1. The mighty runners are top Pete Markel, Coach Archer, Scott Taylor, Dave Jones, Mike Zyrowski, Mike Valla, Don Chamberlain, Jeff Markel, Dan Markel, Don Benoit, Richard Beauvais.
2. Pete Markel takes a break after one of his many victories.
3. Mr. Archer gives Dave Nichols and Richard Beauvais a few points on how to keep organized.
4. A sign of relief is shown by Dan Markel after a long, hard run.
5. Nobody better get in Don Chamberlain's way when he crosses the finish line.

Markel Leads the Way Sprinting, Running CC Pulls to 3rd.

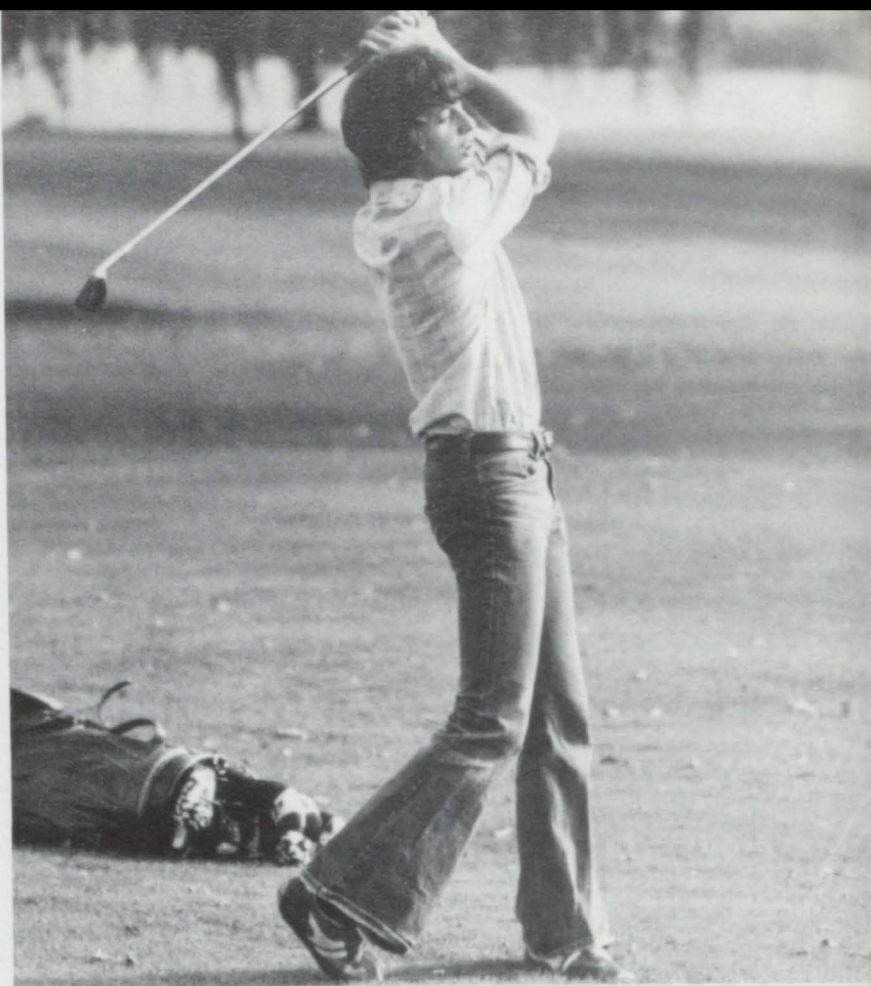

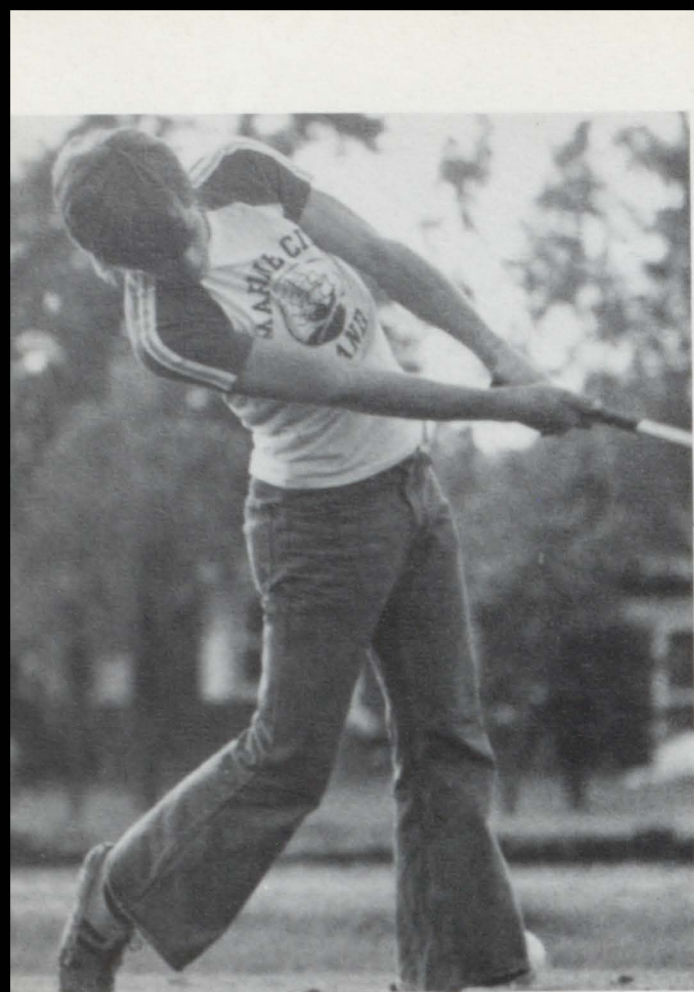

Being on the cross-country team doesn't mean all fun and games. It requires alot of hard work and endurance. And that's what the cross-country team did. With only Pete Markel returning from the "76" team, it was more of a rebuilding year. However, Junior Pat Gonzar gave them a big lift by running good times in his first four races.

A hard working group of Sophomores which included Tim Benoit, Don Chamberlain, Dan Markel and Scott Taylor lifted the team to a winning season.

Chamberlain was one of the biggest surprises of the season. Inspite of starting two weeks late, he soon was the number two runner.

Pete Markel won a medal at every invitational he ran. In addition to being named All Area and All League, Pete came in 12th at the State Finals.

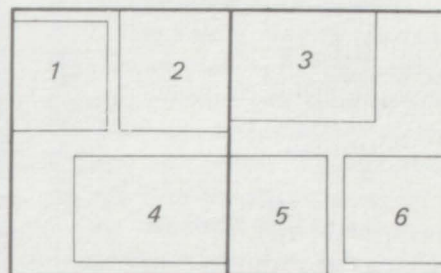

This year's golf team beguiled the league with their 5-7 record. The Mariners relied on a well balanced power to pull them through to many wins. The team was headed by captain and four year letterman Tony DeWitt. First year seniors Brian Burns and Steve Andrews provided a tremendous base for low scoring. Showing much improvement was Bruce Eschenburg. He finished the season with many low scores. Senior Tom Clemons proved to be a fine back up man during his third year on the team.

Golf is a game of pressure packed situations and tense nerves. This was evident in the first match against Port Huron Central. The Mariners felt the pressure more than the Cougars and after nine holes the match was tied at 185 apiece. Our boys had to put their shoes back on, go out to the first hole, and play a sudden death playoff. The Mariners shot a combined one over par 17 to outscore P.H.C. by two strokes.

Golfers Great Balance, Consistency Yield 5-7 Season

1. Tom Clemons hits another drive splitting the fairway.
2. Brian Burns patiently watches his ball land on the green.
3. Team, kneeling: Brian Burns, Craig Boulier, Scott Clemons, Tom Clemons. Standing: Ken Clemons, Steve Andrews, Jim Endres, Bruce Eschenburg, and Tony DeWitt.
4. "Nice Shot Nip," says Brian Burns to Steve Andrews.
5. Tony DeWitt places his chip shot close to the hole again.
6. Watching his chip shot roll into the hole is Bruce Eschenburg.

Who would ever dream of getting up early on an August morning to go to school? Our Mariner fall sports people, that's who. Their hard work and determination really paid off.

The Varsity football team came very close to becoming League champions. It would have been the first time since 1945 that a Marine City football team won a title. Bob Paul, Rob Parmentier, and Tom Reichle were named to both the All-Area and All-League teams. Gordon Kettel also made the All-League team.

Leading the cross country runners to a third-place season was Pete Markel. Pete went on to the State finals and took a twelfth place there.

This year's Girls' J.V. basketball team had a new coach, Mrs. Cheryl Vaughn. Mrs. Vaughn helped take the girls through a great playing season — the team finishing in second place in the league.

The golf team celebrated one of their better seasons too, finishing 5-7. Tony DeWitt was chosen team captain and voted Most Valuable Player. Bruce Eschenburg received the Most Improved Player award.

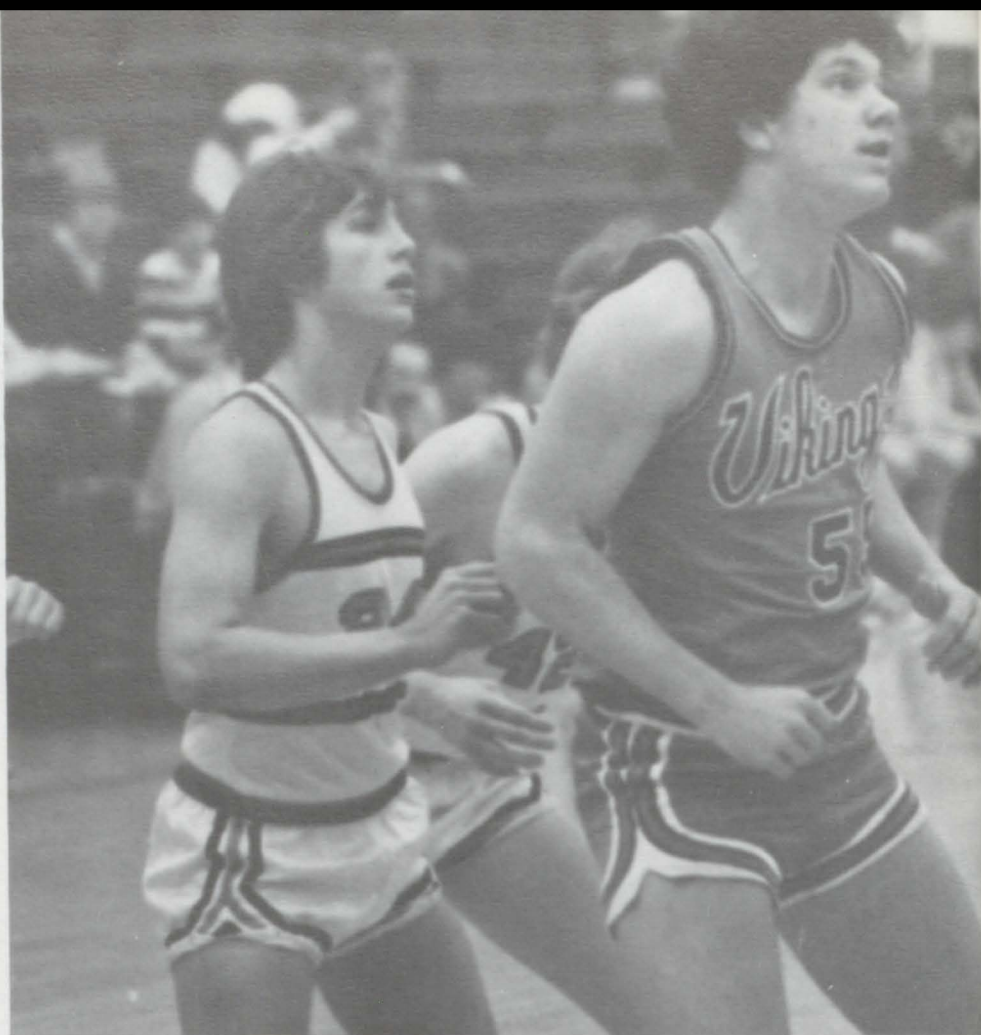

Although the Girls' Varsity basketball team played very well and very hard this season, they didn't fare too well. The girls finished the season with only 2 wins. Despite their numerous losses, however, many members did receive honors. Marcia Welser was named to the All-League second team. Kay Chamberlain, Renee Blake, and Jean Polio received Honorable Mentions.

Another team that was hard hit with losses was the J.V. football team. They did manage to show definite improvement in their offensive area, but they lacked the ability to hold their opponents in defense. Because of this factor, the team finished the season with a 2-5 record.

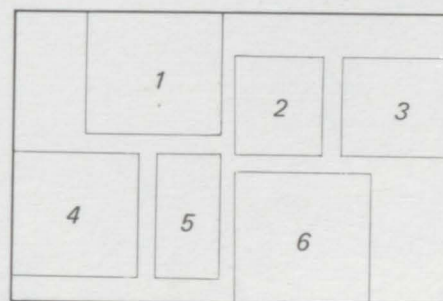

A few victories and a lot of valuable experience are what the boys J.V. basketball team came away with this year.

The team had good hustle, leadership and great determination. All of these qualities were shown in the games against Capac and Roseville Brablec. During the Capac game, the score was tied 60-60 until Mike Polio made the winning basket just as the buzzer sounded. Don Chamqerlain saved the day against Brablec. The score was tied 74-74 when he sunk a basket at the last second to win the game 76-74. Tim Benoit was high scorer for the game with 30 points.

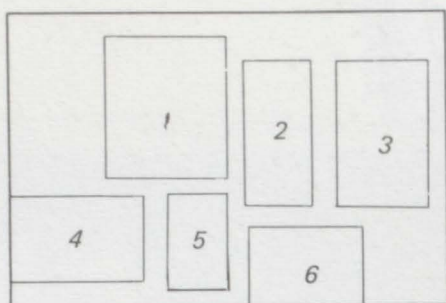

The J.V. basketball team went through a hard and disappointing season, with a little luck they could of won a few more games.

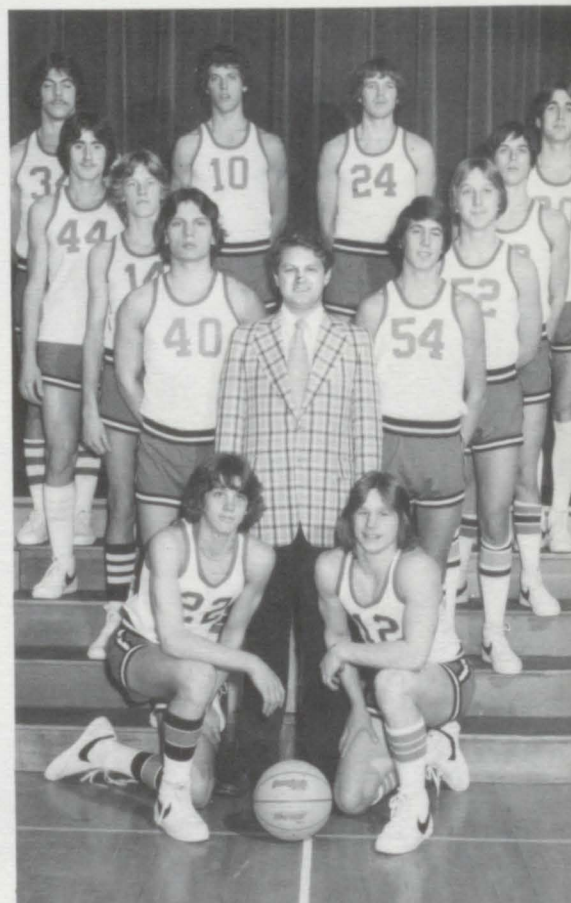

Rebounds, Steals J.V. Energies Season

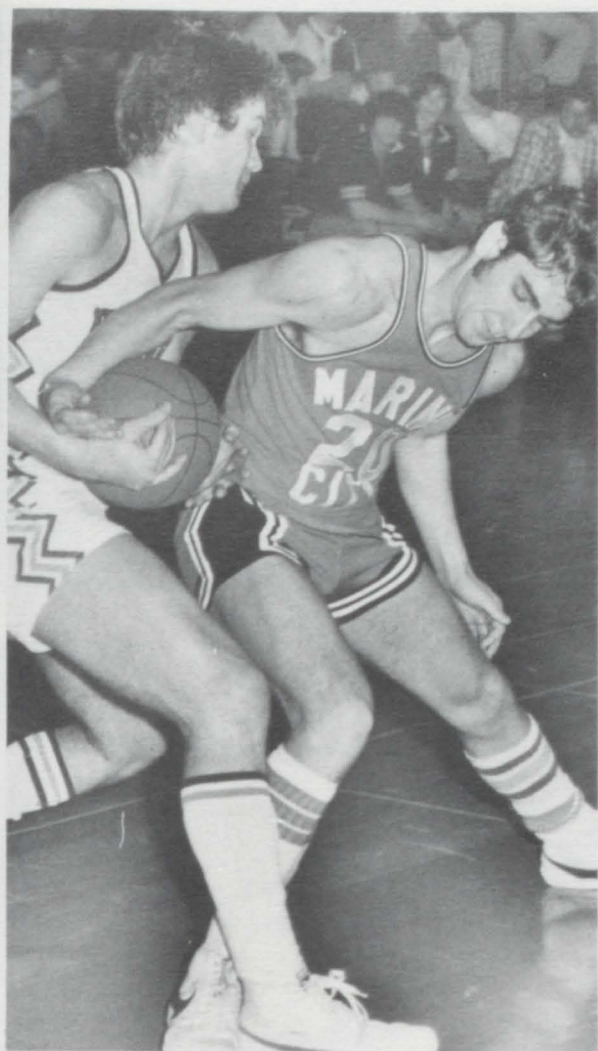

1. Mark Boland anxiously awaits another rebound.
2. Ron Salisbury hurries off another two pointer.
3. The hustling J.V. cagers are: Don Chamberlain, Mike Endres, Mark Boland, Gerry Jones, Mike Bachler, Jeff Paul, Scott Gramer, Ray Schroeder, Tim Benoit, Don Upplegger, Ron Salisbury, Jeff Markel, Mike Polio, and Coach Gerry Warkentian.
4. Mike Polio and Mike Bachler wait for the tip from Jerry Jones.
5. With a determined look, Tim Benoit sinks another Mariner basket.
6. Don Chamberlain gives an all-out effort to get the ball back.

1. Center Rob Parmentier stretches to grab the ball away from a Holy Cross opponent.
2. Forward Shawn O'Rourke struggles with a Viking for possession of the ball.
3. Jerry Currier, guard, jumps up for a long shot.
4. Jerry Currier and Bob Parcel, rush a St. Clair player before he gets a chance to shoot.
5. The 1977-1978 Mariner basketball team are
Top: Rob Parmentier, Jerry Currier, Jon Stangel, and Shawn O'Rourke. Second row: Marvin Kaatz and Pat Gonzcar. Third row: Kenny Hopton and Bob Parcell. Fourth row: Ed Erb, Coach Gunderson, and Scott Faucher. Fifth row: Craig Currier and Scott Zimmerman.
6. Coach Gunderson, Craig Currier, and Scott Faucher sit by themselves on the Mariner bench during a tight game with Roseville Brablec.

1st Palce S.C.A.L. Mariners Bomb Out At Districts

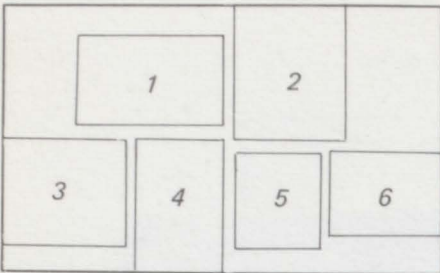

Starting the season with a four-game winning streak, the Mariners appeared as if they were heading strong for the state finals. But in a showdown with St. Clair to retain their first place standing, the Mariners record was cut to 4-1, leaving the Saints and the Mariners tied for first.

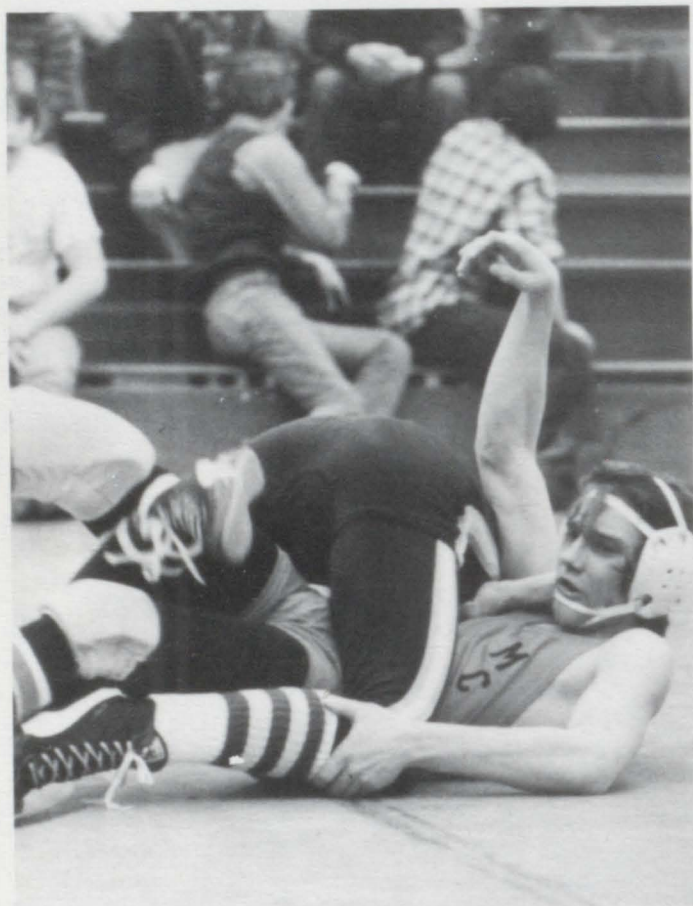

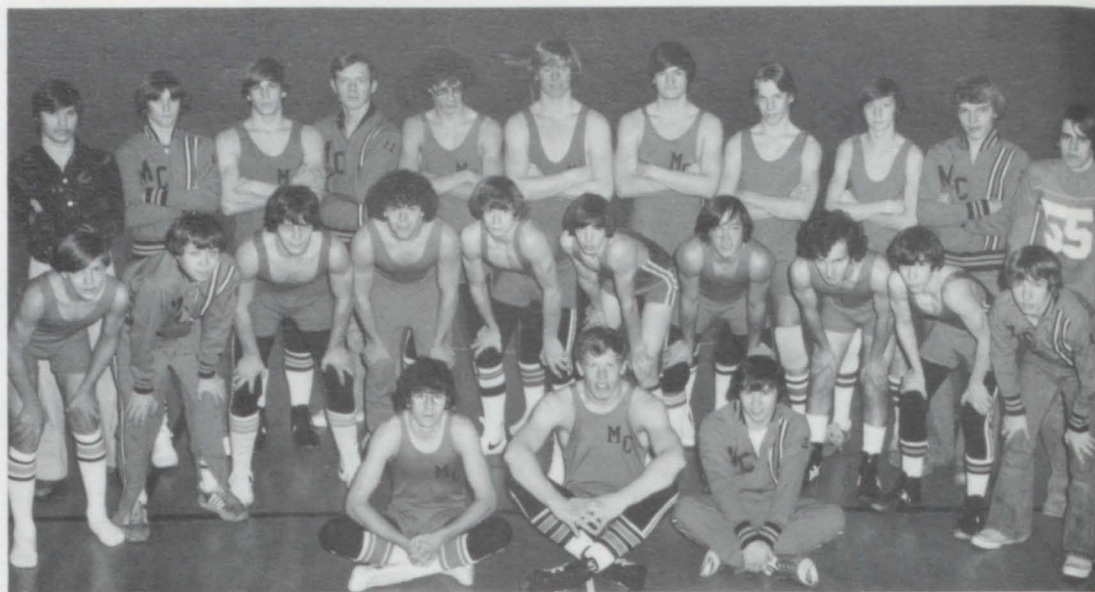

The battle continued throughout the entire season. As fate would have it, the final game for the Mariners was another bout with the Saints. Marine City defeated St. Clair 51-49, leaving the teams tied for first place again.

The Mariners were stopped dead in their hot tracks by Algonac at the district tournaments in Port Huron. Marine City left the courts with a 11-9 season.

Many Victories Grappler Pin 2nd Place

1. The Grappling Wrestlers: Row 1: Craig Boulter, Gordon Kettle, Steve Markel; Row 2: Jeff Mabry, Bobby Smith, Al Wesley, Darek Jones, Bruce Kirkpatrick, Rob Southard, Bob Mabry, Scott Spaulding; Row 3: Coach Don Markel, Jeff Kaiser, Keith Luotonen, Dan Rhodes, Tony DeWitt, Rich Parmentier, Bruce Eschenburg, Mike Ingles, Jack Lanoo, Steve Beauvais.
2. Senior Craig Boulter chalks up a couple more points as he pins another opponent.
3. Jeff Kaiser struggles to release his opponents strong hold.
4. When it comes to wrestling, Steve Markel excels.
5. Gordon Kettle rolls his man over in hopes for a pin.
6. Tony DeWitt really puts the hurt on his opponent.

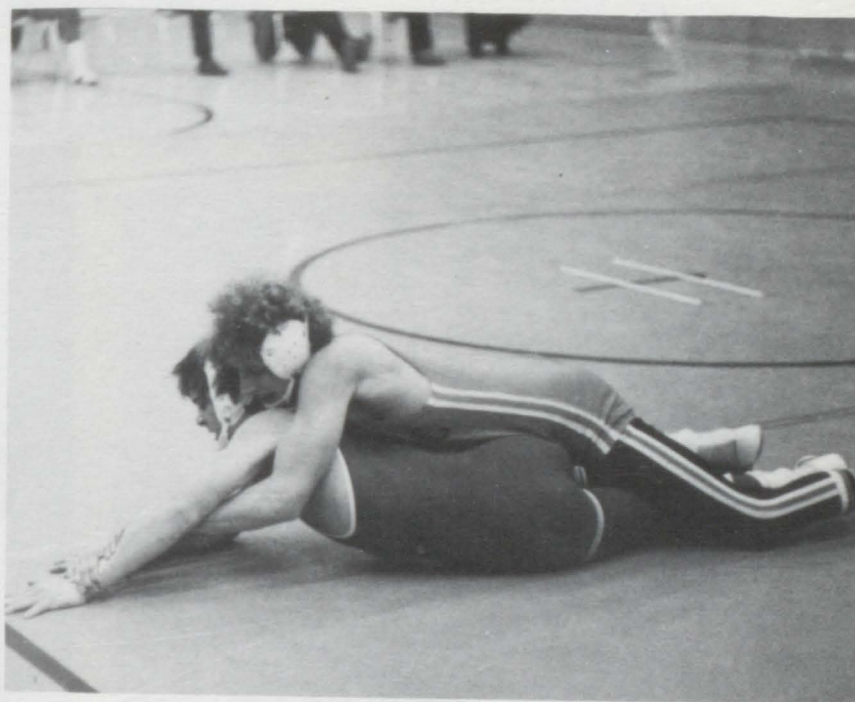

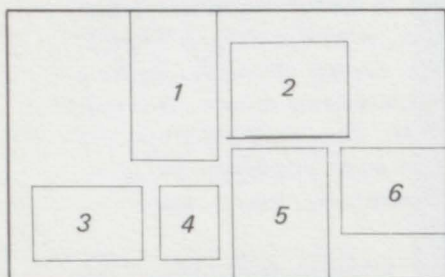

Attitude, Effort, and Experience earned the Marine City wrestlers 2nd place in the SCAL. M.C. grapplers also had 6 regional qualifiers, the most ever in Marine City history.

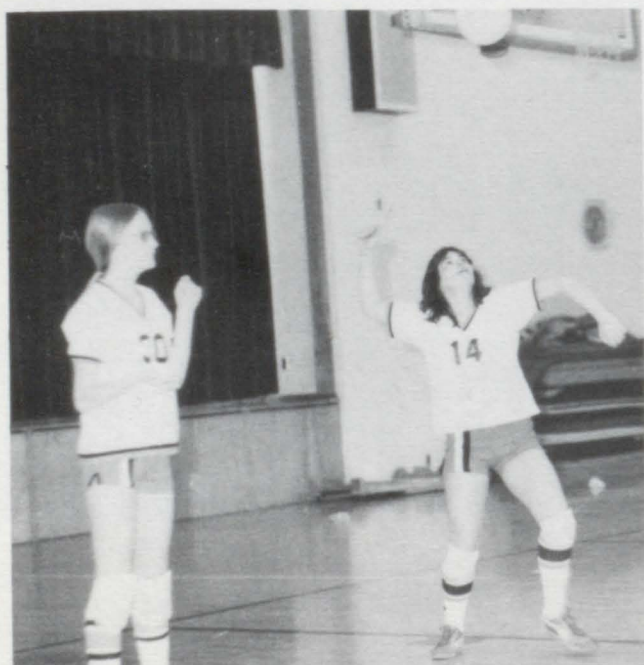

The Mariners are coached by Don Markel, a former M.C.H.S. All-Area wrestler, as well as a 3 year member of the Central Michigan wrestling team. Considering he was a first year coach Mr. Markel did a great job. He brought home new moves and ideas, that made the season worth his effort.

The wrestlers had many close matches. One big match was against 1st Place Anchor Bay. Coaches and teams were in an uproar, but the matmen pulled it through. Algonac was another big match. Eight of the Mariners caught the flu but still put up a good fight. However, the grapplers were defeated in the end. Even though, the Mariners had a great point team, pinning was not their best quality. The team ended with a 4-1 record.

1. Paula Kaminski, the most valuable player, hopes the diving technique she used will work this time.
2. Our hard working J.V. team are: Top row: Karen Thompson, Jane Shaw, Debbie Baker, Paula Wiinikainen, Mary Polio, Tammy Shultz, Pat Gardner. Bottom row: Paula Kaminski, Fay Bowersox, April Blake, Debbie Kammer, Tracy DeHenau, Sara Nichols, Pat Ward.
3. Paula Wiinikainen agrees that Karen Thompson's serve should make it.
4. Here is one of our great J.V. line-ups starting with Jane Shaw, Pat Ward, Tracy DeHenau, Debbie Kammer, Paula Wiinikainen, and right on down to Sara Nichols.
5. Pat Gardner stays in her bumping position while watching to see if that's what it takes to get the ball over the net.
6. Coach Vaughn gives the girls a word of advice before they start the game.

Bump, Set, Spike

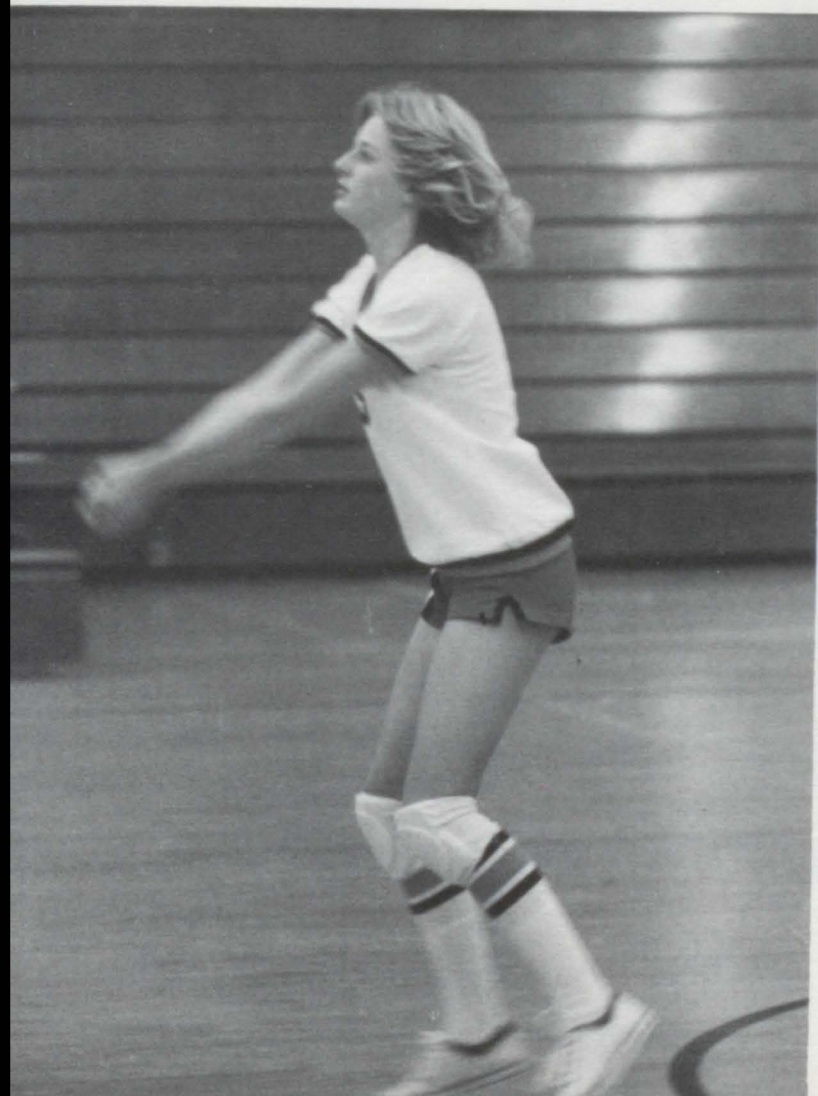

That's the Name of the Game

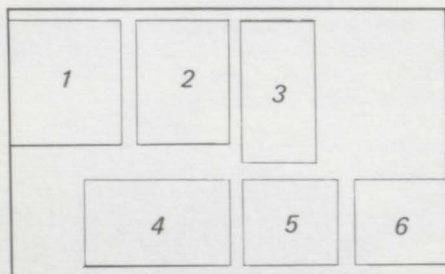

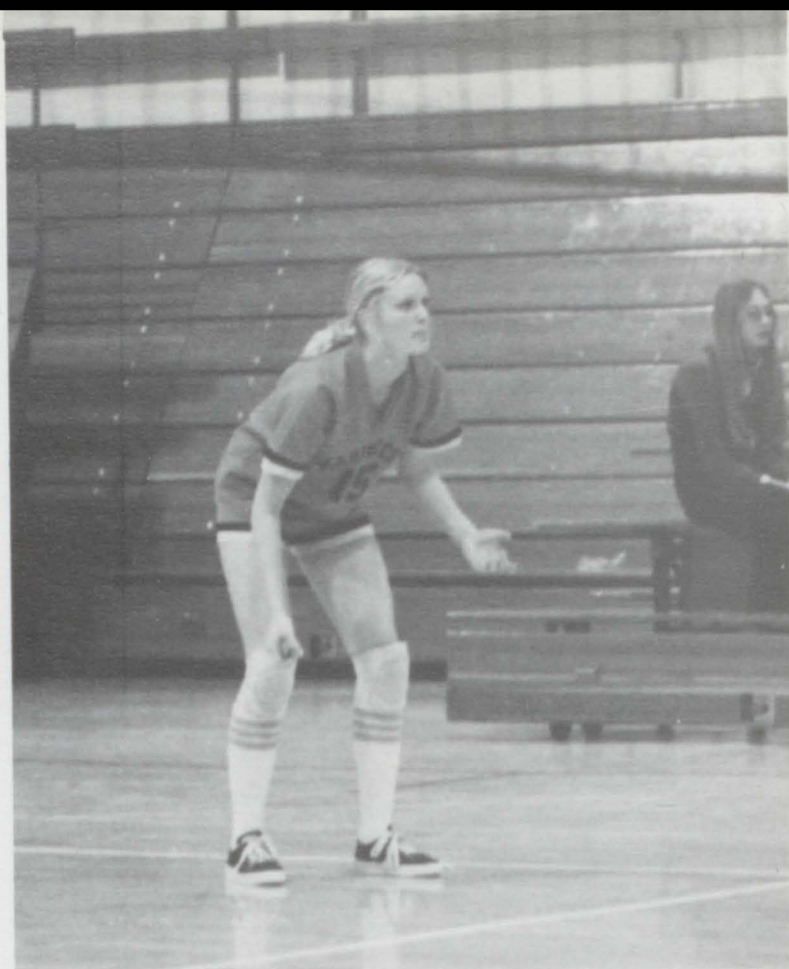

Coordination, quickness, and experience are skills that are needed to make any volleyball team a good one. This year's J.V. team overflowed with all of these except experience. Under the leadership of Ms. Cheryl Vaughan the young team vollied their way through many close games. Bumping, setting, and spiking were some of the new techniques that they learned.

Although the team had little experience, they did rack up a 4-7 record. They also had some key players: Paula Kaminski, was voted M.V.P.; chosen as Most Improved was Sara Nichols; and Jane Shaw was selected Most Spirited.

Even though their season wasn't a great success, they met their many challenges, and had a lot of fun.

1. Senior Judy Payne prepares a forearm pass to setter Terri Hurst.
2. Carol VanSlambrouk awaits a serve from her opponent.
3. Looking to Coach Tomlin for guidance Terri Hurst decides to change defense.
4. The high-spirited Varsity Volleyballers are: top; Coach Tomlin, Lori Frank, Becky Carpenter, Judi Payne, Tove Ostlie, and Manager Maureen Owens. Middle: Kim Westerhof, Terri Hurst, Kay Chamberlain, and Carol VanSlambrouk. Bottom: Annette Blake, Renee Blake, Tina Blakely, and Kathy Nott.
5. Junior Kim Westerhof anticipates her upcoming hit.
6. Judi Payne prepares for a hard driven spike.

Inexperience, Hot-Tempers Plague Team Mariner Gals Bump into Losses

T-E-A-M-W-O-R-K is the number one asset needed for any squad to be successful. Without it a rough season is assured. Our girls found out that this factor is essential; the lack of team work caused a major problem.

Inexperience also was a barrier that was overcome. The improvement of the team was gained by hard work, determination, spirit and most of all pride.

Guided by a new coach, Miss Gale Tomlin, ex-Mariner, and physical education major from Central Michigan University, the team as a whole has improved their skills greatly, and his kindled friendships that were never there before.

Carol VanSlambrouck, 3rd year letter winner, highlighted many games with her ability to rifle serves down many rough opponents throats. She scored 12 consecutive points against arch rival, St. Clair.

Kathy Nott and Renee Blake sparked up the team spirit through the games with constant praise, and superb floor play.

In league tournament action, the Mariners grabbed on to a win over Anchor Bay, landing them in fourth place in the league standings.

Winter Scoreboard

The boys' Varsity Basketball team started this year's winter season with a bang. They tied for first in the St. Clair Area League with their archrival St. Clair. The Mariners, however, were defeated in the district tournaments by Algonac in a very close game. Rob Parmentier was named as one of the six first-team, all-league players. Shawn O'Rourke was placed on the second team, and Jerry Currier received an honorable mention.

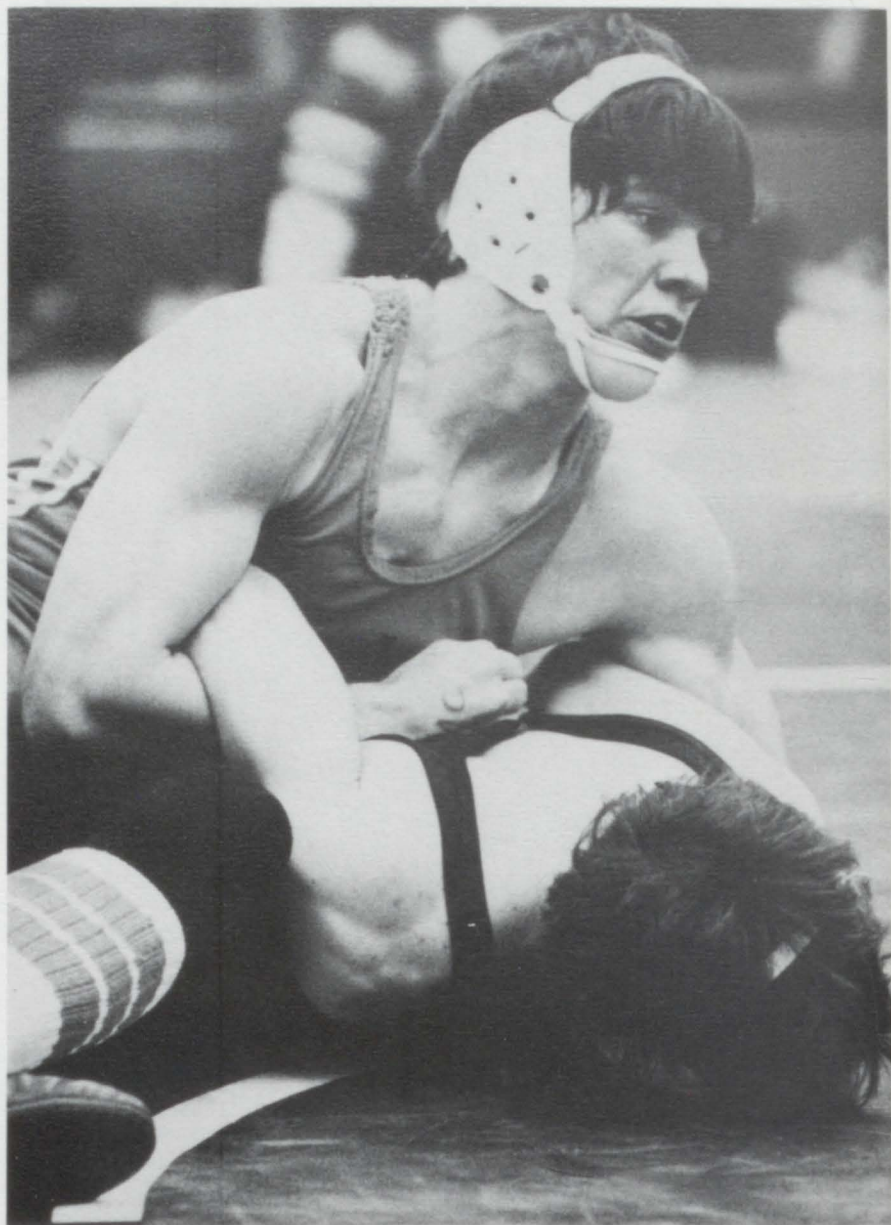

Coach Warkentein brought the J.V. Basketball team through a good playing season. They ended their season with a 7-12 record.

Under the coaching of Don Markel the wrestling team went through a great season. Eight of the wrestlers competed in the state tournaments. The grapplers ended their season by grabbing a second place in the league. Steve Markel and Rob Southard made the All-Area first team. Craig Boulrier made the second team.

The girls Varsity and J.V. Volleyball teams both suffered excessive losses. The major part of their problems lay with their inexperience. The Varsity team managed to wriggle out 1 win out of 15 games. The J.V. team finished with a 4-8 season.

Dedication, practice Tracksters Run Off A Fine Season

The 1977 Mariner track team was ready for winning last year. A talented squad with many newcomers produced a 2-3 league record. There were more qualifiers for the Times Herald meet last year than any previous year.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Pete Markel in the mile and two mile runs. Mark Blair was named All Area Honorable Mention due to fast times in the 440 yard dash and as the anchor leg in the mile relay. Steve Andrews won the Most Valuable Player award by accumulating more points than anyone else. Battening down the number one position in the 100 yard dash and high jump was Rob Parmentier. Shawn O'Rourke and Jerry Currier also did a fine job in the field events.

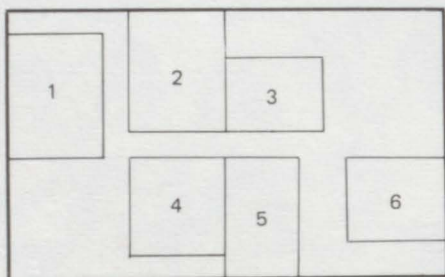

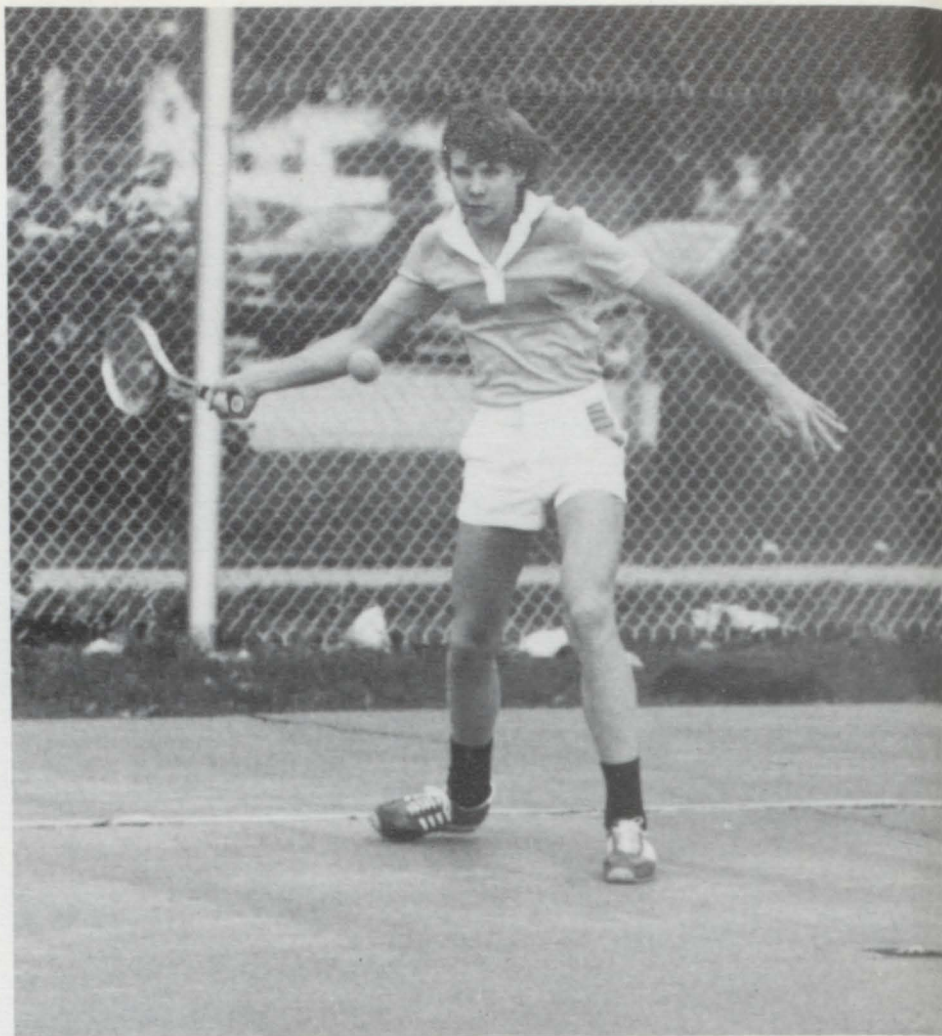

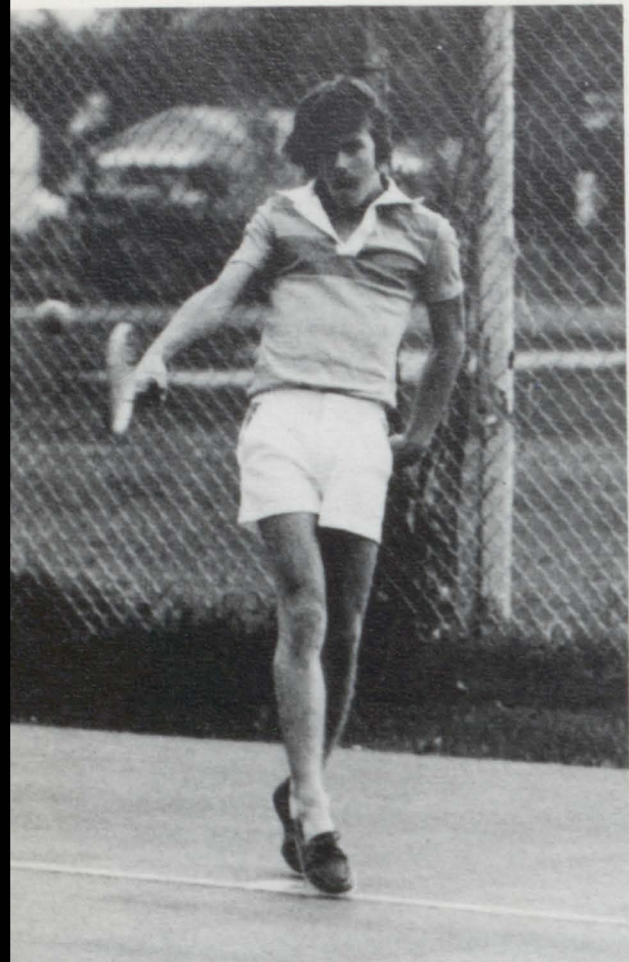

The season was climaxed by Steve Andrews, Tony DeWitt, Don Chamberlain, and Mark Blair leading the mile relay team to the state finals.

1. Shawn O'Rourke shows his high-jumping talent to Mr. Otis.
2. Getting a quick start is an important factor to Tony DeWitt.
3. A graceful Steve Andrews demonstrates how he became most valuable player.
4. Rob Parmentier outclasses the competition on his way to another first place.
5. Taking a few warm up laps is an important step in Mark Blair's practice schedule.
6. Team: Top: Ray Schroeder, Dan Rhodes, Jeff Markel, Mike Endres, Rich Parmentier, Keith Luotonen, Bob Smith. Middle: Coach Walker Archer, Mark Blair, Bob Tranchemontagne, Jerry Wesley, Jerry Currier, Steve Andrews, John Gillespie, Al Wesley, Tim Benoit, Coach Jeff Rice. Bottom: Gary Schmitz, Rob Parmentier, Don Chamberlain, Tony DeWitt, Pete Markel, Brian Love.

1. Using a strong backhand Tom Clemons makes a good save at the baseline.
2. Concentration and good form are the keys to Cris Schmitz's success.
3. Using a lot of muscle Jim Endress powers the ball back over the net.
4. With excellent form Bob Williams makes a strong forehand return.
5. Keith DeFever aces his opponent with a ripping backhand.
6. This year's returning lettermen, with their coach Mr. Newcomb, are: Tom Clemons, Bob Williams, Jim Endress and Keith DeFever.

Drop First Match, Netters Bounce Back

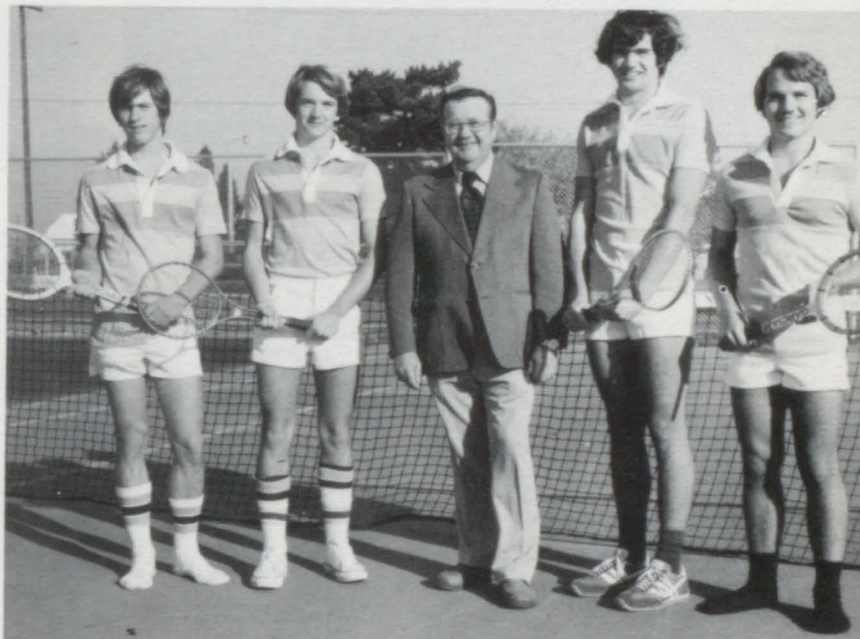

Every March, several students clad in bright orange and yellow uniforms can be seen swinging their rackets around shouting "Tennis Anyone?"

Hard work and determination proved to be the two necessary ingredients to produce a successful tennis team.

The start of the season was more than the Mariners could handle. The 1st loss went to St. Clair in a heated and much disputed match. With cool heads and calm nerves the team bounced back to control the Tars with well placed shots and strong returns to defeat Anchor Bay 6-1.

Even though the season was scattered with inconsistency, the Mariners managed to walk off with a record of 6 wins, 7 losses.

Girls Show Enthusiasm Mariners Run to Best Season

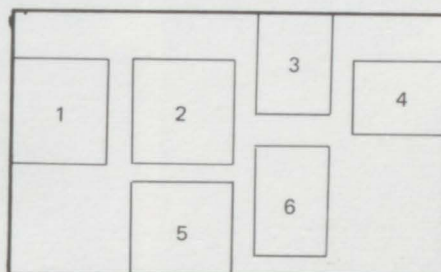

When spring finally reached Marine City, the Mariner girls hit the track with full force. The enthusiasm that flowed from the girls led the track team to its most successful season since this sport was introduced to our area three years ago.

This year was the first year Marine City has had representatives attend the Times Herald track meet and the Regional and State track meets. At the Times Herald meet, Renee Blake took a fifth in the discus. Kathy Nott placed second at the Regional track meet in the shot put. She then went on to take part in the State meet. Although she did not take any places there, everyone was very proud of her.

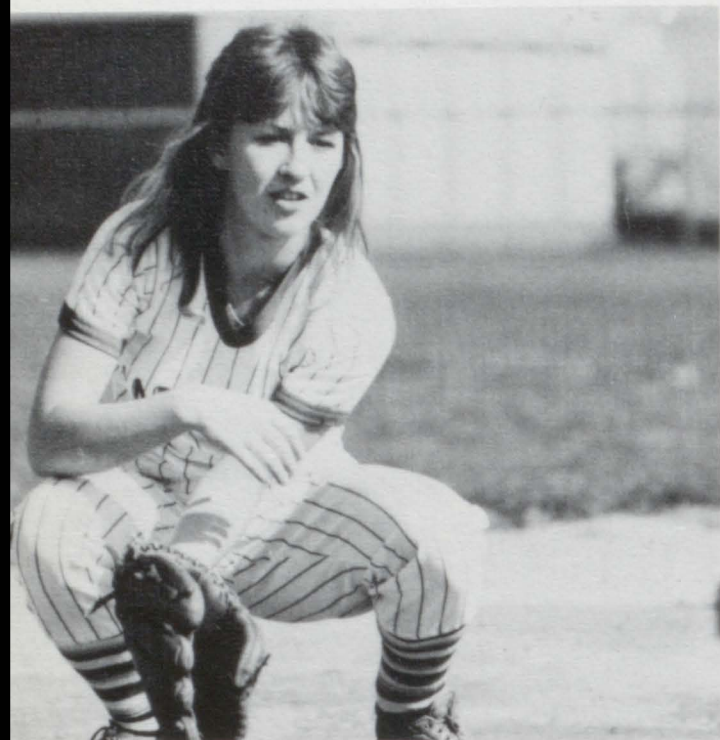

Finishing the season with a 2-7 record, the girls showed a definite improvement over past seasons' performances.

1. Kathy Brettin makes a quick hand-off to Kathy Merrill.
2. "Your shoe laces are undone," says Kathy Nott, trying desperately to pass Ellen Jessup.
3. "It takes 100% effort to be a good discus thrower," explains Renee Blake.
4. Members of the team. Top: Sue Wiinikainen, Debbie Bradd, Mary Beth Stockwell, Lori Frank, Lee Ann Merrick. Middle: Kim Kammer, Kathy Brettin, Tina Blakely, Kelly Endres, Kathy Nott, Kathy Merrill, Kim Black. Bottom: Wendy Tomlin, Tammy LaMee, Renee Blake, Pam Leach, and Ellen Jessup.
5. Debbie Bradd and Tina Blakely take a minute to rest from their strenuous track events.
6. "This is my winning form," Kathy Nott tells us as she prepares to throw the shot put.

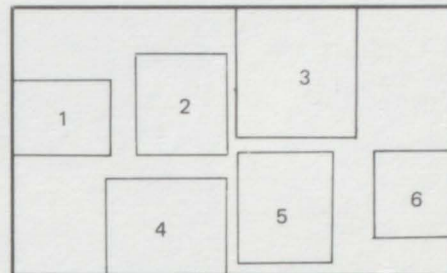

Gals Capture First Run To Victory

Over the past three years the girls softball team developed into one of the strongest teams in the area. With good hitters, hard team work and solid fielding, they tied for first in the SCAL league with Chippewa Valley and Port Huron Central.

Some of the sluggers on the team that helped get the victories were Seniors Kay Chamberlain and Annette Heilman, Junior Lori Denean and Sophomore Fay Bowersox. Catcher Jean Polio was kept busy behind the plate throwing out runners left and right.

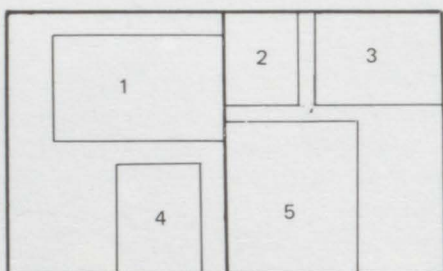

1. Jean Polio concentrates on the pitch she's about to catch.
2. Hanging around 3rd base is Fay Bowersox.
3. Annette Heilman makes another great catch.
4. Kay Chamberlain throws a strike for the Mariner cause.
5. At bat for the girls softball team are top to bottom — Kay Chamberlain, Annette Heilman, Kim Westerhof, Annette Blake, Fay Bowersox, Lori Denean, Jean Polio and Sara Posey.
6. Ready to throw the ball home is Sara Posey and Fay Bowersox.

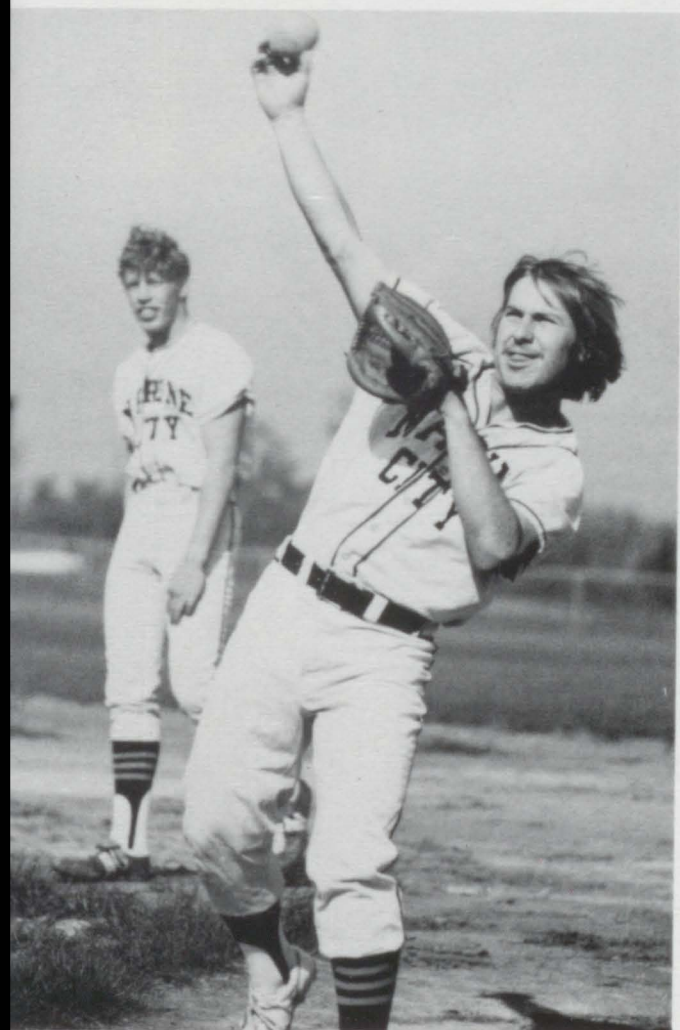

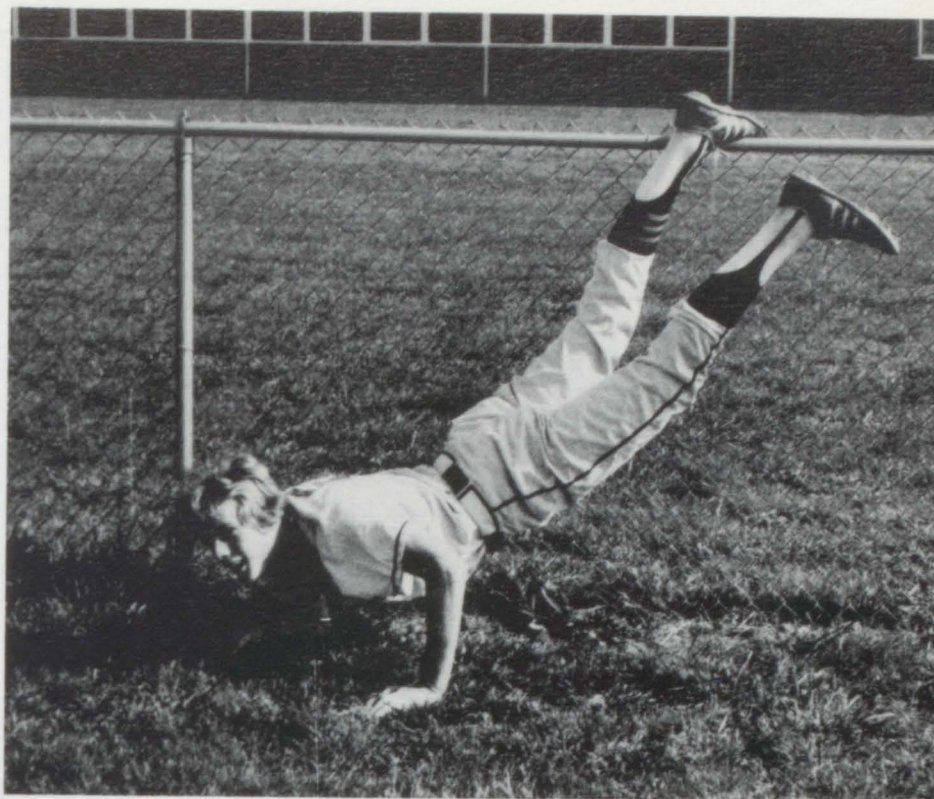

Bases Loaded, Mariners Ground Out!!!

1. 1977 Mariner returning Varsity Baseball lettermen: Top, Bob Paul, Gordon Kettel, Vince Fordt, and Jim Jones, and bottom Larry Gill, Bob Parcell, Dave Smith, and Tom Reichle.
2. Senior Tom Reichle, fires the ball home.
3. "Someone help me QUICK!" screams Jim Jones as he falls trying to jump the fence.
4. Bob Parcell waits anxiously for some left field hits.
5. "Back off Jack, I feel GOOD!" hollers catcher Pokie Gill.

After the frigid blasts of winter leave us and spring blossoms, America turns to it's number one sport BASEBALL!

Along with the warm breezes and sunshine comes the rejection of heavy coats and warm boots, which are traded in for T-shirts and cutoffs.

This is the time that guys get the urge to head for the diamond. Stiff gloves are oiled and cleaned with pride and the dust is brushed off trusty ole caps.

After hours of grueling practice, days in the weight room, and alot of hard work, teams in the area are ready for another season.

Although their season was nothing to cheer about, the 1977 Mariners managed to pull off a 5 win, 12 loss season. Lack in batting strength proved to be the Mariner's downfall. The top averages were: Jim Hill (.267), Bob Paul (.261), Gordon Kettel (.260), Larry Gill (.243), and Vince Fordt (.137).

Mariner Spring Scoreboard

Many outstanding individuals contributed greatly to the success of the Mariner Spring teams.

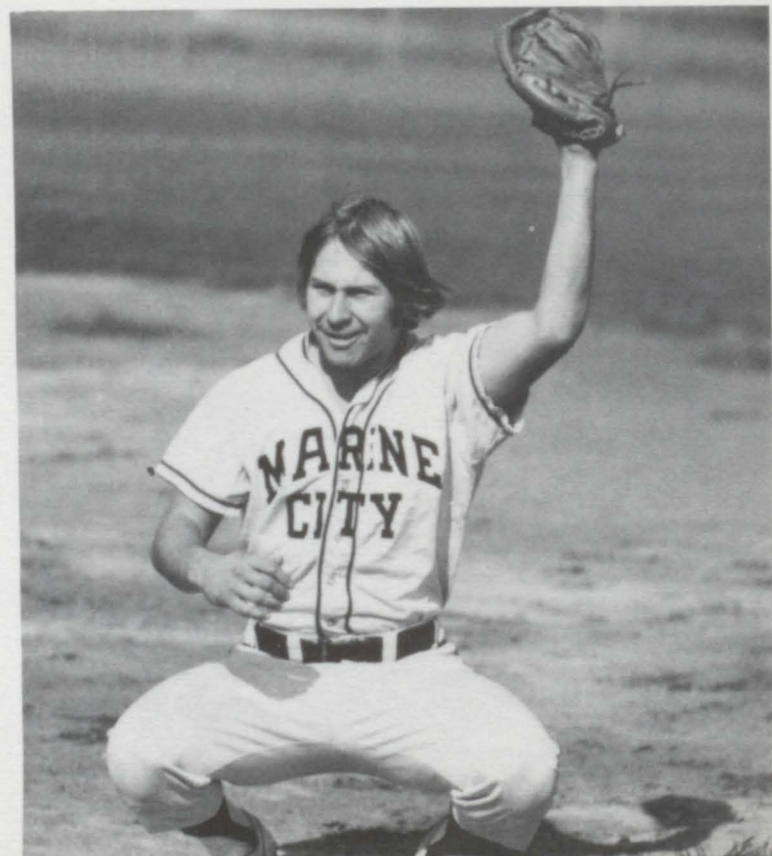

The Tennis buffs had a good season, with a 6 win, 7 loss overall record. Jim Endres, top singles player, highlighted the swinging set. Bob Williams was awarded the Most Improved Player on the team.

Running onto the track, the Mariner gals received high honors. Senior Renee Blake threw her way to the Times Herald Honors Meet, and took a 5th place in the discus throw. Kathy Nott landed in Regional and State shot put competition. She placed 2nd in the Regionals.

On the Boys track scene, the Mile Relay team, made up of: Steve Andrews, Mark Blair, Don Chamberlain, and Tony DeWitt, handed off to a 30th place in the state.

The strong hitting and fielding of the Girls Softball team sparked the Mariners to a successful season. They tied for 1st place in the S.C.A.L. All League Honorable Mention was awarded to Seniors Jean Polio, and Kay Chamberlain.

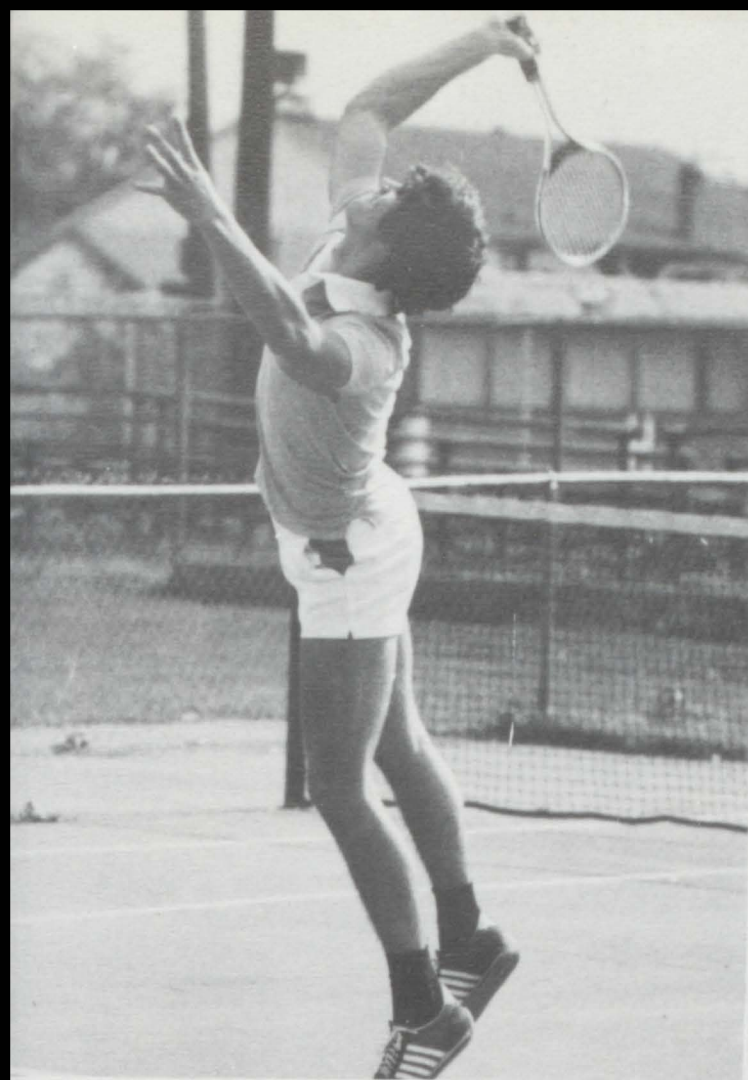

Out on the guys diamond, inconsistency at bat caused the team a slow first half. Later in the season, they caught on to four wins which slid them into a 5 win, 12 loss overall season. 4 of the 8 returning lettermen were awarded All League Honorable Mention: Larry Gill, Vince Fordt, Gordon Kettel, and Bob Paul.

The Individuals

"Individuals" — no two are alike! But at MCHS, they're all underclassmen, which make up a big part of any school. Sophomores and Juniors are really the most involved people at MCHS, because they're here all the time — 6 hours a day with a full class schedule. They're still trying out MCHS, still exploring. In the life of an underclassmen, the focus certainly isn't on following the footsteps of Seniors — its on learning to lead.

Sophomores! Sophomores! This cheer could be heard loud and clear at the first pep assembly and it never softened throughout the year. The Sophomores found out that high school could be a lot of fun. Building their first place float and participating in their first Homecoming Assembly were some of the exciting things that happened during their first year.

"Can I see your ring?" This phrase could be heard throughout the halls during the first few weeks of school. All this questioning was done because the Sophomores had to decide what kind of band; gold? ultrium? And what kind of stone; green? blue? red? to choose for their class rings.

All Sophomores will certainly agree that one thing they did learn this year was how to deposit 30 cents in the pop machine and get something in return!

The class of '79' has moved on up to bigger and better things. A lot of their moving was centered around the newly found privilege of driving. When they did get the car, they could be found taking laps around the Idiot Circle or partying on McKinley Road.

Even though the Junior class took a disappointing 2nd place in the float competition, their spirit didn't die. They went on to win spirit jugs consistently. This spirit stayed with them throughout the year as prom planning time rolled around.

Prom planning, Wow! That was another big thing. We went out selling candy door to door so that the ticket prices would be halfway reasonable. It took a lot of hard work and surely every Junior got awfully sick of eating all the candy that wasn't sold. Then April 21 came. Nardo's Country House was the spot chosen for the festive evening. "Ceyx" helped the Juniors and Seniors to really party down that evening.

Finally exam time came. The Juniors made passing grades and moved up to become the Senior class of 1979.

The Graduates

"Decisions, decisions, decisions!" is what Senior life is all about. Everything from worrying what to do after school gets over to finding someplace to go on all those free hours graduates always find themselves blessed with. None of the decisions are easy, but when the "Senioritis" sets in, even deciding whether or not to attend class is a tough one. As June draws closer and the count down begins, it really becomes clear, for graduates, that the focus isn't on classes, grades, or looking back on four years of M.C.H.S. — it's on starting to work on those dreams, and the life ahead.

We are the Hope for Tomorrow

The graduating class of "78" has left it's mark here at MCHS — they'll certainly never be forgotten. Under the leadership of President Gordon Kettel, the Seniors experienced the best year in their high school career.

Some of the most memorable moments include the winning "77" football team, the great flower parties (which didn't help their float too much!), and Homecoming "78" — Fairy Tales Come True, with their very own Queen Sue Wiinikainen. Francisco Parrago (Hey Ce-esco!) from El Salvador and Tove Ostlie from Norway were the two foreign exchange students who expressed their friendship and captured our interest throughout the school year.

Drawn together by picnics, parties and 4 years of classes, the Seniors looked back on their MCHS days to the tune of "Child For A Day" and with the motto "We are the hope for tomorrow, for without hope there is no future."

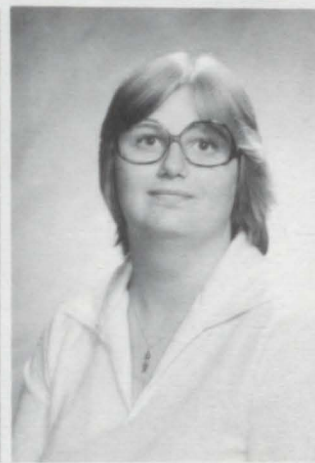

Trying to get their moneys worth Senior President Gordon Kettle, Vice President Judy Payne, Treasure Cheryl Goddard, and Secretary Mary Whitehurst bargain with the Senior Trip agencies.

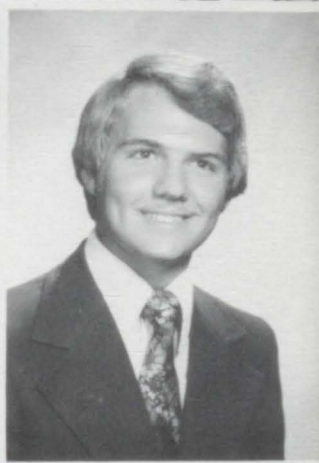

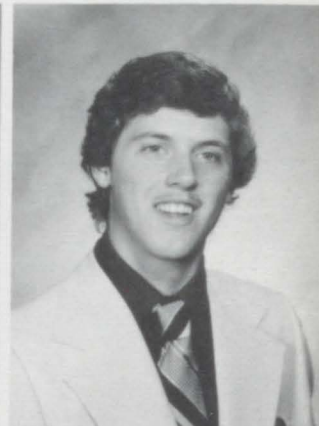

"Hey Cisco! Wanna buy some pop?" was the chant heard by Cisco Parraga throughout his year at Marine High.

The Contributors

When people think of "contributors", money automatically comes to mind. In truth, M.C.H.S. contributors give much more time, support, and service. They know that making money is important, but not enough. So they provide training and jobs for our students, support for our athletes, and in short, are always ready to move when a need arises. MC merchants and area businesses mean a lot more than just a quick buck to M.C.H.S. and the 1978 Mariner — the focus is on some very supportive people and the picture is one of thanks.

THE MARINER LOG

"The Mariner Log" keeps track of events that occur in and around school. There's front page news to keep you up-to-date on happenings around M.C.H.S., followed by a page of informative features and sometimes-controversial editorials. Cartoons and humor bring smiles to many-a-face, and of course there's the back page sports, complete with action photos. All this combines to make "The Mariner Log" one of the most successful school papers in recent years.
